Following is the managing committee selected: E. S. R. Murray, W. J. S. Myles, W. E. Demings, Harold Stubbs; match committee, W. A. Shaw, W. J. Currie, R. S. Orchard, George Stubbs.

Notes of Interest.

Al Badoud, welterweight champion of Europe, watched the Britton-Lewis bout at the Armory A. A. Boston, on last Tuesday night and challenged both of them.

If Les Darcy is to visit the United States and there appears no doubt of it, the game will be lived up a lot.

Bout A Tame One.

(Boston Globe.)

Jack Britton of New York and Ted Lewis of England had their fourth fight in Boston at the Armory A. A. on last Tuesday night, and the bout was called a draw at the end of twelve rounds. It was the spottest exhibition they have put up in this city.

Britton was entitled to the award, but Referee Larry Conly, because of the way the pair worked, decided not to give either one any advantage.

Both looked to be in good shape. They boxed at catch-weights. Britton did the forcing and did most of his hitting with the left hand, stabbing Lewis' face often.

At times Britton left good openings, some of which Lewis took advantage of. Britton used his right very little. He landed it on Lewis' jaw a few times, but too high up even to stagger the Englishman.

Lewis landed some left jabs on Britton's face, but most of them had little force. Some of his blows were delivered with the open glove. In the closing rounds they engaged in some fast mixing, but neither one did any harm to the other.

BASEBALL

Cubs Sign Young Giant

Chicago, Nov. 14.—The Chicago Nationals have signed a promising first base candidate in Edward McGinnis, a young giant from Boston. McGinnis is 6 feet 2 inches tall, weighs 180 pounds and bats and throws right handed. He is nineteen years old. The recruit has been instructed to report here on Feb. 20 for the spring training trip to the coast, as it is reported that Vic Salen, the first baseman of the club, may be unable to start the season because of the poor condition of his eyes.

TURF

Claims New World's Record

Montreal, Nov. 14.—What is said to be a new world's five-mile harness record was hung up by Frankie Bogash, owned by J. M. Landry of Quebec, when the full sister of the famous Frank Bogash, Jr.'s best Montreal, a locally owned horse, in a match race in 1:22 1/2 at the harness race matinee on the Maisonneuve track yesterday afternoon.

Several thousand enthusiasts attended the races and thousands of dollars changed hands as a result of the match race, which was for a stake of $500. This race proved very close and furnished plenty of excitement. Marconi went to the front at the start and held the lead for the first three and a half miles, when Frankie Bogash forged her way to the front and held the advantage to the finish, despite several determined challenges by Marconi, who was only a few lengths behind at the wire. The winner was driven by a Quebec alderman, N. Davuin.

HOCKEY

McNamara Bros. Pass Exams.

Toronto News.—Congratulations are in order to the McNamara boys of the 228th Battalion. They have successfully passed the examination, and are now full fledged captains. Two better qualified officers would be hard to find. They have played hockey in Toronto nearly every season since the N. H. A. invaded this city, and always acted in a clean-cut, sportsmanlike manner both on and off the ice. That showed their calibre. They are good players, good sportsmen and this is qualification enough to be leaders of men in the greatest game of the present time.

The McNamara brothers, who some years ago became popularly known as "the dynamic twins," formerly played in Halifax.

"THE SECRET OF THE SUBMARINE"

Thursday in preparation for the Yale football game on Saturday. Wednesday's hard drive in scrimmages left the men in a much improved condition, both physically and in their knowledge of the new variations in formations, to be used in the contest against the New Haven team. The cold, crisp weather Thursday helped to put the men on edge. All the injured players are rounding into condition rapidly, and Coach Rush will have plenty of good men on hand to put into the game if the regulars become disabled. There is a decision in order to avoid possible injuries to the first string men and to give the substitutes who may be used against Yale experience in a hard game. The association added that "the team will start probably by no means a weak one." In this connection one of the Harvard coaches pointed to the game against Virginia recently when Harvard presented virtually three complete teams, which in results, varied little throughout the game. The announcement of the association included notice that tickets purchased with the expectation of seeing leading players start the game would be redeemed.

The Harvard Athletic Association on Wednesday night announced that few, if any of the players who started the game against the Princeton team last Saturday will be in the Crimson's initial line-up against Brown at the Stadium next Saturday. The Harvard coaching staff, it was explained, had made this decision in order to avoid possible injuries to the first string men and to give the substitutes who may be used against Yale experience in a hard game. The association added that "the team will start probably by no means a weak one." reputation, by a trotting sire out of a thoroughbred pan, with all the skill of a veteran in the Garden echoed and re-echoed with the cheers of those who saw her win this prize. It was a fitting climax to her help in winning the hunt team prize with the same horse in the afternoon.

Three-Cushion Pocket Billiard for Silver Trophy

CHAMPION MOORE WILL MEET DE ORO

New York, Nov. 15.—The victory of George W. Moore in the three-cushion pocket billiard championship match with Hugh De Oro will result in the next title match being played in this city. The veteran, Alfred De Oro is the next challenger in line and the match is scheduled to take place some time between December 9 and 10. Under the rules governing the custody of the emblem Moore will have to oppose De Oro in a public hall in New York, where Moore has a legal residence. Moore can only accept an offer to have the match played in any other place by obtaining the consent of the Brunswick-Balke-Clender Company, the donor of the trophy.

Moore is now in possession of the emblem for the first time in the tournament. He carried it off in a contest with William B. Huey of Chicago. Huey forfeited to De Oro, who defeated two challengers, August Knechtler and Lloyd Javne, but was beaten by Charles Ellis of Pittsburgh. Ellis was successful in his first challenge match against Pierre Masponne of St. Louis, but later was forced to yield the trophy to Charles C. McCourt, of Pittsburgh. Hugh Heel of Toledo captured the title from McCourt only to pass it back to Moore in the recent match.

Since the championship trophy was put in play in March, 1915, it has been held by six individuals. It is destined to furnish considerable competition in the future, as McCourt has already issued a challenge and will be in line to meet the winner of the Moore-De Oro match.

BAN JOHNSON SAID TO FAVOR THIRD LEAGUE

New York, Nov. 14.—The suggestion for a third major league is said to have originated in the mind of President Johnson, of the American League. Johnson is a smart baseball politician, and whenever he makes a suggestion he commands attention. He has favored a third league for some time, providing it does not cut into major league territory. Johnson believes that a combination of the best cities in the International League and the American Association will hit the nail on the head. It will appeal to popular demand for better baseball in the null areas. Johnson recognizes the important fact that the managers do not embrace all the cities that can afford so-called major league; for that reason his third league idea is calculated to satisfy public clamor, and to boom the game. Furthermore, the Johnson plan, if carried out, will cover the entire field, the majors being enabled to control twenty-four cities instead of sixteen and the making it impossible to leave them open to outside invasion.

LEXINGTON HAS FAST YEARLING PACER

A remarkable yearling pacer has shown up in the fall work at Lexington. He is called Boston Man, and is by the Northern Man (2:06 1/2), dam by The Director General. The colt first was shod and rigged for trotting, but like all natural pacers soon showed his preference for that gait and was allowed to exercise it. George Starr, who has the youngster in charge, is an old hand with pacers, and was behind Direct (2:05 1/2) when the little black horse was the sensation of the Grand Circuit in the pacing line. Starr says Boston Man can speed a 2:00 rate right now, and as other sons of Blingen than Northern Man have spread sensational early speed at the pace, Boston Man is highly regarded by the blue grass country critics. The Director General, sire of his dam, has three trotters and five pacers in the 2:10 list, his pacers including Don Fronto (2:02 1/2), William O. (2:04 1/2), and Hydrex (2:04 1/2).

A sister of Manrico (2:07 1/2), now a prominent young sire, was shipped from Kentucky to California last week and with her went a two-year-old filly by Manrico, dam Helen Stiles (2:06 1/4), Will Duffer, the California trainer who made the journey with the pair, Manrico and Helen Stiles their records, so will know how to handle the youngster. Nearly every high-class colt has handled a number of trotters of one strain characteristics are quick to assert themselves. So when a trainer has handled a number of trotters of one strain of blood he is apt to be more successful with others of that brand than would be a stranger. John Goldsmith practically made the Gray Wilkes family famous, and Millard Sanders had a lot to do with bringing the get of Sidney Dillon to the front. Lou Dillon (1:58 1/2) being his big card.

The yearling trotter, Dr. Elmore, which recently stepped a quarter at Lexington in 2:1 1/2, is by J. Malcolm Forbes (2:08) and from a Moko mare. The Moko blood is greatly in evidence this season through the performance of The Red Lady and others.

If new enamel pans are placed in a pan of water and allowed to come to the boil and then cool, they will be found to last much longer without burning or cracking.
