The need of having public playgrounds in different parts of the city was plainly demonstrated this morning in the police court, when Orland Colwell, a sixteen year old boy was fined $8 or thirty days jail on a charge of being one of a disorderly crowd of boys last night in Cliff street. The young fellow said that he had been playing ball in the street with other lads, and they had been shouting in fun at one another.

A number of small boys, jubilant, presumably, over the fact that some of their friends were being married, gave the police considerable trouble last night by starting bonfires. The police were compelled to interfere, and extinguish the fires, but while they were putting out one, almost at the same time another was being started. Policemen Scott and Lucas extinguished bonfires in Clarence and St. Patrick streets, and also at the corner, while Scott and Clark also damped one in Clarence street. Policeman J. H. Ross was called upon to act as fireman in the case of a barrel blaze in St. Paul street.

WHEN SALMON AND SHAD WERE MANY IN THE KENNEBECASIS

Veteran Duncan Buchanan, Here on His Way to Norton, Recalls Days of Long Ago

Duncan Buchanan, who bears his eighty sixth year with the jauntyness of a youth of sixty, came in from Bridgewater, Maine, yesterday, en route for Norton and points along the I. C. R. Mr. Buchanan can tell of a time when sawdust and other agencies did not effect the fishing on the Kennebecasis river. Fifty or sixty years ago salmon, sea trout and shad were plentiful in their season. Mr. Buchanan remembers that one night, two men fished for shad at Ruland's Island, below Norton, and netted 400 fish. The same night two other men, at the old mill-dam half way between Norton and Apohaqui, caught 200 shad. These catches were a record, but every farmer in those days had his own pickled shad for winter use.

S. S. PREMIER ON THE ROUTE Arrangement Made for the Popular Kennebecasis Tourist Route to be Opened

Summer residents with homes by the Kennebecasis will be glad to learn, with those who live there all the time, that the owners of the S. S. Premier, the steam ferryboat steamer, built two or three years ago, have arranged to place the boat upon a regular route between Moncton, Glen Fair Vale, Clifton, Gondola Point and Reed's Point route this week. The first trip will be on Saturday morning, starting at Reed's Point, stopping at intervening points and connecting at Robesay with the Sussex train for St. John.

Returning, the steamer will leave Robesay for Reed's Point at 8.45 a. m., after the arrival of the suburban train from St. John at 8.25.

For the benefit of those who go to the country on Saturday afternoon by the 11.30 suburban train, the Premier will make a noon Robesay trip, leaving there at 2 p. m., after the arrival of the train. Then the evening trip will be—Reed's Point, departure 4.45, and Robesay, departure 6 o'clock.

An extension of the service is contemplated on Sundays to enable residents of lower Long Island to visit their homes. The weekly ferry trip will be made from Millidgeville to Reed's Point, crossing and re-crossing the river and calling at landing places where signals are shown. This is done at the request of many who are unable to make connection on Saturday afternoon with the train leaving St. John at 5.15.

ROW ON STEAMER COSTS ONE MAN $20

Trouble occurred on Saturday last on the steamer Kings Town at her wharf in Carleton, between two of the crew, one apparently wishing to exert his authority over the other, whom he considered a "landlubber." David Robertson, a big Scotchman employed as donkey-man, was arrested by Policeman Lee as an outcome of the affray, and Judge Ritchie placed a fine of $20 against him this morning. Robertson denied the charge, saying that the complainant, Manning Hughes, had provoked him, and had started the fight. Hughes, who professed blissful ignorance of the ship and its crew, gave a description of the fracas, and exhibited scars to show how hard the Scot had hit him. He was corroborated by Charles Robinson, but the prisoner told the judge that he was lying. A fine of $2 each was imposed on John E. Kelley and Clarence Sellen, reported by Sergeant Kilpatrick for furious driving in Adelaide street on Sunday night. No decision has yet been given in the recent sham fight held by the St. John Fair. The umpire is waiting until all the reports have been received. Wild strawberries are arriving at Indian-town in small quantities and have found buyers at twenty-two cents a box retail.
