FARM produce that can be developed in sufficient vol-ume to feed an Empire, vast lumber tracts, minerals in abundance, deep-sea and inland fisheries, water powers, rivers, harbours, and transportation facilities—these are the natural and fundamental sources from which Canada draws today, and will continue to draw for many centuries, the wealth that makes for the strength and greatness of a nation.

When this bank was founded over a century ago it had confidence in the future of Canada. Today, with hundreds of branches throughout the Dominion and with a complete banking service suited to the needs of every locality, the Bank of Montreal's confidence in the future of Canada

Changing World Order," by Dr. Charles M. Sheldon, editor of the Christian Herald, who spoke of the changes in economics, education, social life, morals and religious thought caused by the inorceasing closer and intimate contacts of nations the world around, and described some of the esoteric religious views that are now challenging Christianity in the very streets of the United States and Canada. "The surest way to make certain that we have Christian nations on the North American continent two generations hense," he said, "is to have a thorough-going campaign of religious education now, so that temorrow the boys and girls of today will be equipped to teach in an adequate manner the then rising generation. The merger of the two great Sunday school agencies into one augurs well for the success of such a venture."

Those of the delegates to the Sixteenth International Sunday School Convention who could shortened the already brief lunch hour to visit the Sunday school exhibit. The exhibit is educational and is the finest and most complete Sunday school publications and supplies of all denominations are on exhibition. The genius back of the production of Sunday school material is here. Two large connecting rooms contain the exhibit of the
