A VERY QUANT WIL.

The will of Eliza J. Wakefield of Etina has been filed at the probate court. The document will be of interest inasmuch as it was drawn but a few days before Mr. Wakefield committed suicide by shooting himself. It reads as follows:
"I leave to my sister, Lizzie A. Weed of Unity the following: My farm in Etina, and I also give to her son, Fred Hall, my chestnut mare, providing he will always keep her. After she is of no use and when he is dead with her, she must be shot and buried. If he doesn't want her, she is to be shot and laid to rest on the farm. Next, the bay horse, I give to Percy A. Weed of Unity, if he wants him. If he doesn't want to use and always keep him, he is to be shot and laid to rest with the chestnut mare. The cows and heifer are to be sold, also the farm tools. My dog and white cat are to be given to my sister, Lizzie A. Weed of Unity. The old cat is to be killed. All of the household goods are to go to Sister Lizzie.
Suitable grave stones must be set for father, mother and myself within six months after my death. Mrs. Weed, my sister, can sell the farm if she wants to,
I hereby appoint my sister, Lizzie A.
Weed, my executor."
