THE MAN IN THE STREET

Those old-fashioned winters have nothing on the 1917-18 variety.

The coal shortage keeps us from overlooking the fact—if there is any danger of our doing so.

If that increased production movement does not move lively there will be nothing for the food and fuel controllers to control.

Next question is: "Are you one of the 144,000?"

It is some consolation that we are given seven years to qualify.

Bolsheviki are willing to do their part towards bringing on the millennium. They are determined to have peace if they have to kill off everyone who stands in their way.

Which is not so awfully unlike the Kaiser's method.

Bolsheviki ideas of democracy sound better than they look—to say nothing of the fact that their campaign smells of Prussianism.

We'd Like to Know.

The local paper which insists that the entire amount for the patriotic should be included in this year's estimates, and also that the tax rate should be reduced this year, might tell us how to pay a ten dollar account with about $7.69 in real money.

An Even Choice.

If you are interested in the war news you have your choice between the European despatches and the upper Canadian hockey games.

What's this western Progressive party that Hon. Bob Rogers is tut-tutting about? Is it a Canadian branch of the Bolshevik?

London seems impressed by the horror of the Hun aviators' fall from a height of 10,000 feet. Do they really think it would have been only half so fatal if they had not dropped more than 5,000 feet?

School board cheerfully adds $50,000 to the city estimates—and the city commissioners are scolded because the assessment may be as big as last year's!

Recommendations of counsel for provincial government in the Valley Railway inquiry seems to furnish a conclusive answer to that popular question: "What's the use?"

Looks as if the political buzz-saw isn't going to be any safer to monkey with than the other.

Counsel refers to a "Master Mind" directing the Valley Railway graft. Who on earth could he mean?

Of course the fact that certain transactions took place in a certain office in Princess street could not be regarded as a clue to the mystery.

When the government goes after that $100,000, which Hon. Mr. Fleming received, they should not overlook the interest. Quite a tidy sum in itself.

last evening. After the drive supper was served in the church vestry.

MRS. ANN KERRIGAN

Many will learn with regret of the death of Mrs. Ann Kerrigan of Musquash, which occurred on Jan. 29. She was seventy-four years of age and is survived by three sons, John of New York, Thomas of Fairville, and James of Musquash; three daughters, Mrs. Daniel Toban, Mrs. Joseph Shannon of St. John, and Mrs. Daniel Murray of Dipper Harbor. The funeral will take place on Thursday morning from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Daniel Toban, 108 Lancaster street, West St. John.

SAYS PRICES WILL NOT GET BACK TO A PRE-WAR BASIS

Montreal, Jan. 30.—Zephirin Hebert, retiring president of the Montreal board of trade, in addressing the board yesterday, uttered a warning that Canada's present prosperity was the result of war orders and was transitory and that unless thrift was practiced dire results would follow. He said prices were not likely to resume the pre-war basis, because the cost of labor would not recede.
He urged three things to be looked to as remedies for the high cost of living—increased production, limitation of consumption and elimination of waste.

CHARGED WITH KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE

In the police court this morning hearing was given on a charge of keeping a disorderly house against Ethel McDonald, a soldier's wife, and Private Egan of the 62nd O. S. draft, charged with being an inmate. Detectives Biddlecombe and Briggs testified as to entering the house after receiving complaints.
The prisoners were remanded. Three small children of Mrs. McDonald will be looked after by the Children's Aid Society.

MORE GERMAN ARROGANCE

Amsterdam, Jan. 30.—Belgian deputies now residing in Holland have adopted a resolution for the information of the world in which they declare that the German authorities acting against the unity of Belgium, have through a few persons representing no one except themselves, proclaimed the autonomy of Flanders.

The resolution says: "The eloquent and proud protests made by the recognized authorities in occupied territory abundantly prove that these German proclamations do not find the slightest echo among our countrymen.
The Belgian deputies wish to notify the world that these persons represent only a few traitors in the enemy's service."

LIQUOR CASES ARISE FROM AN ASSAULT CHARGE

Trouble in Marsh Road Section on Saturday—Three Dollars for a Bottle of Whiskey is Evidence Then Arrest

In the police court this morning Jas.
Verner was charged with assault and battery by Frank Coleman. The alleged assault is said to have taken place on Sunday, according to Coleman's testimony, in an alley off Frederick street.
"I was pretty drunk," was the frank admission of the complainant, "and don't remember the exact hour. I gave Ver-ner a drink and Tom Pye as well. Tom was along with us. I had a bottle in my pocket. Tom held a hat up and we were trying to see how high we could kick. I slipped on the ice and made a grab at Verner to save myself. We both fell to the ground. Verner then jumped up and kicked me in the face. A man was there later and he drove me home.
The doctor said that it will be a week or more before he can tell the extent of the injury."

The prisoner then asked some interesting questions.

Q.—"Didn't we get talking about fighting?"

A.—"No."

Q.—"And didn't you say that they called you the white hope?"

A.—"No."

Q.—"And then I said you might be but—"

A.—"I don't remember anything at all about that part of it."

Q.—"What time was it when all this took place?"

A.—"You were soberer than me and you ought to be able to tell yourself."

Q.—"If I kicked you as you claim wouldn't your face be cut?"

A.—"You couldn't do that (showing bruise) with your hand, could you?"

There was some discussion here as to whether the bruise had been done by Verner's feet or his hands.

The magistrate then asked a few questions and succeeded in eliciting the information that the complainant had paid Tom Pye $5 for a bottle of Scotch whiskey which he went and purchased. It was on his return that they went into the alley to take a drink.

The case was here postponed and immediately Inspector Crawford placed Coleman under arrest in view of what had come out in evidence, for having liquor in his possession and drinking in public. The prisoner was held until an attempt could be made to arrest Pye.
This was accomplished very soon afterwards.

LABOR COMING INTO ITS OWN

To Have "A Place in the Sun"— An Important Move in United States

Montreal, Jan. 29.—Sidney Hillman, New York, general president of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, addressed a gathering of workmen here tonight, and said the workmen were not satisfied with the big pay they were receiving, but wanted a say in the country's affairs. He said one result of the war would be that labor would have "a place in the sun." All over the world labor is coming into its own, he said. He added that the Rusian revolution would affect Germany.
He advised every workman to put his energy and brains into the work of reorganizing the world.

Washington, Jan. 29.—Virtual re-organization of the department of labor has been decided on by Secretary Wilson as the first move in a plan to establish a war labor administration which will formulate a broad national labor policy for the duration of the war.

Secretary Wilson will be supreme labor administrator and industrial service sections of other departments, although they will continue their activities as at present, will be centralized under his control.

Seven new labor department services, or bureaus, will be created to deal with all phases of the labor problem.

Officials who have studied the war labor situation expressed the opinion tonight that the labor problem at last is in a fair way of solution.

AMERICANS KILLED BY MURDEROUS HUNS IN A RAID ON HOSPITAL

Italian Army Headquarters in Northern Italy, Jan. 28.—(By the Associated Press).—Two Americans named William Platt and Richard Fairfield, attached to the Red Cross were killed at Mestre on Sunday night by bombs dropped by German raiders. Five bombs fell in the courtyard of the hospital, killing four persons and wounding several patients.

THE QUEENSLAND FLOOD

Sydney, N. S. W., Jan. 29.—Although the property damage caused by a cyclone and tidal wave at Mackay, Queensland, was very heavy, latest reports from the town show that the loss of life was small, probably not aggregating more than a score of persons. Most of the damage was done to sugar in storage, the loss on sugar alone being estimated at $8,500,000.
The town is still largely under water, and the streets are filled with wreckage, while the region roundabout is flooded. The federal and state governments are extending relief to the stricken district.

NOT A REAL TITIAN

Rome, Jan. 29.—Germany claims to have found in the Italian occupied province the original Titian painting "Venus and The Organ Player" which, it is asserted, was transported to Berlin.
Italian art experts are much amused over this report, as the original picture has been in Madrid for a hundred years, having been bought at a sale of pictures of Charles First of England. It is a well known fact that several copies of the painting are in the Venetian provinces and in England.
