5 Per Cent BONDS Due 1932

OF THE

Dominion Power & Transmission Co.

$1,000 each, interest half yearly.

It controls the entire light, power, street and interurban railway business in the City of Hamilton and vicinity, serving a growing population of 140,000.

Its double track railway system consists of 22 miles in Hamilton and 83 miles of interurban lines, including an extension to BRANTFORD OVER PRIVATE RIGHT-OF-WAY.

It operates the entire system by electricity, developed by its own WATER POWER, which is the most economical one to operate, having a present capacity of 42,000 h. p. and capable of much larger development at small additional cost.

Its earnings for the last six years show a substantial increase, viz:

1904	761,170
1905	879,332
1906	1,039,341
1907	1,455,643
1908	1,572,272
1909	1,691,996

There is a large CASH EQUITY IN THE PROPERTY BEHIND THE BONDS represented by the outstanding stocks having a par value of $1,381,100.

We are selling these bonds to yield about

5.40 Per Cent

R. L. BORDEN CONGRATULATES BOURASSA'S MAN BLONDIN

Ottawa, Nov. 18.—(Special)—An indication of the attitude of the opposition toward the Quebec Nationalist movement was given this morning when the opposition leader, R. L. Borden, heartily congratulated Mr. Blondin, M. P. for Champlain on the victory he had achieved in Drummond-Arthabaska.

Mr. Blondin made a name for himself in the campaign because of the extremes to which he went in denouncing the English and everything British in Canada and out. He was against any sort of navy or naval contribution from Canada.

Around the lobbies of parliament the incident is regarded as significant.

LIVE NEWS OF TODAY IN ST. JOHN

A good winter overcoat for little money at Turner's, 440 Main street.

The Caledon Cornet Band will open their annual fair on Monday, November 22nd, in City Hall, west end.

NO SIGN YET
Search is being continued for the body of Robert Burns late caretaker of the suspension bridge.

Ladies' and children's hats at very low prices for Friday and Saturday at 59 Garden street.

Man to call in stores, offices, etc., to sell suit lengths, and overcoat lengths in March. J. J. Madigan, 210 St. Paul.

WATER MAIN BREAK
Men were still engaged today in repairing the break in their water main in Chapel street. It is expected that repairs will be completed this afternoon.

STILL MISSING
No word has yet been received of Charles Murphy, the young man who has been missing since Sunday night last. It is feared that he has lost his life by falling from a wharf.

PHOTOS FOR THE HOLIDAYS
We would be pleased to have you call and see the latest styles in the large and complete stock of our extra fine Kodak cameras. Conlon's Photo Studio, 101 King street.

WINTER PORT OFFICIALS
Another contingent of winter port men arrived in the city on Montreal train today. Among the number are W. J. McGiffen, B. Tenkle, J. Hassy, B. Bloomfield, H. Henby, A. C. Lawson and J. E. Wallace.

LATE POLICE COURT
In the police court this afternoon F. E. Williams and Court Bros. were fined $10 each for violation of the game laws by leaving partridge for sale without a license. Victor Cobham was further remanded to jail. The case against William J. White, charged with stealing a horse and carriage, is being heard this afternoon.

TAKE NOTICE
That J. Marcus, the only claimant, at 30 Dock street, has no objection to what with any other claimant's name, J. Marcus has only one claim at 30 Dock street, and all accounts against, or payable to, him, should be sent or taken to 30 Dock street, and to—

NORTH SHORE FINANCE

The Miramichi Ship & Paper Company, paid on Saturday. The time covered was from 1909 to 1910. The total amount was $18,000. Several local speculators made a considerable sum, having previously bought up the company's pay checks at 20 per cent discount and receiving full value for them on Saturday. (Chatham Commercial)

AN OUTSIDE VIEW
St. John having partially recovered from its pavement "spasm" is now undergoing what might be termed a "pavement cure." The investigation of market conditions shows some queer practices, but that is about all that will come of it. (St. Andrew's Beacon)

FURS STOLEN
In addition to attending the high tea in St. John's (Stone) church last evening, some person took possession of a valuable set of furs, the property of a city woman. The owner of the furs had set them down, and left them out of her sight for a while. On returning to where she had left them a short time later, she was surprised to learn that some one had made off with them.

THE FIRE SALE
The fire sale at Alexander Bros' Ltd, Waterloo street, is attracting a great deal of attention and during the last two days there have been a large number of purchases taking advantage of the cut prices on all their stock of carpets, carpet squares and furniture. This stock was got to be sold at once, and those who wish to secure bargains at this fire sale should call early, while they last. See advt.

SCARLET CHAPTER
The St. John Company Scarlet Chapter will meet in the Orange Hall, Germain street, tonight. A lot of additional paraphernalia has been ordered from Toronto and it is expected will be available for use in the exaltation of a number of candidates who are to be advanced on this occasion.

PERSONALS

Dr. Jacoby continued his monthly talks in the Unique Theatre today. In the Queen's Rink tonight Mr. McEwan will sing Stanley's famous song "The Mincey Nise." The accompaniments will be played by Miss Mary Anderson of New York.

THE MARKET
The investigation into the affairs in the country market will be resumed in the committee room at City Hall this evening. It is probable that there will be only one or two more witnesses, as the committee has had the enough evidence on which to base a report.

VISITING RAILWAY MAN

Charles E. Mellen, president of the New York, New Haven & Hartford; Boston & Maine; Maine Central and Washington county railway, is making an inspection trip over the roads and will reach St. Stephen tomorrow. He will return to Boston, via the C. P. R. to Vancouver, arriving himself of the shorter road.

EASY PAYSMENTS

At the Parian Store, 47 Brussels street. The easy way; easy to buy—easy to pay. No one is so fixed financially that they can afford to pay a good thing such as our great free to all offer, to dress up in the best clothes and let you pay for them at your own convenience, in ladies' gents', children's clothing, furs and blankets.

GOING OUT OF BUSINESS SALE

We will sell at greatly reduced prices until all the following stock is sold, viz: print cottons, gingham, flannels, flannellets, cloths, cottonades, velvets, ribbons, laces, corsets, gloves, mitts, socks, stockingette, stockings, hats and caps, boots and shoes, sweaters, ready-made clothing in overcoats, reducers, pants, vests, suits, linen's coats, overalls, jumpers, rubbers, undermen's coats, women's and children's; also, hardware, harness, mountings, granite iron enamelled ware, dishes, patent medicines. We also have at low prices a good stock of general groceries and school supplies. Come early, when you will have a better choice.

IN MEMORIAM

MASON—In loving memory of Albert Edward Mason, who died on Nov. 18, 1906. Four years have gone, but still I miss him; never shall his memory fade. Loving thoughts shall always linger around the spot where he is laid. "Mother."

WANT STATION MASTER

Fredericton, N. B., Nov. 18.—(Special)—A delegation from Harvey waited upon the transportation committee of the board of trade today and asked for support in securing a station master for Harvey. They said that they would be given a station agent just as soon as the business warranted it. They claim that the time has arrived.

The river here is entirely free from ice. The supreme court today delivered judgment as follows:

Kings vs. Clarkson ex parte Hazen, order nisi discharged; costs reduced by St. Kennedy vs. Gorman—new trial ordered; Landry and Barry, no part. The parties to the suit reside in Cork.

Cyr vs. Desrosier—appeal dismissed with costs.

Trustees of Bright school district, applicant; York county and Yerga, respondent; appeal allowed and judgment entered for defendant, without costs of appeal.
