NEGOTIATING WITH WHALING COMPANY

Representatives of a Second Japanese Firm Endeavoring to Secure Whale Meat for Export.

whalers in the employ of the firm of S. Hara of Nagasaki, are in the city endeavoring to enter into arrangements with the Pacific Whaling Company for the whales are shipped to Japan after being salted and barrelled.

to Japan. There is eager competition amongst the whaling firms of Japan for the position of middlemen and the present delegation is the second in the last few months to approach the local company. It is doubtful if a satisfactory arrangement can be entered upon for some time for the meat would have to be cut in a special way which would entail extra labor and the installment of additional machinery which it is a of a clash between the United States and Japan over the recent trouble in the position of a clash between the United States and Japan over the recent trouble in the position of a clash between the United States and Japan over the recent trouble in the position of a clash between the United States and Japan over the recent trouble in the position of middlemen and the present delegation is the second in the last few months to approach the local company. It is doubtful if a satisfactory arrangement can be entered upon for some time for the meat would have to be cut in a special way which would entail extra labor and the present delegation is the second in the last few months to approach the local company. It is doubtful if a satisfactory arrangement can be entered upon for some time for the meat would have to be cut in a special way which would entail extra labor and the present delegation is the second in the last few months to approach the local company. It is doubtful if a satisfactory arrangement can be entered upon for some time for the meat would have to be cut in a special way which would entail extra labor and the installment of additional machinery which it is a statisfactory and the present delegation in the last few months to approach the local company. It is doubtful if a satisfactory arrangement can be entered upon for some time for the meat would have to be cut in a special way which would entail extra labor and the present delegation in the last few months to approach the local company. The present delegation is the second in the last few months to approach the local company and the present

Times that the use of whale meat for food is growing in popularity throughout Japan until now the Japanese whalers are unable to cope with the demand. The product has been used as food for a number of years in the southern portion of the empire and is growing in popularity. The Hara company to the stories of Victoria, who amongst the Japanese of Victoria, who amongst the Japanese of Victoria, who amongst the Japanese of Victoria, who the industry on this side of the Pacific much of the whale meat now used as alarmist reports circulated by Ameri-

the floor, in a direct line with the stairs, but three or four feet there-from. Here a piece of the floor showing sills supporting the frame of the house (ex. 8). He finally submitted a plan drawn in Victoria from his dictation, showing the plan of the house—both ground floor and upper room. This concluded the case for the crown, and the prisoner was committed.

WILL APPEAL CASE.

Full Court Will Be Applied to in Action

Concerning Damage to Scow.

court against the decision of Judge Lampman in the action brought against the city and the contractor for the Rock Bay bridge by the owners of a scow which was damaged by settling CADET SCORES.

at the Drill Hall.

PRELIMINARY TRIAL IN SALT SPRING CASE

COMMITTED ON

Story of the Arrest Told By the Special Constable Sworn in By Coroner.

George Williams, charged with killing Alfred Douglas, of Salt Spring city, and the contractor, Rockett. The appeal will be taken against this find-Island, was committed Friday in the ing.

magistrate's court, for trial for mur
This morning in County court chambers the formal arrangements for an an-

Following the evidence of the morn- peal were entered into, the counsel ing session, in the afternoon the first representing the three parties being present, J. P. Mann for the city, R. T. witness called was David Maxwell. He had endeavored to notify the constable of the tragedy, but could not locate scow. him. He then sent word to the cor-oner. After returning home he found Williams lying on a lounge in his

As they came in, he shook hands with Maxwell saying, "that was a bad acci-cail it an accident or not," Maxwell replied.

Mr. Maxwell asked Williams to accompany him to the bunk house about 100 yards distant.

On the way down he warned the accused that any statements made to him were the same as if made to Constable Lumley. He had been sworn in as special constable, and Williams as special constable, and Williams must consider himself under arrest.

Willmams replied: "I know I did it, I think I shall have to get a new book, I know I am guilty, I am satisfied, I sir; there are no clean leaves left to turn," said a defendant who was advised was just before they arrived at the bunk house. During the night the new leaf for the new year. prisoner complained several times of feeling sore and bruised, and said he feeling sore and bruised, and said he must have been stabbed. The most frequent complaint was of a bruise

In the morning prisoner showed witness where he had been stabbed. He had no recollection of how or when was done, but thought Alf.—the dead Regimental Orders Issued By Lt-Col. man-must have done it. During the afternoon they took a walk up by the little orchard. Old memories were singing through the prisoner's brain. his probable fate. Several times he spoke of the affair of the day before, and said, "this is probably the last time you and I will walk up this road

Continuing, prisoner remarked: "Now I know Alf. didn't mean to do me any harm." He had shot him, he said, with the big rifle. The rifle was that pro-

D. Ehama and J. Yamawaki, expert | question if the increase in the selling a supply of their whale meat for export to Japan.

Mr. Ehama in the event of a satisfactory agreement being entered upon Mr. Ehama stated Friday to the will instruct the local whalers in the Times that the use or whale meat for methods used by the Japanese in cutpany has three steam whalers operating from stations in Japan and Korea.

It is thought that with the growth of famous slege.

THREE TRAINS ARE

fertilizer could be salted and shipped can papers with regard to the danger to Japan. There is eager competition of a clash between the United States cact'cally isolated to-day from every androint. Three trains which arrived at Laggan the bullet hole (ex. 7) was produced Following the direction of this he had found a mutilated bullet in one of the n Thursday morning will not reach ancouver until Monday. Mr. Maroole's private car is attached to one of Large slides came down during the night on account of the thaw. Some of the slides are a mile in length. There have been no casualties. The Great Northern between here and Seattle is blocked by two slides

Great Northern Line to Seattle Also

Crippled--Vancouver Practically

Isolated.

Vancouver. Feb. 8.-Vancouver is

REALIZED GOOD SUM

roceeds of Vaudeville Concert in Aid

The sum of $436.30 has been handed

by Mrs. R. H. Pooley to Mrs. Albert

Griffith (treasurer) on behalf of the maternity ward at the Royal Jubilee hospital. This sum represents the net proceeds of the amateur vaudeville performance, recently given for this ob-van and Considine, who gave the entir theatre, etc., free of all charge; to Mr. Jamieson, Mr. Gibbon, Mr. Jones, for photographs, and to the Times and Colonist for most freely and generously advertising the event.

SNOW SLIDES

of New Maternity Ward at Hospital.

transfer around the slides. ORDER FOR ENVELOPES.

Purchasing Agent of Railway Commission Before Public Accounts Committee.

Ottawa, Feb. 8 .- At the public acounts committee to-day A. L. Ogilvie, purchasing agent of the National Transcontinental Railway commission was examined concerning an order for 125,000 envelopes given to John O'Gor pany. The order was given at $391. Mr O'Gorman asked to transfer the order to Barber & Ellis, Toronto. This was done. Barber & Ellis upon receiving a cheque for $391, sent back to the transcontinental commission a cheque for $87, which they said was overpaid. Mr. Ogilvie asked them to send envelopes instead. This was done. Mr. Ogilvie said that Barber & Ellis sup-This Morning's Record of Shooting plied the envelopes at a loss. The price Maxwell saying, "that was a bad accident."

"It was a sad affair, whether you call it an accident or not," Maxwell scores made by Victoria College cadets repulsed.

"The following are a few of the best scores made by Victoria College cadets at the Drill Hall.

The following are a few of the best scores made by Victoria College cadets at a loss. The price which he gave Mr. O'Gorman was obtained from the Rolland Paper Co.. Quebec. Witness did not know who was to pay the commission on the order to confined to departmental work there. O'Gorman as in the London case.

COW TESTING.

Scheme Under Which Associations Are Formed Aiming at Improving Herds.

Reference was made a few days ago ern Fuel Company, has just been elected vice-president of the Bellingham & to the fact that J. M. Logan, while in the B. C. railroad, and in connection with East, had an interview with J. A. Audthis another step has been taken to-Commanding ---Various New Enlistments.

The following regimental orders have been issued by Lieut.-Col. J. A. Hall, commanding the Fifth Regiment:

The following regimental orders have been issued by Lieut.-Col. J. A. Hall, commanding the Fifth Regiment:

The annual meeting shall be held at the dick, Dominion Dairy Commissioner, with the object in view of introducing the system of cow testing associations into British Columbia. The object aimed at is the improvement of the dairy herds by demonstrating the milk capacity of each cow with the object in view of discarding the cows whose record is unsatisfactory. The rues covering the formation of a cow testing association are as follows:

The officers shall be appointed to act along with the officers as a committee of management.

The officers shall be elected to hold of fice for one year or until their successors are elected.

The annual meeting shall be held at the dick, Dominion Dairy Commissioner, with the wider of servations into works that will now it is certain, be erected on that railway, says the Nanaimo Herald. About $2,000,000 will be invested in the extensive works plannam Herald. About $2,000,000 will be invested in the extensive works plannam Herald. About $2,000,000 will be invested in the extensive works that will now it is certain, be erected on that railway, says the Nanaimo Herald. About $2,000,000 will be invested in the extensive works plannam Herald. About $2,000,000 will be invested in the extensive works plannam Herald. About $2,000,000 will be invested in the extensive works that will now it is certain, be erected on that railway, says the Nanaimo Herald. About $2,000,000 will be invested in the extensive works that will now it is certain, be erected on that railway, says the Nanaimo Herald. About $2,000,000 will be invested in the extensive works that will now it is certain, be erected on that railway, says the Nanaimo Herald. About $2,000,000 will be invested in the extensive works that will now it is certain, be erected on that railway, commanding the Fifth Regiment:

Regimental Headquarters,
Victoria. B. C., Feb. 6th, 1907.
The following men having been duly attested are taken on the strength of the regiment and will assume the numbers opposite their names: No. 9. Gr. Morton are elected.

The annual meeting shall be held at the supply daily is not yet known, but it will be considerable, and the demand will grow with the growth of the plant.
Of course the duty now on coal will regiment and will assume the numbers opposite their names: No. 9. Gr. Morton

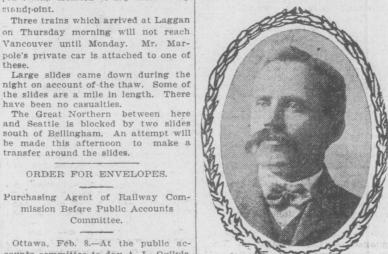

Any neveron who will agree to keep the supply daily is not yet known, but it will be considerable, and the demand will grow with the growth of the plant.
Of course the duty now on coal will handleap somewhat its exportation, still it will be the cheapest and best

Queen Victoria memorial fund for a FOR THE DOMINION

ject at the Grand theatre. Mrs. Griffith, on behalf of the committee desires to thank most heartily Mrs. Pooley and Selection of Federal Government all friends whose interest and active assistance so amply insured the suc-Regarded as a Wise One--Long cess of the undertaking, and would a Resident Here. ention especially Messrs. Sulli> the department of labor at Ottawa. It same time educational. is expected that Mr. McNiven will assume office at Ottawa about March 1st.

>
> The appointment of Mr. McNiven is regarded as a very wise one. He succeeds in office D. J. O'Donoghue, whose death occurred a few weeks ago. Mr. McNiven has been prominently identifled with the trades' union movement ever since he entered upon his trade, and is regarded as a true friend of labor. He has resided in Victoria for about 14 years, and during the whole of about 14 years, and during the whole of that time has been prominent in labor circles. He took part in the organiza-tion of the Trades and Labor Council in this city and has from time to time assisted in various other ways in advancing the interests of organized la-

Mr. McNiven, moreover, recognizes the rights of other classes as well as the labor inferests, and is opposed to the taking of drastic measures on either side without exhausting all the means for amicable settlement of disputes He is, therefore, well qualified to fill the office which he is now called to.

Appointed Dominion Fair Wage Officer

Mr. McNiven represented Victoria in the West. After serving his apprenticeship in the printing trade, he cam

President of Bellingham & B.

C. Railway.

gaged in packing coal and wood from the street where it had been donesited, up a stairway, under the superintendence of a little samen, who was evidently enjoying his task greatly.

The Hidoos, who have been living in a stable at the back of the city marks rock, facing the upper harbor.

the last legislature. He is a native of Ontario, but has lived the greater part of his life, since reaching manhood, in to Winnipeg in 1882, and after follow-ing his trade in Winnipeg and other prairie centres he came to the coast

For many years he has been foreman of the Times composing room.

In accepting the position of fair wage

There is now in confined to departmental work there, by the dredge Mudlark from the inner often are lengthened out into two Bay until it is accomplished. John Howard, president of the West-

> When the Bank of England was created in 1694 the staff was only 54 strong. There are now employed over 900.

Dollars for Assistance Recently Rendered By Orion.

last Wednesday morning, the steam permit has been granted for ten days. Whaler Orion has received $1,500. This

Members of Natural Will Take Steps

The Natural History anifesting interest which it made some t. tify the north end of L The society in fact will make a st on the work as soon as the weathe suitable, and members of the organ tion will proceed to the locality the selves and put in some labor in pla ing. Shrubs have been secured will be placed in position. Later or society will take steps to carry out original scheme of rendering that of the park suitable for ever of native plant and shrub. 'an artificial lake will be re aquatics and caves, etc., for ceties of plants. The scheme was outlined at length two years ago when the proposal was first made to the city council. The ob-J. D. McNiven, of this city, is to succeed to the office of fair wage officer in which would be beautiful and at the

Expects to Be Able to Return to His Duties In a Few Weeks.

Ottawa, Feb. 9.-The Speaker anounced when the House met yesterday that the resignation of Hon. C. Hyman had now been received in proper form. It was dated November 20th. The original resignation had been duly attested House that he had received a telegram from Mr. Hyman, who is now in Cali-fornia, dated February 2nd, stating that he was withdrawing his resigna-tion as minister of public works and in a few weeks would be able to be at ork in his department.

NEW FIELD FOR HINDOOS.

The Hindoos have found a new field of activity. A large number of them are employed by the Chinese at variour work in Chinatown. Friday the strange sight could be seen of four Hindoos, all tall stalwart men, en-

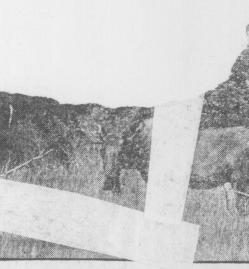

KING EDWARD ARRIVES.

Suction Dredge Will Commence the Work of Filling in James Bay Flats.

BARQUE WAS TOWED TO VICTORIA HARBOR

Cost the St. James. Fifteen Hundred

The following men having been duty at the held at the call of the section of the collection of the col

VICTORIA'S PET MOOSE

was one day swimming across the bear of the would for an hour or two and then "Tim" would lie down until quite reached mid stream when Charles Cullin's freight barge rounded the point about two or three hundred yards distant. The cow moose was driven to the shore and "Tim" being left to shift for himself was captured. He was at first an unwilling passenger, but was soon taught to lie down him the person that time he has lived in the deer park at Beacon Hill, where for more than furs, and the return journey commenced. All went well as the berge was poled up the river and rowed across the lake but when the one of when he will realize his power and assert it to the dismay of his little oppressors.

Considering the great expense and across the lake, but when the 73 miles labor of oringing Tim to civilization, portage to the Stikine river was commenced, then commenced the rouble. grudge a few dollars spent in caring "Tim" refused to be led, and would for him, especially as he must, if he to and was now regular.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier stated in the that when he felt in the

MONDAY ...

ing Specified Hours Granted By Chief of Police.

(From Saturday's Daily.) At midnight Monday the Chinese carrying the overseas ma The dredge King Edward arrived in Chinatown emulating the millions of January, reached Yokohama on the he harbor at midday, coming from Celestials across the Pacific celebrate 6th inst. She was thus eleven days in the harbor at midday, coming from New Westminster. She is anchored in James Bay, and to-morrow will commence filling in the flats adjoining the new Empress hotel.

Celestials across the Pacific celebrate that event in joy, gladness and the burning of gunpowder. Every Chinaman from the richest merchant to the man from the richest merchant to the overseas mail train. There is now in James Bay large poorest household servant look eagerwill be quantities of mud which was brought ly forward to the three days, which offined to departmental work there, and he will, in addition, be called upon to visit various parts of the country the had to do with it. He could not say that Mr. O'Gorman was the same of 'Gorman was the same of 'Gorman as in the London case.

O'Gorman as in the London case. NEW COAL MARKET.

NEW COAL MARKET.

John Howard Has Been Elected Vice
To shorten her voyage, the Empress the one holiday in the entire round when merriment is given free reign.

And Chinatown is now husy now busy new husy new to Hougking by a common to Hougking by a that the work of filling in the flats will And Chinatown is now busy preparfrom Yokohoma to Hongkong by only occupy about a month, and the king Edward will remain in James meats and Chinese delicacies of all terminus to-morrow to keep within the kinds are being laid in, everything is being scoured and the gateways and outsides of the doorways leading off from the dim little alleys that honeycomb that portion of the city are receiving fresh scrolls of new red paper, on which are inscribed appropriate. on which are inscribed appropriate haracters in the oldest living written anguage of the world. anguage of the world. A supply of irecrackers that would make the Can-oriental ports. She is bound, however, adian boy on the 24th of May or the Yankee youngster on the Fourth, pale with envy, has been laid in. The firing commences Monday at midnight, and will continue during specified hours until the celebration is over.

sacrifice to Heaven and earth, called "presenting rice on New Year's Day," dia is made. Then they await the coming four of a busy day.

A committee of Chinese recently

For services rendered in towing the American barque St. James, when that vessel was drifting on to Danger rock lest Walnesday on to Danger rock lest Walnesday and object to the committee of Chinese recently yesterday, a guest of Senator Macdo. He has been in Seattle some weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Crawford left fire crackers during the celebration. A Vancouver last pight. The Misses Fin

Tim, Victoria's pet moose, was born travelling. Every morning Charlie in the spring of the year 1904 in the started two hours ahead of the pack country between Dease Lake and the train with a halter rope long enough Liard River, in northern British Columbia. When about a month old he they would trot for an hour or two and was one day symming agrees the then "Tim" would lie down until outer.

the bottom of the barge, three stops at Beacon Hill, where for more than two years he has been fed and petted the fellow to get a bellyful of the succulent herbage growing by the waterside. By the time the barge reached the Liard trading post "Tim" had adapted himself to his new mode of life and his mother was forgotten. The load of provisions was exchanged for one of turs, and the return journey company to the list of the dismay of his little content.

the citizens of Victoria should not be-

AND CONTRACT

EMPRESS WILL BE LATE IN ARRIVING

Permits to Set Off Firecrackers Dur- C. P. R. V. Mariave to Pay Fine to Government --- Cannot Reach Hongkong in Time.

> (From Saturday's Daily.) The steamer Empress of Japan,

To shorten her voyage, the Empress to be fully one day late in rea-Hongkong, and this will cost the C. P.

Rev. Wm. Duncan, whose name is so prominently identified with Northern Indian missions, and particularly with the foundations of the two model Indian village. lages of Metlahkatla, was in the city

Vancouver last night. The Misses Finlay-son have rented their residence on Bay street for a few months. Mrs. Crawford, sr., has moved to Cherry Bank for the remainder of the winter.

CANADIAN CL NOW OR

ADOPT CONSTITUTIO AT ANNUA

Officers Elected and th the Provisional Execu number present and played it augured we of the club. While

Officers were elected as: orary president, Lieut.-Go muir; president. A. W. vice-president, Judge L ond vice-president. F. N secretary, F. I. Clarke; Gibb; literary correspon Gregor.

The executive com
Barton, W. J. Dowler Christopher Spencer, J. Brace, and C. H. A formal constitue following clauses: The club shall be called Club of Victoria.

It is the purpose of the patriotism by encouraging institutions, his

and resources of Can age, who is a British a naturalization, and wi with the objects of eligible for membership Application for me made through two me in good standing, and may be taken at the requ ber, and one black ball The officers shall be mual meeting of the chekd on the 1st Wedn at 8 p. m., and shall next annual meeting. cessors are elected.

Nomination shall be ating committee, copast presidents, and ion and ba

Upon his accepting e Curdy commented upo such a representative Victoria, the last out upon the western coas ion, formed the last of clubs which exter tic to the Pacific. in the hundreds flocking to our sho national spirit in be recognized by all tions as these should play in this country. meeting, the report of officials of the body wa as follows: To the Members of the Can

Gentlemen:-Your proviave the honor to submit lines and with similar adan clubs of Vanco ronto, Ottawa and ot lowing were present: was framed and ad constitution hands) was adopt ing and finance w We beg further to r its first year with a cash in treasury, $170. ARTHUR W. M

FRANK I. CLA The meeting then adj to permit those present concert at the Victori of the Tourist Asso from the secretary of first been read thank ressed determina