VICTORIA TIMES. FRIDAY, MAY 18, 1900.

WEEKLY WEATHER REPORT. Meteorological Office, Victoria,

9th to 16th May, 1900.

During this week the weather throughout the western portion of the province and in Cariboo was exceptionally cloudy and showery. This was due to the passage of several low barometer areas across British Columbia to the Canadian Territhe belt of high barometric pressure and occurred about Kamloops. In the Territories and Manitoba during this period the barometer was abnormally low and the temperature high, often ranging between ure of success might attend him in us 80 and 90 degrees. -News comes from Bennett of the death on May 7th of Miss Celia Francis. She died from the effects of burns received May 4th in an accident resulting from the use of kerosene in attempting to kindle a fire. The flames caught her clothing, frightfully burning her hands, face and body. The body of Miss Francis has been shipped from Skagway on one of the Seattle steamers. Miss Francis was 22 years of age. She was born in Victoria, but had long made Seattle her home, residing with her stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Roberts. For some time prior to her taurant business at Bennett.

Spring salmon is not running very well, although Wallace Brothers, the new owners of the Claxton cannery, are making extensive preparations for a big season's work. This enterprising firm shipped 25 tons of pickled spring salmon by the Tees for the English market. They are pickling, freezing and canning the fish and so profitable is the trade and so extensive the market that they are able to pay the best prices. They have ordered machinery by which they will be enabled to freeze ten tons a day, which they will ship in cold storage to the Old Country. The proprietors say that they have a market for six million pounds of fish at the present time. The Tees had but six passengers from Naas and way ports.

Because of a confusion in the names of the long since lost Dominion and the old bark Dominion, now on a voyage from Tacoma to Sydney, reinsurance vesterday jumped up on that vessel to 50 per cent. It is not because she is overdue that reinsurance has been quoted so high on her, but owing to the fact of the finding of a name board which some believed to be hers, off the West Coast of Vancouver Island, together Meata-Wrangel Narrows by the fishing steamer Edith.
