HARVEST SERVICES Were Conducted in the Various Churches

in Saanich. Beautiful weather and large congregations greeted Rev. Dr. Campbell at the "Harvest Home" services at Strawberry Vale, South and North Saanich on Sunday, Sept. 18th. All the churches appropriately set forth the lessons that could be taught from the produce of the soil, being artistically decorated with fruits, flowers and vegetables. During the week there was a continuation of the services. On Monday evening at Strawberry Vale Methodist church the Rev. Mr. Adams, of the Metropolitan church, gave one of his characteristic addresses or "Ideal Manhood," which was a treat to all

He said that true manhood should possess three important traits: (a) Courage; (b) Determination: and (c) Righteousness. Local talent contributed very largely to the evening's enjoyment, refreshments being served by the ladies.
In the North Saanich church on Tuesday evening Rev. Mr. Adams gave a popular lecture entitled, "Grip and Get." Many lecture. A cordial vote of thanks, moved by Alex. McDonald, seconded by W. A. Armstrong, was enthusiastically carried. Mrs. J. Newall Copeland rendered a choice Scottish musical selection. After refreshments were served, the happy gathering was dismissed by the National Anthem. Yesterday evening being the celebration of the "Harvest Home" in the South Saanich Methodist church, an interesting programme was rendered, consisting of: Choruses by the choir; recitation, Janet McEwan; hymn by the Sunday school; duet, Mrs. McEwan and Miss Lizzie Clark; reading, Mr. Crandell. Rev. G. W. Dean, of Victoria, held the audience spell-bound by his address on "Look Out for No. 1." His dramatic presentation of scenes taken from railroad life were followed with intense interest. Complimentary remarks were made by H. Tanner, M. P. P. An ample supply of refreshments were in evidence and all enjoyed a delightful evening. The pastor of the church, Rev. T. H. Wright, congratulated the members of congregation for their zeal in making the Harvest Home services a success.
