REV. DR. RAINSFORD, NEW YORK. Some say the sufferings of the Cubans have othing to do with us. I say to them, turn the Master and see what He has to say bout it. Here we have a people at our very door, our neighbors, in a pitiable plight, leading pathetically for our assistance What are our obligations? The life of this nation depends upon the fulfilment of these obligations. Has the religion of Jesus Christ become so emasculated that we can shut our eyes to these great obligations? We cannot escape these obligations and duties. *
