ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., SEPT. 18, 1901.

THE STRIKE SETTLED.

Last night's dispatches indicated that the steel strike is now really settled, and that most of the mills are again in active operation. The majority of the strikers have this week returned to work. President Shaffer, who represented the strikers, says there will be no public statement of the terms of settlement until all the lodges have been notified by circular. It is evident that the men have not carried their point, for a number of the mills are still non-union. It will probably be found that the relations of the employers and the workmen will not have been materially changed, but the strikers have in the meantime lost over a million dollars in wages, and there has been a general disturbance of business as a result of their action.

A despatch to Monday's papers said: "Details and terms of the settlement were not publicly announced, but it was learned from an authoritative source that no concessions were made by the United States Steel Corporation to the Amalgamated Association in the settlement of the strike. The companies stood firmly on the proposition previously laid down by President Schwab, of the United States Steel Corporation, that the Amalgamated Association scale would be signed for all the mills that were union plants last year, except those in which the places of the strikers have been filled."

DR. FRECHETTE'S POEM.

Dr. Louis Frechette the French-Canadian poet laureate, has written a graceful poem on the royal visit. It is written in French, and the Montreal Herald, remarking that it is an exquisite production, says of its theme: "Mr. Frechette commences his poem by speaking of the ship which brings the Duke and Duchess to the shores of Canada, accompanied, as it is, by a fleet of war vessels, and then we ask the question: What is the object of this demonstration? Is it a war trip? Does the Ophir come, with such surroundings, as a menace? No. It is a mission of fraternity and good will. Mr. Frechette then goes on to speak of Ancient Quebec—of its early French civilization and of its martial history. The cession of Canada to the English has, he says, been followed by the union of the old foes. They have become friends, and are laboring together to create here the foundation of a great, free and an enlightened people. Crowding all this the prince was now coming to see with his own eyes the result of those labors. And the chief cause, Mr. Frechette concludes, was the constitution granted by the English which had enabled the King's French-speaking subjects to work out their own destiny in their own way."

A NOBLE TRIBUTE.

Rev. Frederick George Scott, well known as a writer of graceful verse as well as an eloquent speaker, and who preached the sermon at Sunday's historic gathering of the Protestant troops on the Plains of Abraham, has paid the following "Tribute of Kindred" to the late President McKinley:

Brother of Kings, and King of brother men,
Hero and martyr, lo! thou dost not sleep,
Thy strenuous soul, beyond our mortal ken,
Pursues life's journey through the eternal deep.

Elsewhere, not here, lives on the lofty throne
The iron purpose of a steadfast life.
The strong, brave heart that forged a deathless name,
The tender love of duty, land and wife.

O mighty sister in our royal line,
America! guard well his sacred dust;
Thy grief is ours, e'en as our blood is thine.

We twain who hold the great world's peace in trust.
Quebec, Sept. 14, 1901.

Says the London Globe:—"Out of 10 presidents since 1861 three have been assassinated. The percentage is appalling, and cannot be paralleled in any civilized state since the days of the Roman Empire. If the presidential chair is not to be regarded as the anteroom of a funeral vault, some very stringent precautions will have to be resorted to. The days of republican simplicity, when a president mingled with his fellow citizens, have passed forever."

William J. Bryan says it is the duty of the American people "to avenge the wrong done to the president, his family and the country, as to make the executive life secure without abridgement of freedom of speech or freedom of the press."

These are the words of a man who is without responsibility. Too great freedom of speech and press has been the chief source of trouble in the past.

President Roosevelt has asked all the members of his cabinet to retain office for the full term, and declared that the speech of the late president the day before he was shot outlines the policies to be followed by the new administration. The incoming of the new president, therefore involves no change of policy or disturbance of business conditions. Roosevelt is winning gold opinions by his acts thus far.

The Montreal reception committee has bought 2,000 flags to distribute among the poorer citizens. Mayor Prefontaine remarks that every one, whether rich or poor, should have an opportunity to join in the welcome to the duke. The St. John committee should arrange early for whatever flags they need. There will be a rush at the last moment.

It is estimated that a hundred thousand and strangers will witness the festivities in connection with the visit of the Royal party to Montreal today and tonight.

EUROPE FEARS ANARCHISTS.

Capt. Travels in an Armored Train, and His Every Move is Guarded.

LONDON, Sept. 15.—The question of how to deal with the anarchists is daily exciting deeper interest. At the present moment Europe is absolutely in a state of panic. The precautions surrounding the czar's visit to France have already been described; but they are being increased almost hourly. At Compiegne, when the imperial and presidential trains arrived at dusk, it was a wonderful scene. The route was lined with huge electric towers and thousands of small lamps among festoons of flags. Crowds shouted, and outwardly it was a scene of brilliant rejoicing, but at least half of the onlookers were there to guard against any possibility of outward hostility, and behind the scenes was presented a grim picture.

An Armored Train.

The czar's train arrived at Compiegne yesterday, and seemed more fitted for the railroads in South Africa than for the pleasure tour of an emperor in the country of his allies. The Russian train hands are all armed and commanded by uniformed officers, while the train itself is armored with walls of iron. In the chateau park detectives and military pickets will be stationed night and day at intervals of 75 yards along the lawns and alleys, and flying patrols of four men each will circulate through the groves. Thousands of troops, mounted on foot, assisted by gas masks, will be stationed to guard the czar daily. He will be followed everywhere by a brigade of armed policemen or bicyclists. Every inch of the ground over which he has to pass will be carefully supervised, yet even these precautions will not be sufficient to guard the czar daily. He will be followed everywhere by a brigade of armed policemen or bicyclists. Every inch of the ground over which he has to pass will be carefully supervised, yet even these precautions will not be sufficient to guard the czar daily.

CZOLGOSZ RE-ARRANGED.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 17.—Leon P. Czolgosz, the assassin of President McKinley, was arraigned before Judge Emery this afternoon. Again he refused to utter a sound, and the Hon. Loran L. Lewis, ex-supreme court justice, entered a plea of not guilty. The court room next morning was crowded to see the prisoner, but the uncertainty surrounding the question as to whether or not counsel could be secured for him saved congestion of the court room and corridors.

The most notable incident of the day was the hissing of the prisoner by the crowds who surged around him as he was being carried down the stairs, still draped in mourning garb, to the strong guard of patrolmen and deputy sheriffs had been dispensed with, so that the people were able to get nearer the prisoner as he passed to and from the court room. As a result of the urging of President Albrecht's "Moot of the Erie County Bar Association, Judge Lewis, one of the attorneys assigned as counsel by Judge Emery yesterday, called at the Erie county jail to see the prisoner. Czolgosz refused to talk to Judge Lewis. Judge Lewis said that nevertheless he would appear for the prisoner upon arraignment even if he decided not to accept the assignment of the court.

GIFT TO THE DUCHESS.

The Quebec Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire, Victoria and Baden-Powell, have prepared a beautifully bound album of photographic views for presentation to H. R. H. the Duchess of Cornwall and York. They include scenes such as the legislative council chamber, which will be familiar to her after her visit, and also the departure of the Canadian contingent for South Africa by the S. S. Sardinia two years ago. The album is handsomely bound in white lid with the arms of the Province of Quebec in the center and a border of small maple leaves. This presentation will be made privately by His Excellency the Governor-General.

FAIRWELL RECEPTION.

To Rev. F. J. Stackhouse at the Tabernacle Last Evening.

Rev. F. J. Stackhouse last evening said farewell to the church where he has spent two years of faithful, unremitting and successful labor which has trebled the congregation, greatly increased its working efficiency and spirituality and changed its place of worship from a dingy little upper hall to a finely constructed and commodious church building, which will long remain as a monument to his energy and ability.

The congregation and large numbers of the departing pastor's other friends, including many clerical brethren, attended the reception. Deacon Andrew Patterson acted as chairman. During the evening speeches eulogistic of the splendid work Mr. Stackhouse had done here and of his ability as a manager, preacher and pastor were given by Rev. John Hughes, Rev. Mr. Symon, Rev. H. E. Waring, Rev. Mr. Caldwell, Rev. C. T. Phillips, Dr. S. McC. Black and Rev. J. D. Freeman, who heartily commended the step Mr. Stackhouse had taken for the prosecution of a further theological course, and wished him every success in the furtherance of it and thereafter.

The chairman then, on behalf of the congregation, presented Mr. Stackhouse with an address expressing his services as a pastor and pastor, and of his unremitting thoughtfulness and interest. Through his aid many seemingly impossible difficulties had been surmounted. In their days of health and sickness he had always been loyal and true, ever ready to lend a helping hand to all. They mourned at his departure, but were glad that he was entering upon wider fields of usefulness, and they prayed that his influence would continue to deepen and grow broader until he and his congregation met where parting would be no more. Accompanying the address was a substantially filled purse.

Rev. Mr. Stackhouse returned feeling thanks for the kindly words expressed by his fellow clergymen and his congregation.

THE TWO SOURCES.

ALCOHOL AND MORPHINE.

A recent remarkable discovery in medicine which has been found to annihilate the deadly effects of alcoholic drinks and all drugs, in the most hopeless cases, is attracting a good deal of attention among those interested in temperance work. The medicine is purely vegetable, perfectly harmless and absolutely free from narcotics. It leaves no evil after effects and can be carried in the pocket and taken in absolute privacy, thus dispensing with the publicity, loss of time and expense of an intimate treatment.

GARDEN PARTY POSTPONED.

The disagreeable weather yesterday interfered greatly with the success of the Gladstone garden party on the B. and A. grounds, the evening party of which has been postponed until this evening, when among other attractions an exhibition drill will be given by the boys of the Scots company. If the weather is again unfavorable all entertainment in the vestry of Elmwood street Methodist church will be held instead.

SHERMAN TOLD HIS SECRET.

(C. McI. in Lippincott's) Gen. Sherman was one of the most approachable men who ever commanded a great army. During his famous "march to the sea" both north and south were completely mystified as to what point he was striking for, and one day an old Georgia planter who had called at his headquarters and enjoyed his good cheer asked him plumply if he had any objection to telling where his army was bound.

"Not the least," said Sherman. Then leaning over, he whispered in his guest's ear, but so loudly that everybody else in the tent overheard it: "We are going pretty much where we please!"

THE C. F. R. STRIKE.

(Montreal Gazette.)

It was learned at the Canadian Pacific offices that about 95 per cent. of the trackmen who were on strike have returned to work and that good progress has already been made in getting the roadbed in shape for the heavy fall traffic. Only a few men, who have been charged with acts of violence, have been refused employment by the company.

THE LARGEST OCEAN RAFT.

(Morning Oregonian.)

ASTORIA, Sept. 6.—The Robertson log raft will leave in a day or two for San Francisco in charge of the powerful tug Tatosh and Richard Holroyde. It was built in the slough near Westport, Ore., and consists of 600,000 lineal feet of pling, procured in the vicinity of that place. The greater part of the timber came from the headwaters of Beaver Creek, from which a flume was specially constructed for the purpose, a distance of ten miles. The raft was about eight months in course of construction. It is 634 feet in length, of cigar shape, and is about 40 feet in diameter at the largest part. Its draught is about 24 feet, and it is very favorable conditions. To tow it to San Francisco from the mouth of the Columbia is expected to take about ten days. The raft is the largest of its kind ever built.
