POOR DOCUMENT

THE STAR ST. JOHN N. B., TUESDAY, MAY 11 1909

Classified Advertisements.

BUSINESS CARDS

WHITEWASHING and Kalsomining done to order. Ceilings from 40 cents upwards. Orders left at Central Fish Store, or 9 Union Alley. J. H. GRAVES, Poone Main 1832-41. DAILY EXPECTED fresh mined Minudi Screened Coal, clean, no slack. Tel. 42. JAMES S. McGIVERN, agent, 5 Mill street. 29-4-

EYES TESTED FREE.—Difficult re-pairing solicited. C. STEWART PAT-ERSON, 55 Brassels St.

D. FITZGERALD, 25 Dock street. Boots, Shoes and Rubbers repaired. Also a full line of Men's Boots and Shoes at reasonable prices. Rubber Heels attached 35c. 1-1-08tf. W. V. HATFIELD, Mason, Plasterer, Builder, Stucco work in all its branch-es. 844 1-2 Union Street, Estimates furnished. Only union men employed. Telephone 1619. 11-10-tf.

8. A. WILLIAMS, CARPENTER and CONTRACTOR, office 109 Prince Wm. Street. Telephone. 2031. All kinds of work promptly attended to.

J. D. MCAVITY, dealer in hard and soft coals. Delivery promptly in the city, 39 Brussels Street.

WM. L. WILLIAMS, successor to M. A. Finn, Wholesale and Retail Wine and Spirit Merchant, 110 and 112 Prince Wm. St. Established 1870. Write for family price list.

F. C. WESLEY CO., Artists, Engrav-ers and Electrotypers, 59 Water Street, St. John, N. B. Telephone 982. E. LAW, Watchmaker, 2 Coburg St.

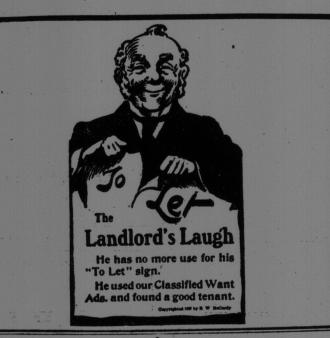

FOR SALE

.

Don't get the backache bending over a washtub-

secure a washerwoman by the use of a little "Want" ad Find a place to use your idle capital by securing a good first mortgage through the classified ads.

I Cent a Word, 6 insertions for the price of 4

MORTGAGEE'S SALE

THREE

AMUSEMENTS.

NICKEL SCORES WITH NEW MUSIC FEATURE.

The Nickel has again demonstrated to its friends what can be given in the way of superior entertainment for five cents in introducing the excellent sing-ing team, The Silibers, who made their bow last evening to capacity houses. These performers made a most favor-able impression in two familiar num-bers, Verdi's Miserere, from Il Trova-tore, and Ascher's Love's Dream is O'er, otherwise known as Alice, Where

| FOR SALE - Large farm horse,cheap. HARVEY HANSON, Fairville.  | SITUATIONS VACANT-FEMALE  | TO LEI   | ture of Mortgage as:"All that certain lot, piece or parcel  | that time there were many things she had to do without-little things   | ing, and whatever mail she had: I know that many and many a day she  | (drama), "An Embarrassing Present"(comedy), "Milk for the Baby" (com-edy), and "The King of the Ring," a |
|---|---|--|---|--|--|---|
| 11-5-6FOR SALE FOR REMOVAL-Small  | WANTED-Girl for general houseswork. Address Box 699, Star Office.   | TO LET-For the summer, half ahouse at Brandy Point, one of the   | "of land situate, lying and being in"Sydney Ward, in the said City of"Saint John, on the north side of  | Driving was one of them-and that   | and that weeks and sometimes months passed when she did not get one one;   | highly dramatic subject. Mr. Water-all is singing, "In the Shadow of theCanadian Hills," a new illustrated bal- |
| house rear 145 Orange street. R. G.MURRAY, Barrister, 49 Canterbury St.11-5-6   | 11-5-3WANTED-A good second cook; also   | prettiest places on the river, five min-utes walk from station. Apply B.STEVENS, Brandy Point, Kings Co.   | "Britain Street and known of Cis-"tinguished on the map or plan of the"said City on file in the Common  | "Well, Mrs. Waite said to her: 'Now,Aunt Electa, why don't you just buy anew bonnet, and out-and-out new bon-  | but it was always the same with herCharliè wrote every week, or alwaysmeant to. To his mother he never   | lad. Be early tonight.  |
| A SLOVEN FOR SALE-John B.Jeffrey, 190 Millidgeville Ave. 11-5-6   | a pantry girl. Apply Steward UnionClub. 10-5-tfGIRL WANTED for housework. Ap-   | 11-5-6TO LET-Large unfurnished rooms,  | "Clerk's office by the number 1222,"(one thousand two hundred and"twenty-two) having a front of forty   | net?' Can't you just imagine how hard that old lady must have wanted a new   | ceased to be the young man who left her ten, twenty years before, and she never failed to find excuses for him.  | "BUGS" RAYMOND  |
| FOR SALE, cheap. Lady's bicycle.Apply 169 Queen St. 105-6   | ply MRS. M. B. ALLEN, 184 Brusselsstreet. 10-5-6  | 15 Paddock St. 10-5-1mo.FLATS TO LET-Upper flat, 7   | "feet on the said street and thence"extending back preserving the same  | But she shook her head in a mischlev-ous way she had, as if Mrs. Waite   | After he reinvested her little scrap ofmoney in the West, her beautiful old  | GETS FREE PASS  |
| FOR SALE—One roller top desk andoak sideboard and second-hand organ.Apply 116 Waterloo street. 10-5-6   | WANTED-A good general girl, alsoa reliable nurse to go to Rothesay  | rooms; also barn or work-shop, 75Chesley St.; lower flat, 4 rooms, patentcloset, 25 Rock St. Apply ALFRED  |   | had been proposing something posit-tively naughty, and said, 'Oh, mydear! I can be very genteel with this  | face used to look more anxiously forCharlie's letters, for he was to sendher the income every quarter. I knew  | NEW YORK, May 11-Due to the in-   |
| FOR SALE—Three storey house, cor-ner'St. James and Carmarthen streets,  | about the 1st of June for the summermonths. Apply with references. MRS.J. B. CUDLIP, 35 Carleton street, be-  | BURLEY, 46 Princess. 10-4-tfTO LET-Barn on King St. east,near Pitt. Apply to ST. JOHN HIDE   | "premises belonging or appertaining."Dated the seventh day of April A.D.  | one fixed up!'"Mrs. Waite knew very well that  | that sometimes it was a month late,and once did not come at all; I knowthat it varied most remarkably in   | mored several players on the Giants   |
| with store at present occupied by M.T. Gibbon. This is one of the best bus-iness stands in Lower Cove. For par-   | tween 6 and 8 o'clock evening.1015-tf   | CO., Telephone 1124. 5-5-tfTO LET-Flat, 6 rooms with water.  | JOHN ABBOTT, Mortgagee.HORACE P. BABSON, Witness.   | about as badly as she had ever wantedanything; for she loved dress, and theold one she had worn for eight or   | amount, considering the fact that  | ers say that "Bugs" would call upSecretary Knowles every morning and  |
| ticulars apply MRS. J. FOSTER, 240Prince William street. 6-5-6  | WANTED-Kitchen girl at the Ed-ward Hotel. Apply at once 10-5-tf   | Enquire on premises 53 Cor. Sheffieldand Sydney. 6-5-6   | T. T. LANTALUM.   | nine years; but she also knew thatAunt Electa could not afford the new   | claimed: "The damned scoundrel!"   | Being informed that no game wouldbe played he would immediately ask   |
| FOR SALE-10 single and doublecarriages; 2 top; 2 open pneumatic. W.CAIRNS, 228 Main. 5-5-6  | WANTED—A young girl. Apply at173 Germain St. 10-5-tf.   | TO LET-A self contained flat ofseven large rooms, bath room, hotand cold water, new house. Apply at  | 8-4-32 Auctioneer.  | she thought of a way to get around her   | coat, drew out a long, black stogy, andbegan chewing the end of it. The manwith the reddish beard, who was in the  | ingenious method not only made him  |
| FOR SALE-One Cooking Range,"Charm Richmond." In good condi-   | WANTED-Coat, pant and vestmakers. Highest wages, steady employ-   | 281 Gullford St., West. Phone 3-31.5-5-6   |   | boro' with me next week and just room  | seat next the window opposite the fat  |   |
| tion. Almost new. Enquire at 27 CityRoad. In rear. 3-5-tf.FOR SALE—A dupligraph, new, with  | ment. First class hands. C. B. PID-GEON, Cor. Main and Bridge Sts.8-5-tf.   | TO LET-A self contained house, 109Hazen street. Apply at 111 Hazen St.3-5-tf   | 2 EEEEE   | eyes twinkled at that, you may besure; she loved driving, and she loved  | "Sit still, sit still! You ain't in myway!" So he sank back into his place   | CHARGED WITH STEALING.  |
| three trays. Also, a neostyle good asnew. Either will make multiple copies  | WANTED-One all around cook in   | TO LET-Sunny lower flat in newhouse, seven rooms, hardwood floors,   | Synopsis of Canadian North-west Land Regulations.   | course, I might look at them, butprices are so much higher than they   | "He wasn't a damned scoundrel toher" the Bishon said. "There never   |   |
| exactly like type written letter. Ap-ply Sun Office. 30-4-tf  | Married woman preferred. Highest  | electric light throughout, hot waterheating, separate furnace, gas rangein kitchen. Apply GEORGE CAR-  | a family, or any male over 18 years old,  | as far as it used to before the war, my  | cuse for, and I verily believe there   | CAMPBELLTON, May 10Anothercase of stealing was reported here to-  |
| iding lots for sale at Renforth. Ap-ply G. M. HUMPHREYS, 307 Princes  | 181 Prince William St. 8-5-6  | VELL. 1-5-tf.TO LET-Flat 114 Douglas Avenue,   |   | man in the striped shirt. The Bishopsmiled and went on.  | She was beautiful to every one and   | lowed. The store of James Murray,Water street was entered at the noon   |
| St. Telephone Main 2265.25-3-tf.FOR SALE - Perforated   | ators and hand sewers. Good wages.  |  | cant must appear in person at the Do-minion Lands Agency or Sub-Agencyfor the district. Entry by proxy may  | bonnet could not be bought under a   | spoke or thought of Charlie she was  | and the store locked and about $5 in   |
| Seats, square and shaped  | WANTED-Two experienced choco-   | Germain streets, opposite the RoyalHotel. Apply to FRASER FRASER   | be made at any agency, on certain   | dollars. She knew Aunt Electa couldpay that mich, you see. Then she told   | she got Charlie's letter, telling her hewas married: she used to look happy  |   |
| bring pattern. Chair seating L S. Cane only, Duva   | & WHITE CO., Dock St. 5-5-6   | CO., 71 Germain St. 21-4-tfTO LET-Flat 6 rooms and bath. 25Cliff street. T. M. BURNS, 40 Ex-   | ing homesteader.  | poor, and had just set up a shop in  | before, but that day her face simplyshone with joy that came up from herheart. You've all heard how mothers  | John Copeland. They admitted and themoney was recovered. The same boys  |
| 170 Waterloo Street.15-4-3mos   | WANTEDGirl for general housework. Apply to J. T. WILCOX, ofWilcox Bros., corner Dock and Mar-   | mouth street. 21-4-tfTO RENT-Flats 177 Winslow St.,  | three years. A Lomesteader may livewithin nine miles of his homestead on  | Aunt Electa; she would always do a   | well Aunt Electa was not that kind.  | were under arrest a couple of weeksago.on the charge of breaking into ahenhouse and were then fined.            |
| WANTED-Horse and carriage for   | ket Square. 5-5-tfWANTED – Pant makers, highest   | TO LET-New salt contained flats  | ed and occupied by nim or by his  | went to Mainboro' and arranged that  | her boy must be; when she salu and   |   |
|   | D. & J. PATERSON, 77 Germain St.  | set tubs, hot water heating. Readyabout April 15th. Rev. M. S. Trafton,  | In certain districts a homesteader in   | should come to the right price, andthe next week she drove the dear oldlady over. She said Aunt Electa was   | his wife must be sweet and good, and   |   |
|   |   |  |   |  | The Dishop Daused and  |   |
| FIRST CLASS CHEF wants positioin hotel dr restaurant. City references. Apply Box 697, Star Office.  | WANTED-Girls to work in cigatfactory, Apply at once to A. S. HART,  | 99 Wright street. 1-3-tr.TO LET-Small flats corner Charlotte   | ter-section alongside his homestead.Price $3.00 per acre. DutiesMust re-   | dressed half an hour before the car  | "Well, somehow or other she got the  | AND INSETS, VOGUE   |
| in hotel or restaurant. City references. Apply Box 697, Star Office.WANTED TO PURCHASE—Gentlemen's cast off clothing, footwear, fu  | WANTED-Girls to work in eightfactory. Apply at once to A. S. HART,72 Prince Wm. St. 4-5-tfWANTED IMMEDIATELY-A cook.  | 99 Wright street.TO LET-Small flats corner Charlotteend St. James streets, Daniel Mullin,Pugsley building.16-2-tf.TO LET-Steam neated room, cen-   | ter-section alongside his homestead.Price $3.00 per acre. DutiesMust re-side six months in each of six yearsfrom date of homestead entry (includ-ing the time required to carn home-   | dressed half an hour before the carriage was ready, and had quite a timedeciding whether her gray shawl orher brown wrap were the more suit-   | "Well, somehow or other she got themoney together, and before any of usquite realized it she was off to Prescottto see that boy of hers and his new  |   |
| in hotel or restaurant. City references. Apply Box 697, Star Office.WANTED TO PURCHASE—Gentlemen's cast off clothing, footwear, fucoats, ladies' furs, jewelry, diamondemusical instruments, guns, revolverstools skates, etc. Call or send posta   | WANTED-Girls to work in cigarfactory, Apply at once to A. S. HART,72 Prince Wm. St. 4-5-tfWANTED IMMEDIATELY-A cook.References required. Apply to MRS.PAYMOND 159 Germain street.   | 99 Wright street.TO LET—Small flats corner Charlotteand St. James streets, Daniel Mullin,Pugsley building.16-2-tf.'TO LET—Steam neated room, cen-tral. Apply Box 625, Star Office.24-2-tf.   | ter-section alongside his homestead.Price $3.00 per acre. Duties.—Must re-side six months in each of six yearsfrom date of homestead entry (includ-ing the time required to carn home-stead patent) and cultivate fifty acresextra.A homesteader who has exhausted   | dressed half an hour before the carriage was ready, and had quite a timedeciding whether her gray shawl orher brown wrap were the more suit-able to wear!"The fat man blew his nose. "Nowain't that just like 'em all?" he askedtenderly   | his throat before he continued."Well, somehow or other she got themoney together, and before any of usquite realized it she was off to Prescottto see that boy of hers and his newwife. She was seventy-two then, butshe was as young and sprightly as anyold lady you ever saw."  |   |
| in hotel or restaurant. City references. Apply Box 697, Star Office.WANTED TO PURCHASE—Gentlemen's cast off clothing, footwear, fucoats, ladies' furs, jewelry, diamondsmusical instruments, guns, revolverstools skates, etc. Call or send postaH. GILBERT, 24 Mill St.EMPLOYMENT WANTED by ex   | WANTED-Girls to work in eigatfactory, Apply at once to A. S. HART,72 Prince Wm. St. 4-5-tfWANTED IMMEDIATELY-A cook.References required. Apply to MRS.RAYMOND, 159 Germain street.GIRL WANTED-For general house-work Apply at 51 Hazen Street.  | 99 Wright street.TO LET—Small flats corner Charlotteand St. James streets, Daniel Mullin,Pugsley building.16-2-tf.'10 I.ET—Steam neated room, cen-tral. Apply Box 625, Star Office.  | <ul> <li>ter-section alongside his homestead.</li> <li>Price $3.00 per acre. Duties.—Must reside six months in each of six years from date of homestead entry (including the time required to carn homestead patent) and cultivate fifty acres extra.</li> <li>A homesteader who has exhausted his homestead right and cannot obtain a pre-emption may take a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price</li> </ul>   | dressed half an hour before the carriage was ready, and had quite a timedeciding whether her gray shawl orher brown wrap were the more suit-able to wear!"The fat man blew his nose. "Nowain't that just like 'em all?" he askedtenderly."Gee, I wisht I could 'a' seen her!"said the man in the striped shirt."Wall " continued the Bishop, "they   | his threat before he continued."Well, somehow or other she got themoney together, and before any of usquite realized it she was off to Prescottto see that boy of hers and his newwife. She was seventy-two then, butshe was as young and sprightly as anyold lady you ever saw.""So's my mother," the youngest mansaid."She was to be gone three months.  | ON NEWEST GOWNS   |
| in hotel or restaurant. City references. Apply Box 697, Star Office.WANTED TO PURCHASE—Gentlemen's cast off clothing, footwear, fur-coats, ladies' furs, jewelry, diamonds-musical instruments, guns, revolvers-tools skates, etc. Call or send postaH. GILBERT, 24 Mill St.EMPLOYMENT WANTED by ex-perienced Nurse. Apply 118 Charlottstreet. 26-4-1mo.WANTED TO PURCHASE—Gen  | WANTED-Girls to work in cigatfactory. Apply at once to A. S. HART,72 Prince Wm. St. 4-5-tfWANTED IMMEDIATELY-A cook.References required. Apply to MRS.RAYMOND, 159 Germain street.GIRL WANTED-For general house-work. Apply at 51 Hazen Street.26-4-tfWANTED-Coat and vest maker. W.  | 99 Wright street.       1-3-tf.         TO LET—Small flats corner Charlotte       and St. James streets, Daniel Mullin,         Pugsley building.       16-2-tf.         'YO I.FT—Steam neated room, cen-       124-2-tf.         TO LETTwo flats, 8 rooms each.       Seen Tuesday and Friday afternoons.         270 Brittain St.       9-2-tf         TO LETSelf-contained Flat, eight       rooms, 350 Haymarket Square.   | <ul> <li>ter-section alongside his homestead.</li> <li>Price $3.00 per acre. Duties.—Must reside six months in each of six years from date of homestead entry (including the time required to carn homestead patent) and cultivate fifty acres extra.</li> <li>A homesteader who has exhausted his homestead right and cannot obtain a pre-emption may take a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties.—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate fifty acres extra description and carnot between the six months in each of three years, cultivate fifty acres fit and cannot be been to be the six months in each of three years.</li> </ul>   | dressed half an hour before the carriage was ready, and had quite a timedeciding whether her gray shawl orher brown wrap were the more suit-able to wear!"The fat man blew his nose. "Nowain't that just like 'em all?" he askedtenderly."Gee, I wisht I could 'a' seen her!"said the man in the striped shirt."Well," continued the Bishop, "theybought that bonnet, and everybody intown had to call on Aunt Electa to seethe ard they all made her try it on:   | his throat before he continued."Well, somehow or other she got themoney together, and before any of usquite realized it she was off to Prescottto see that boy of hers and his newwife. She was seventy-two then, butshe was as young and sprightly as anyold lady you ever saw.""So's my mother," the youngest mansaid."She was to be gone three months,but in less than in two she was backarea is and hors. I never saw that  | ON NEWEST GOWNS   |
| in hotel or restaurant. City references. Apply Box 697, Star Office.WANTED TO PURCHASE—Gentlemen's cast off clothing, footwear, furences, ladies' furs, jewelry, diamondemusical instruments, guns, revolvers tools skates, etc. Call or send postaH. GILBERT, 24 Mill St.EMPLOYMENT WANTED by experienced Nurse. Apply 118 Charlottstreet. 26-4-1mo.WANTED TO PURCHASE—Gentlemen's left off clothing, jewelry, biccycles. Highest prices paid. Call of   | WANTED-Girls to work in cigarfactory, Apply at once to A. S. HART,72 Prince Wm. St. 4-5-tfWANTED IMMEDIATELY-A cook.References required. Apply to MRS.RAYMOND, 159 Germain street.GIRL WANTED-For general house-work. Apply at 51 Hazen Street.26-4-tfWANTED-Coat and vest maker. W.J. HIGGINS AND CO. 26-4-tf  | 99 Wright street.       1-3-tf.         TO LET—Small flats corner Charlotte         end St. James streets, Daniel Mullin,         Pugsley building.         '1'O I.FT—Steam neated room, cen-         tral. Apply Box 625, Star Office.         24-2-tf.         TO LETTwo flats, 8 rooms each.         Seen Tuesday and Friday afternoons.         270 Brittain St.         9-2-tf         TO LETSelf-contained Flat, eight         rooms, 350 Haymarket Square.       29-3-tf         TO LETStore 7 Waterloo St. F. G.         SCOTT.       19-2-tf.   | ter-section alongside his homestead.Price $3.00 per acre. DutiesMust re-side six months in each of six yearsfrom date of homestead entry (includ-ing the time required to carn home-stead patent) and cultivate fifty acresextra.A homesteader who has exhaustedhis homestead right and cannot obtaina pre-emption may take a purchasedhomestead in certain districts. Price$3.00 per acre. DutiesMust residesix months in each of three years, cul-tivate fifty acres and erect a houseworth $300.00.W. W. CORY   | dressed half an hour before the carriage was ready, and had quite a timedeciding whether her gray shawl orher brown wrap were the more suit-able to wear!"The fat man blew his nose. "Nowain't that just like 'em all?" he askedtenderly."Gee, I wisht I could 'a' seen her!"said the man in the striped shirt."Well," continued the Bishop, "theybought that bonnet, and everybody intown had to call on Aunt Electa to seeit, and they all made her try it on;and from what I heard of it later, Imuss there never was anything in the   | his throat before he continued."Well, somehow or other she got themoney together, and before any of usquite realized it she was off to Prescottto see that boy of hers and his newwife. She was seventy-two then, butshe was as young and sprightly as anyold lady you ever saw.""So's my mother," the youngest mansaid."She was to be gone three months,but in less than in two she was backagain; and, boys, I never saw thatlight of happiness in her face again.What was it. I don't know all; but I   | ON NEWEST GOWNS   |
| in hotel or restaurant. City references. Apply Box 697, Star Office.WANTED TO PURCHASE—Gentlemen's cast off clothing, footwear, fucoats, ladies' furs, jewelry, diamondsmusical instruments, guns, revolverstools skates, etc. Call or send postaH. GILBERT, 24 Mill St.EMPLOYMENT WANTED by ex-perienced Nurse. Apply 118 Charlottstreet.WANTED TO PURCHASE—Gen-tlemen's left off clothing, jewelry, bi-cycles. Highest prices paid. Callwrite. I. WILLIAMS, 16 Dock St.23-4-3mos.WANTED—A flat of about 7 room  | WANTED-Girls to work in cigarfactory, Apply at once to A. S. HART,72 Prince Wm. St. 4-5-tfWANTED IMMEDIATELY-A cook.References required. Apply to MRS.RAYMOND, 159 Germain street.3-5-tfGIRL WANTED-For general house-work. Apply at 51 Hazen Street.26-4-tfWANTED-Coat and vest maker. W.J. HIGGINS AND CO. 26-4-tfSITUATIONS VACANI — MALE  | 99 Wright street.       1-3-tf.         TO LET—Small flats corner Charlotte       and St. James streets, Daniel Mullin,         Pugsley building.       16-2-tf.         'TO I.ET—Steam neated room, cen-       16-2-tf.         'TO LET.—Two flats, 8 rooms each.       24-2-tf.         'TO LET.—Two flats, 8 rooms each.       Seen Tuesday and Friday afternoons.         270 Brittain St.       9-2-tf.         'TO LET.—Self-contained Flat, eight       rooms, 550 Haymarket Square.         'TO LET.—Store 7 Waterloo St. F. G.       SCOTT.         'TO LET.—A self contained flat, 99 El-       100 LET.—A self contained flat, 99 El-         'Iot Row, with 3 rooms and bath. Can       be seen Tuesday and Thursdays. Apply   | <ul> <li>ter-section alongside his homestead.</li> <li>Price $3.00 per acre. Duties.—Must reside six months in each of six years from date of homestead entry (including the time required to carn homestead patent) and cultivate fifty acressextra.</li> <li>A homesteader who has exhausted his homestead right and cannot obtain a pre-emption may take a purchased homestead in certain districts. Pricet $3.00 per acre. Duties.—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate fifty acress and erect a house worth $300.00.</li> <li>W. W. CORY</li> <li>Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.</li> <li>N. B.—Unauthorized publication of this advertisement will not be paid for.</li> </ul>  | dressed half an hour before the carriage was ready, and had quite a timedeciding whether her gray shawl orher brown wrap were the more suit-able to wear!"The fat man blew his nose. "Nowain't that just like 'em all?" he askedtenderly."Gee, I wisht I could 'a' seen her!"said the man in the striped shirt."Well," continued the Bishop, "theybought that bonnet, and everybody intown had to call on Aunt Electa to seeit, and they all made her try it on;and from what I heard of it later, Iguess there never was anything in theplace that created as much interest.Even the split in the MethodistChurch only ran it a close second. For   | his threat before he continued."Well, somehow or other she got themoney together, and before any of usquite realized it she was off to Prescottto see that boy of hers and his newwife. She was seventy-two then, butshe was as young and sprightly as anyold lady you ever saw.""So's my mother," the youngest mansaid."She was to be gone three months,but in less than in two she was backagain; and, boys, I never saw thatlight of happiness in her face again.What was it. I don't know all; but Imet a man out in my diocese last yearwho used to know Charlie, and he saidthat no decent woman in the placewhile the source of the sourc | ON NEWEST GOWNS   |
| in hotel or restaurant. City references. Apply Box 697, Star Office.WANTED TO PURCHASE—Gentlemen's cast off clothing, footwear, fuirout costs, ladies' furs, jewelry, diamondemusical instruments, guns, revolvers tools skates, etc. Call or send posta H. GILBERT, 24 Mill St.EMPLOYMENT WANTED by experienced Nurse. Apply 118 Charlott street.WANTED TO PURCHASE—Gent lemen's left off clothing, jewelry, bi cycles. Highest prices paid. Call or write. I. WILLIAMS, 16 Dock St. 23-4-3mos.  | WANTED-Girls to work in cigarfactory. Apply at once to A. S. HART,72 Prince Wm. St. 4-5-tfWANTED IMMEDIATELY-A cook.References required. Apply to MRS.RAYMOND, 159 Germain street.3-5-tfGIRL WANTED-For general house-work. Apply at 51 Hazen Street.26-4-tfWANTED-Coat and vest maker. W.J. HIGGINS AND CO. 26-4-tfSITUATIONS VACANI — MALLSITUATIONS VACANI — MALLStreet. 10-5-6WANTED-At once a boy to learn   | 99 Wright street.       1-3-tf.         TO LET—Small flats corner Charlotte       and St. James streets, Daniel Mullin,         Pugsley building.       16-2-tf.         'TO I.ET—Steam neated room, cen-       16-2-tf.         TO LET.—Two flats, 8 rooms each.       24-2-tf.         TO LET.—Two flats, 8 rooms each.       Seen Tuesday and Friday afternoons.         270 Brittain St.       9-2-tf         TO LET.—Self-contained Flat, eight       rooms, 550 Haymarket Square.         29-2-tf.       TO LET—Store 7 Waterloo St. F. G.         SCOTT.       19-2-tf.         TO LET—A self contained flat, 99 El-         liott Row, with 9 rooms and bath. Can         be seen Tuesday and Thursdays. Apply to R. N. DEAN, Contractor and Build-         ar, 72 St. James street.       Tel. 712  | <ul> <li>ter-section alongside his homestead.</li> <li>Price $3.00 per acre. Duties.—Must reside six months in each of six years from date of homestead entry (including the time required to carn homestead patent) and cultivate fifty acressextra.</li> <li>A homesteader who has exhausted his homestead right and cannot obtain a pre-emption may take a purchased homestead in certain districts. Pricet $3.00 per acre. Duties.—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate fifty acress and erect a house worth $300.00.</li> <li>W. W. CORY</li> <li>Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.</li> <li>N. B.—Unauthorized publication of this advertisement will not be paid for.</li> </ul>  | dressed half an hour before the carriage was ready, and had quite a timedeciding whether her gray shawl orher brown wrap were the more suit-able to wear!"The fat man blew his nose. "Nowaln't that just like 'em all?" he askedtenderly."Gee, I wisht I could 'a' seen her!"said the man in the striped shirt."Well," continued the Bishop, "theybought that bonnet, and everybody intown had to call on Aunt Electa to seeit, and they all made her try it on;and from what I heard of it later, Iguess there never was anything in theplace that created as much interest.Even the split in the MethodistChurch only ran it a close second. Foryou see every one in the village lovedher. There were very 'ew who hadnet need reason to. All her life she   | his throat before he continued."Well, somehow or other she got themoney together, and before any of usquite realized it she was off to Prescottto see that boy of hers and his newwife. She was seventy-two then, butshe was as young and sprightly as anyold lady you ever saw.""So's my mother," the youngest mansaid."She was to be gone three months,but in less than in two she was backagain; and, boys, I never saw thatlight of happiness in her face again.What was it. I don't know all; but Imet a man out in my diocese last yearwho used to know Charlle, and he saidthat no decent woman in the placecould speak to Charlie's wife; I guessyou all know what sort she was.""An' him lettin' his mother touchthat kind o' pitch!" said the man in   | ON NEWEST GOWNS   |
| in hotel or restaurant. City references. Apply Box 697, Star Office.WANTED TO PURCHASE—Gentlemen's cast off clothing, footwear, fucoats, ladies' furs, jewelry, diamondsmusical instruments, guns, revolverstools skates, etc. Call or send postaH. GILBERT, 24 Mill St.EMPLOYMENT WANTED by ex-perienced Nurse. Apply 118 Charlottstreet. 26-4-1mo.WANTED TO PURCHASE—Gen-tlemen's left off clothing, jewelry, bi-cycles. Highest prices paid. Callwrite. I. WILLIAMS, 16 Dock St.23-4-3mos.WANTED—A flat of about 7 roomand bath in a central locality. AddressBox 652, Star Office.  | WANTED-Girls to work in cigarfactory, Apply at once to A. S. HART,72 Prince Wm. St. 4-5-tfWANTED IMMEDIATELY-A cook.References required. Apply to MRS.RAYMOND, 159 Germain street.GIRL WANTED-For general house-work. Apply at 51 Hazen Street.26-4-tfWANTED-Coat and vest maker. W.J. HIGGINS AND CO. 26-4-tfSIIUAIIONS VACANI — MALEWANTED-Boys at Labatt's, WaterStreet. 10-5-6WANTED-At once a boy to learnthe barber business or a young manwith some experience. Apply at onceto J. R. Cameron, 9 Rodney street   | 99 Wright street.       1-3-tf.         TO LET—Small flats corner Charlotte         end St. James streets, Daniel Mullin,         Pugsley building.       16-2-tf.         'TO I.FT—Steam neated room, cen-         tial. Apply Box 625, Star Office.         24-2-tf.         TO LET.—Two flats, 8 rooms each.         Seen Tuesday and Friday afternoons.         270 Brittain St.       9-2-tf.         TO LET.—Self-contained Flat, eight         rooms, 350 Haymarket Square.       29-2-tf.         TO LET.—Ster 7 Waterloo St. F. G.         SCOTT.       19-2-tf.         TO LET.—A self contained flat, 99 El-         lott Row, with 9 rooms and bath. Car         be seen Tuesday and Thursdays. Apply         to R. N. DEAN, Contractor and Build-         er, 72 St. James street.       Tel. 712         16-2-tf.  | <ul> <li>ter-section alongside his homestead.</li> <li>Price $3.00 per acre. Duties.—Must reside six months in each of six years from date of homestead entry (including the time required to carn homestead patent) and cultivate fifty acress extra.</li> <li>A homesteader who has exhausted his homestead right and cannot obtain a pre-emption may take a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties.—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate fifty acress and erect a house worth $300.00.</li> <li>W. W. CORY</li> <li>Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.</li> <li>N. B.—Unauthorized publication of this advertisement will not be paid for.</li> </ul>  | dressed half an hour before the carriage was ready, and had quite a timedeciding whether her gray shawl orher brown wrap were the more suit-able to wear!"The fat man blew his nose. "Nowain't that just like 'em all?" he askedtenderly."Gee, I wisht I could 'a' seen her!"said the man in the striped shirt."Well," continued the Bishop, "theybought that bonnet, and everybody intown had to call on Aunt Electa to seeit, and they all made her try it on;and from what I heard of it later, Iguess there never was anything in theplace that created as much interest.Even the split in the MethodistChurch only ran it a close second. Foryou see every one in the village lovedher. There were very 'ew who hadnot good reason to. All her life shehad ministered to her neighbors, andshe was the first' to be sent for intime of trouble.   | his throat before he continued."Well, somehow or other she got themoney together, and before any of usquite realized it she was off to Prescottto see that boy of hers and his newwife. She was seventy-two then, butshe was as young and sprightly as anyold lady you ever saw.""So's my mother," the youngest mansaid."She was to be gone three months.but in less than in two she was backagain; and, boys, I never saw thatlight of happiness in her face again.What was it. I don't know all; but Imet a man out in my diocese last yearwho used to know Charlie, and he saidthat no decent woman in the placecould speak to Charlie's wife; I guessyou all know what sort she was.""An' him lettin' his mother touchthat kind o' pitch!" said the man inthe striped shirt."After she got home again she was  | ON NEWEST GOWNS   |
| in hotel or restaurant. City references. Apply Box 697, Star Office.WANTED TO PURCHASE—Gentlemen's cast off clothing, footwear, furents, ladies' furs, jewelry, diamonds musical instruments, guns, revolvers tools skates, etc. Call or send posta H. GILBERT, 24 Mill St.EMPLOYMENT WANTED by experienced Nurse. Apply 118 Charlott street. 26-4-1mo.WANTED TO PURCHASE—Gentiemen's left off clothing, jewelry, bicycles. Highest prices paid. Call or write. I. WILLIAMS, 16 Dock St. 23-4-3mos.WANTED—A flat of about 7 room and bath in a central locality. Address Box 652, Star Office.LOST AND FOUNDLOST—A pearl Rosary with god links and cross, on Durham streed or write. Constant streed or between there and Waterloo by was   | WANTED-Girls to work in cigatfactory, Apply at once to A. S. HART,72 Prince Wm. St. 4-5-tfWANTED IMMEDIATELY-A cook.References required. Apply to MRS.RAYMOND, 159 Germain street.3-5-tfGIRL WANTED-For general house-work. Apply at 51 Hazen Street.26-4-tfWANTED-Coat and vest maker. W.J. HIGGINS AND CO. 26-4-tfSITUATIONS VACANI — MALLSWANTED-Boys at Labatt's, WaterStreet. 10-5-6WANTED-At once a boy to learnthe barber business or a young manwith some experience. Apply at onceto J. R. Cameron, 9 Rodney streetWest Side. 10-5-tfWANTED-Clerk for Saturdky even  | 99 Wright street.       1-3-tf.         TO LET—Small flats corner Charlotte         end St. James streets, Daniel Mullin,         Pugsley building.       16-2-tf.         'TO I.ET—Steam neated room, central. Apply Box 625, Star Office.         24-2-tf.         TO LET.—Two flats, 8 rooms each.         Seen Tuesday and Friday afternoons.         270 Brittain St.       9-2-tf.         TO LET.—Self-contained Flat, eight         rooms, 350 Haymarket Square.       29-3-tf.         TO LET—Store 7 Waterloo St. F. G.         SCOTT.       19-2-tf.         TO LET—A self contained flat, 99 El-         Idtt Row, with 9 rooms and bath. Carr         be seen Tuesday and Thursdays. Apply         to R. N. DEAN, Contractor and Build-         er, 72 St. James street.       Tel. 712         16-2-tf.          ROOMS AND BOARDING  | ter-section alongside his homestead.Price $3.00 per acre. Duties.—Must re-side six months in each of six yearsfrom date of homestead entry (includ-ing the time required to cara home-stead patent) and cultivate fifty acresextra.A homesteader who has exhaustedhis homestead right and cannot obtaina pre-emption may take a purchasedhomestead in certain districts. Price$3.00 per acre. Duties.—Must residesix months in each of three years, cul-tivate fifty acres and erect a houseworth $300.00.W. W. CORYDeputy of the Minister of the Interior.N. B.—Unauthorized publication ofthis advertisement will not be paid for.   | dressed half an hour before the carriage was ready, and had quite a timedeciding whether her gray shawl orher brown wrap were the more suit-able to wear!"The fat man blew his nose. "Nowain't that just like 'em all?" he askedtenderly."Gee, I wisht I could 'a' seen her!"said the man in the striped shirt."Well," continued the Bishop, "theybought that bonnet, and everybody intown had to call on Aunt Electa to seeit, and they all made her try it on;and from what I heard of it later, Iguess there never was anything in theplace that created as much interest.Even the split in the MethodistChurch only ran it a close second. Foryou see every one in the village lovedher. There were very 'ew who hadnot good reason to. All her life shehad ministered to her neighbors, andshe was the first to be sent for intime of trouble."Of course everybody looked to seeher come out in church in that new  | his throat before he continued."Well, somehow or other she got themoney together, and before any of usquite realized it she was off to Prescottto see that boy of hers and his newwife. She was seventy-two then, butshe was as young and sprightly as anyold lady you ever saw.""So'g my mother," the youngest mansaid."She was to be gone three months.but in less than in two she was backagain; and, boys, I never saw thatlight of happiness in her face again.What was it. I don't know all; but Imet a man out in my diocese last yearwho used to know Charlie, and he saidthat no decent woman in the placecould speak to Charlie's wife; I guessyou all know what sort she was.""An' him lettin' his mother touchthat kind o' pitch!" said the man inthe striped shirt."After she got home again she wasquieter_than any one had ever seenher, and if you came upon her un-awares you were apt to find her sittingin the biting thinking with her   | ON NEWEST GOWNS   |
| in hotel or restaurant. City references. Apply Box 697, Star Office.WANTED TO PURCHASE—Gentlemen's cast off clothing, footwear, furences, ladies' furs, jewelry, diamonds musical instruments, guns, revolvers tools skates, etc. Call or send posta H. GILBERT, 24 Mill St.EMPLOYMENT WANTED by experienced Nurse. Apply 118 Charlott street. 26-4-11mo.WANTED TO PURCHASE—Gent tlemen's left off clothing, jewelry, bi cycles. Highest prices paid. Call or write. I. WILLIAMS, 16 Dock St. 23-4-3mos.WANTED—A flat of about 7 room and bath in a central locality. Address Box 652, Star Office.LOST AND FOUND   | WANTED-Girls to work in cigatfactory, Apply at once to A. S. HART,72 Prince Wm. St.         72 Prince Wm. St.         73 Prince Wm. St.         74 Prince Wm. St.         75 Prince Wm. St.         76 WANTED IMMEDIATELY-A cook.References required. Apply to MRS.RAYMOND, 159 Germain street.         76 RAYMOND, 159 Germain street.         77 GIRL WANTED-For general house-work. Apply at 51 Hazen Street.         76 WANTED-Coat and vest maker. W.J. HIGGINS AND CO.         77 SITUATIONS VACANI — MALLStreet.         78 WANTED-Boys at Labatt's, WaterStreet.         79 WANTED-At once a boy to learnthe barber business or a young manwith some experience. Apply at onceto J. R. Cameron, 9 Rodney streetWest Side.         79 WANTED-Clerk for SaturdAy evenings. Well paid. Experienced in bootand shoes preferred. Apply Box 698Star office.   | 99 Wright street.       1-3-tf.         TO LET—Small flats corner Charlotte         end St. James streets, Daniel Mullin,         Pugsley building.       16-2-tf.         'TO I.FT—Steam neated room, central. Apply Box 625, Star Office.         24-2-tf.         TO LET.—Two flats, 8 rooms each.         Seen Tuesday and Friday afternoons.         270 Brittain St.       9-2-tf         TO LET.—Self-contained Flat, eight rooms, 550 Haymarket Square.       29-3-tf         TO LET.—Store 7 Waterloo St. F. G.         SCOTT.       19-2-tf.         TO LET—A self contained flat, 99 El-         Hott Row, with 9 rooms and bath. Car be seen Tuesday and Thursdays. Apply to R. N. DEAN, Contractor and Builder, 72 St. James street.         To ROOMS AND BOARDING         FURNISHED Front Room in private family. Modern conveniences. Apply 305 Union street.   | ter-section alongside his homestead.Price $3.00 per acre. DutiesMust re-side six months in each of six yearsfrom date of homestead entry (includ-ing the time required to carn home-stead patent) and cultivate fifty acresextra.A homesteader who has exhaustedhis homestead right and cannot obtaina pre-emption may take a purchasedhomestead in certain districts. Price$3.00 per acre. DutiesMust residesix months in each of three years, cul-tivate fifty acres and erect a houseworth $300.00.W. W. CORYDeputy of the Minister of the Interior.N. BUnauthorized publication ofthis advertisement will not be paid for.M. AND AFTER SUNDAY, Jan.10th, 1909, trains will run daily (Sun-day excepted), as follows:   | dressed half an hour before the carriage was ready, and had quite a timedeciding whether her gray shawl orher brown wrap were the more suit-able to wear!"The fat man blew his nose. "Nowaln't that just like 'em all?" he askedtenderly."Gee, I wisht I could 'a' seen her!"said the man in the striped shirt."Well," continued the Bishop, "theybought that bonnet, and everybody intown had to call on Aunt Electa to seeit, and they all made her try it on:and from what I heard of it later, Iguess there never was anything in theplace that created as much interest.Even the split in the MethodistChurch only ran it a close second. Foryou see every one in the village lovedher. There were very 'ew who hadnot good reason to. All her life shehad ministered to her neighbors, andshe was the first' to be sent for intime of trouble."Of course everybody looked to seeher come out in church in that newbonnet; but when Easter morning cameAuna Electa appeared in the old one,and reache say the new one on the  | his throat before he continued."Well, somehow or other she got themoney together, and before any of usquite realized it she was off to Prescottto see that boy of hers and his newwife. She was seventy-two then, butshe was as young and sprightly as anyold lady you ever saw.""So's my mother," the youngest mansaid."She was to be gone three months.but in less than in two she was backagain; and, boys, I never saw thatlight of happiness in her face again.What was it. I don't know all; but Imet a man out in my diocese last yearwho used to know Charlie, and he saidthat no decent woman in the placecould speak to Charlie's wife; I guessyou all know what sort she was.""An' him lettin' his mother touchthat kind o' pitch!" said the man inthe striped shirt."After she got home again she wasquieter_than any one had ever seenher, and if you came upon her un-awares you were apt to find her sittingquietly thinking, thinking with herfingers on her lips, as if to hold them  | ON NEWEST GOWNS   |
| in hotel or restaurant. City references. Apply Box 697, Star Office.WANTED TO PURCHASE—Gentlemen's cast off clothing, footwear, furents, ladies' furs, jewelry, diamonds musical instruments, guns, revolvers tools skates, etc. Call or send posta H. GILBERT, 24 Mill St.EMPLOYMENT WANTED by experienced Nurse. Apply 118 Charlott street. 26-4-1mo.WANTED TO PURCHASE—Gent themen's left off clothing, jewelry, bicycles. Highest prices paid. Call or write. I. WILLIAMS, 16 Dock St. 23-4-3mos.WANTED—A flat of about 7 room and bath in a central locality. Address Box 652, Star Office.ILOST—A pearl Rosary with gol links and cross, on Durham street or between there and Waterloo by wa of Main, Mill, Union and Waterloo Finder will confer a favor by ieaving at Star Office.   | WANTED-Girls to work in cigatfactory, Apply at once to A. S. HART,72 Prince Wm. St. 4-5-tfWANTED IMMEDIATELY-A cook.References required. Apply to MRS.RAYMOND, 159 Germain street.3-5-tfGIRL WANTED-For general house-work. Apply at 51 Hazen Street.26-4-tfWANTED-Coat and vest maker. W.J. HIGGINS AND CO. 26-4-tfSITUATIONS VACANI — MALESWANTED-Boys at Labatt's, WaterStreet. 10-5-6WANTED-At once a boy to learnthe barber business or a young manwith some experience. Apply at onceto J. R. Cameron, 9 Rodney streetWest Side. 10-5-tfWANTED-Clerk for Saturdky evenings. Well paid. Experienced in bootand shoes preferred. Apply Box 665Star office. 10-5-tfWANTED-A sheet metai worker oftinsmith. Apply to JAMES McDADE   | 99 Wright street.       1-3-tf.         TO LET—Small flats corner Charlotte         end St. James streets, Daniel Mullin,         Pugsley building.       16-2-tf.         'TO I.ET—Steam neated room, cen-         tial. Apply Box 625, Star Office.         24-2-tf.         TO LET.—Two flats, 8 rooms each.         Seen Tuesday and Friday afternoons.         270 Brittain St.       9-2-tf.         TO LET.—Self-contained Flat, eight         rooms, 350 Haymarket Square.       29-2-tf.         TO LET.—Self-contained flat, 99 El-         lott Row, with 9 rooms and bath. Car         be seen Tuesday and Thursdays. Apply         to R. N. DEAN, Contractor and Build-         er, 72 St. James street.         Tol.et.         16-2-tf.         ROOMS AND BOARDING         FURNISHED Front Room in private         family. Modern conveniences. Apply         305 Union street.       7-5-tf         GENTLEMEN can have first class         accommodation at 86 Coburg St.  | ter-section alongside his homestead.Price $3.00 per acre. Duties.—Must re-side six months in each of six yearsfrom date of hemestead entry (includ-ing the time required to cara home-stead patent) and cultivate fifty acresextra.A homesteader who has exhaustedhis homestead right and cannot obtaina pre-emption may take a purchasedhomestead in certain districts. Price$3.00 per acre. Duties.—Must residesix months in each of three years, cul-tivate fifty acres and erect a houseworth $300.00.W. W. CORYDeputy of the Minister of the Interior.N. B.—Unauthorized publication ofthis advertisement will not be paid for.ON AND AFTER SUNDAY, Jan.10th, 1909, trains will run daily (Sun-day excepted), as follows:TRAENS LEAVE ST. JOHN.   | dressed half an hour before the carriage was ready, and had quite a timedeciding whether her gray shawl orher brown wrap were the more suit-able to wear!"The fat man blew his nose. "Nowain't that just like 'em all?" he askedtenderly."Gee, I wisht I could 'a' seen her!"said the man in the striped shirt."Well," continued the Bishop, "theybought that bonnet, and everybody intown had to call on Aunt Electa to seeit, and they all made her try it on:and from what I heard of it later, Iguess there never was anything in theplace that created as much interest.Even the split in the MethodistChurch only ran it a close second. Foryou see every one in the village lovedher. There were very 'ew who hadnot good reason to. All her life shehad ministered to her neighbors, andshe was the first' to be sent for intime of trouble."Of course everybody looked to seeher come out in church in that newbonnet; but when Easter morning cameAuna Electa appeared in the old one,and people saw the new one on thehead of Miss Louise Cary, a poor oldsoul who had never had anything veryfine in all her life before. Aunt Electa  | his throat before he continued."Well, somehow or other she got themoney together, and before any of usquite realized it she was off to Prescottto see that boy of hers and his newwife. She was seventy-two then, butshe was a young and sprightly as anyold lady you ever saw.""So'g my mother," the youngest mansaid."She was to be gone three months.but in less than in two she was backagain; and, boys, I never saw thatlight of happiness in her face again.What was it. I don't know all; but Imet a man out in my diocese last yearwho used to know Charlie, and he saidthat no decent woman in the placecould speak to Charlie's wife; I guessyou all know what sort she was.""An' him lettin' his mother touchthat kind o' pitch!" said the man inthe striped shirt."After she got home again she wasquieter_than any one had ever seenher, and if you came upon her un-awares you were apt to find her sittingquietly thinking, thinking with herfingers on her lips, as if to hold themquiet. She had never sat idle an hourin her life before, I am sure, but sheno longer seemed interested in littlethis striped in for the people in  |   |
| in hotel or restaurant. City references. Apply Box 697, Star Office.WANTED TO PURCHASE-Gentlemen's cast off clothing, footwear, furentscoats, ladies' furs, jewelry, diamondsmusical instruments, guns, revolversitetools skates, etc. Call or send postarH. GILBERT, 24 Mill St.EMPLOYMENT WANTED by ex-perienced Nurse. Apply 118 Charlottstreet. 26-4-1mo.WANTED TO PURCHASE-Gentilemen's left off clothing, jewelry, bi-cycles. Highest prices paid. Call ofwrite. I. WILLIAMS, 16 Dock St.23-4-3mos.WANTED-A flat of about 7 roomand bath in a central locality. AddressBox 652, Star Office.LOST-A pearl Rosary with goldinks and cross, on Durham streesor between there and Waterloo by wardof Main, Mill, Union and Waterloo by wardat Star Office.LOST-Hand-bag containing five orsix dollars. Please return to MRHOLLAND, 266½ Pitt St.LOST-Purse containing small su  | WANTED-Girls to work in cigatfactory, Apply at once to A. S. HART,72 Prince Wm. St.         72 Prince Wm. St.         4-5-tf         WANTED IMMEDIATELY-A cock.References required. Apply to MRS.RAYMOND, 159 Germain street.         GIRL WANTED-For general house-work. Apply at 51 Hazen Street.         26-4-tf         WANTED-Coat and vest maker. W.J. HIGGINS AND CO.         26-4-tf         WANTED-Boys at Labatt's, WaterStreet.         10-5-6         WANTED-At once a boy to learnthe barber business or a young manwith some experience. Apply at onceto J. R. Cameron, 9 Rodney streetWest Side.         WaNTED-Clerk for Saturdly evenings. Well paid. Experienced in bootand shoes preferred. Apply Box 698Star office.         Star office.       10-5-tf         WANTED-A sheet metai worker oftinsmith. Apply to JAMES McDAD2         MII St.       5-5-tf         MANTED-A sheet metai worker oftinsmith. Apply to JAMES McDAD2  | 99 Wright street.       1-3-tf.         TO LET—Small flats corner Charlotte         and St. James streets, Daniel Mullin,         Pugsley building.       16-2-tf.         'TO LET.—Steam neated room, cen-tral. Apply Box 625, Star Office.         24-2-tf.         TO LET.—Two flats, 8 rooms each.         Seen Tuesday and Friday afternoons.         270 Brittain St.       9-2-tf.         TO LET.—Self-contained Flat, eightrooms, 350 Haymarket Square.       29-3-tf         TO LET.—A self contained flat, 9 El-liott Row, with 3 rooms and bath. Canbe seen Tuesday and Thursdays. Applyto R. N. DEAN, Contractor and Build-er, 72 St. James street.       Tel. 71216-2-tf.         ROOMS AND BOARDING         FURNISHED Front Room in privatefamily. Modern conveniences. Apply305 Union street.       7-5-tf         GENTLEMEN can have first classaccommodation at 86 Coburg St.       17-4-1 mo.         TO LET.—One furnished front roomsbeated. Apply 18 Peters Street.       17-4-1 mo.   | ter-section alongside his homestead.Price $3.00 per acre. DutiesMust re-side six months in each of six yearsfrom date of homestead entry (includ-ing the time required to carn home-stead patent) and cultivate fifty acresextra.A homesteader who has exhaustedhis homestead right and cannot obtaina pre-emption may take a purchasedhomestead in certain districts. Price$3.00 per acre. DutiesMust residesix months in each of three years, cul-tivate fifty acres and erect a houseworth $300.00.W. W. CORYDeputy of the Minister of the Interior.N. BUnauthorized publication ofthis advertisement will not be paid for.ON AND AFTER SUNDAY, Jan.10th, 1909, trains will run daily (Sun-day excepted), as follows:TRAINS LEAVE ST. JOHN.N. 6Mixed for Moncton (leavessIsland Yard)         | dressed half an hour before the carriage was ready, and had quite a timedeciding whether her gray shawl orher brown wrap were the more suit-able to wear!"The fat man blew his nose. "Nowain't that just like 'em all?" he askedtenderly."Gee, I wisht I could 'a' seen her!"said the man in the striped shirt."Well," continued the Bishop, "theybought that bonnet, and everybody intown had to call on Aunt Electa to seeit, and they all made her try it on;and from what I heard of it later, Iguess there never was anything in theplace that created as much interest.Even the split in the MethodistChurch only ran it a close second. Foryou see every one in the village lovedher. There were very 'ew who hadnot good reason to. All her life shehad ministered to her neighbors, andshe was the first to be sent for intime of trouble."Of course everybody looked to seeher come out in church in that newbonnet; but when Easter morning cameAuna Electa appeared in the old one,and people saw the new one on thehead of Miss Louise Cary, a poor oldsoul who had never had anything veryfine in all her life before. Aunt Electatwinkled and smiled at every one withthe happiest face, and seemed to thinkit was the fivers to be in the world;   | his throat before he continued."Well, somehow or other she got themoney together, and before any of usquite realized it she was off to Prescottto see that boy of hers and his newwife. She was seventy-two then, butshe was as young and sprightly as anyold lady you ever saw.""So's my mother," the youngest mansaid."She was to be gone three months.but in less than in two she was backagain; and, boys, I never saw thatlight of happiness in her face again.What was it. I don't know all; but Imet a man out in my diocese last yearwho used to know Charlie, and he saidthat no decent woman in the placecould speak to Charlie's wife; I guessyou all know what sort she was.""An' him lettin' his mother touchthat kind o' pitch!" said the man inthe striped shirt."After she got home again she wasquiety thinking, thinking with herfingers on her lips, as if to hold themquiet. She had never sat idle an hourin her life before, I am sure, but sheno longer seemed in therested in littlethown was the same, and even af-ter she became so ill she never forgotthe word the annive and even af-ter she became so ill she never forgotthe word was the same, and even af-ter she became so ill she never forgotthe word was the same, and even af-ter she became so ill she never forgotthe stored so ill she never forgotthe sudding anniversaties or their   |   |
| in hotel or restaurant. City references. Apply Box 697, Star Office.WANTED TO PURCHASE-Gentlemen's cast off clothing, footwear, fucoats, ladies' furs, jewelry, diamondsmusical instruments, guns, revolverstools skates, etc. Call or send postaH. GILBERT, 24 Mill St.EMPLOYMENT WANTED by ex-perienced Nurse. Apply 118 Charlottstreet. 26-4-1mo.WANTED TO PURCHASE-Gen-tlemen's left off clothing, jewelry, b:cycles. Highest prices paid. Call orwrite. I. WILLIAMS, 16 Dock St.23-4-3mos.WANTED-A flat of about 7 roomand bath in a central locality. AddressBox 652, Star Office.LOST-A pearl Rosary with golHinks and cross, on Durham streesor between there and Waterloo by waof Main, Mill, Union and WaterlooFinder will confer a favor by ieavinat Star Office. 11-5-2LOST-Hand-bag containing five ofsix dollars. Please return to MRHOLLAND, 266 <sup>1</sup> / <sub>2</sub> Pitt St.  | WANTED-Girls to work in cigatfactory. Apply at once to A. S. HART,72 Prince Wm. St. 4-5-tfWANTED IMMEDIATELY-A cook.References required. Apply to MRS.RAYMOND, 159 Germain street.3-5-tfGIRL WANTED-For general house-work. Apply at 51 Hazen Street.26-4-tfWANTED-Coat and vest maker. W.J. HIGGINS AND CO. 26-4-tfSITUATIONS VACANI — MALLSWANTED-Boys at Labatt's, WaterStreet. 10-5-f6WANTED-At once a boy to learnthe barber business or a young manwith some experience. Apply at onceto J. R. Cameron, 9 Rodney streetWest Side. 10-5-tfWANTED-Clerk for SaturdAy evenings. Well paid. Experienced in bootand shoes preferred. Apply Box 698Star office. 10-5-tfWANTED-A sheet metai worker otinsmith. Apply to JAMES McDADEMill St. 5-5-tfWANTED-I6 men for railroad andother work. Also girls for the country  | 99 Wright street.       1-3-tf.         TO LET—Small flats corner Charlotte         end St. James streets, Daniel Mullin,         Pugsley building.       16-2-tf.         'TO LET.—Steam neated room, central. Apply Box 625, Star Office.       24-2-tf.         TO LET.—Two flats, 8 rooms each.       Seen Tuesday and Friday afternoons.         270 Brittain St.       9-2-tf         TO LET.—Steff-contained Flat, eight rooms, 550 Haymarket Square.       29-3-tf         TO LET.—Steff-contained flat, 99 El-liott Row, with 9 rooms and bath. Car be seen Tuesday and Thursdays. Apply to R. N. DEAN, Contractor and Builder, 72 St. James street.       Tel. 712         16-2-tf.       ROOMS AND BOARDING         Sto Hunnished Float, eight rooms, sto Haymarket Square.       29-3-tf.         TO LET—A self contained flat, 99 El-liott Row, with 9 rooms and bath. Car be seen Tuesday and Thursdays. Apply to R. N. DEAN, Contractor and Builder, 72 St. James street.       Tel. 712         16-2-tf.       ROOMS AND BOARDING         Sto Junion street.       7-5-tf         GENTLEMEN can have first class accommodation at 86 Coburg St.       17-4-1 mo.         TO LET—One furnished front room with 15-2-tf.       15-2-tf.  | ter-section alongside his homestead.Price $3.00 per acre. DutiesMust re-side six months in each of six yearsfrom date of homestead entry (includ-ing the time required to carn home-stead patent) and cultivate fifty acresextra.A homesteader who has exhaustedhis homestead right and cannot obtaina pre-emption may take a purchasedhomestead in certain districts. Price$3.00 per acre. DutiesMust residesix months in each of three years, cul-tivate fifty acres and erect a houseworth $300.00.W.W. CORYDeputy of the Minister of the Interior.N. BUnauthorized publication ofthis advertisement will not be paid for.ON AND AFTER SUNDAY, Jan.10th, 1909, trains will run daily (Sun-day excepted), as follows:TRAINS LEAVE ST. JOHN.No. 6Mixed for Moncton (leavesIsland Yard)          | dressed half an hour before the carriage was ready, and had quite a timedeciding whether her gray shawl orher brown wrap were the more suit-able to wear!"The fat man blew his nose. "Nowain't that just like 'em all?" he askedtenderly."Gee, I wisht I could 'a' seen her!"said the man in the striped shirt."Well," continued the Bishop, "theybought that bonnet, and everybody intown had to call on Aunt Electa to seeit, and they all made her try it on;and from what I heard of it later, Iguess there never was anything in theplace that created as much interest.Even the split in the MethodistChurch only ran it a close second. Foryou see every one in the village lovedher. There were very 'ew who hadnot good reason to. All her life shehad ministered to her neighbors, andshe was the first to be sent for intime of trouble."Of course everybody looked to seeher come out in church in that newbonnet; but when Easter morning cameAuna Electa appeared in the old one,and people saw the new one on thehead of Miss Louise Cary, a poor oldsoul who had never had anything veryfine in all her life before. Aunt Electatwinkled and smiled at every one withthe happiest face, and seemed to thinkit was the biggest joke in the world;when Mrs. Waite asked her about itafterward she said that Miss Louisehed asked her to let her try it on, as  | his throat before he continued."Well, somehow or other she got themoney together, and before any of usquite realized it she was off to Prescottto see that boy of hers and his newwife. She was seventy-two then, butshe was as young and sprightly as anyold lady you ever saw.""So's my mother," the youngest mansaid."She was to be gone three months.but in less than in two she was backagain; and, boys, I never saw thatlight of happiness in her face again.What was it. I don't know all; but Imet a man out in my diocese last yearwho used to know Charlle, and he saidthat no decent woman in the placecould speak to Charlie's wife; I guessyou all know what sort she was.""An' him lettin' his mother touchthat kind o' pitch!" said the man inthe striped shirt."After she got home again she wasquieter_than any one had ever seenher, and if you came upon her un-awares you were apt to find her sittingquietly thinking, thinking with herfingers on her lips, as if to hold themquiet. She had never sat idle an hourin her life before, I am sure, but sheno longer seemed interested in littlethings. Her affection for the people in'the town was the same, and even af-ter she became so ill she never forgotthel' wedding anniversaries or theirbirthdays; I know more than one inthat village who has a little bundle ofArmt Fleeta's notes treasured up. She   |   |
| in hotel or restaurant. City references. Apply Box 697, Star Office.WANTED TO PURCHASE-Gentlemen's cast off clothing, footwear, furonts, ladies' furs, jewelry, diamondsmusical instruments, guns, revolversito tools skates, etc. Call or send postaH. GILBERT, 24 Mill St.EMPLOYMENT WANTED by experienced Nurse. Apply 118 Charlottstreet. 26-4-1mo.WANTED TO PURCHASE-Genttlemen's left off clothing, jewelry, bi-cycles. Highest prices paid. Call orwrite. I. WILLIAMS, 16 Dock St.23-4-3mos.WANTED-A flat of about 7 roomand bath in a central locality. AddressBox 652, Star Office.LOST-A pearl Rosary with goldlinks and cross, on Durham streedor between there and Waterloo by warof Main, Mill, Union and WaterloorFinder will confer a favor by leavingat Star Office. 11-5-2LOST-Hand-base containing five ofsix dollars. Please return to MRRHOLLAND, 266 <sup>1</sup> / <sub>2</sub> Pitt St.LOST-Purse containing small suof money on Charlotte or Union Splease return to Star office. 10-5-2FULL  | WANTED-Girls to work in cigatfactory, Apply at once to A. S. HART,72 Prince Wm. St. 4-5-tfWANTED IMMEDIATELY-A cock.References required. Apply to MRS.RAYMOND, 159 Germain street.3-5-tfGIRL WANTED-For general house-work. Apply at 51 Hazen Street.26-4-tfWANTED-Coat and vest maker. W.J. HIGGINS AND CO. 26-4-tfSIIUAIIONS VACANI - MALLWANTED-Boys at Labatt's, WaterStreet. 10-5-6WANTED-At once a boy to learnthe barber business or a young manwith some experience. Apply at onceto J. R. Cameron, 9 Rodney streetWest Side. 10-5-tfWANTED-Clerk for SaturdAy evenings. Well paid. Experienced in bootand shoes preferred. Apply Box 698Star office. 10-5-tfWANTED-A sheet metai worker oftinsmith, Apply to JAMES McDADEMill St. 5-5-tfWANTED-16 men for railroad and   | 99 Wright street.       1-3-tf.         TO LET—Small flats corner Charlotte         end St. James streets, Daniel Mullin,         Pugsley building.       16-2-tf.         'TO LET.—Steam neated room, central. Apply Box 625, Star Office.       24-2-tf.         TO LET.—Two flats, 8 rooms each.       Seen Tuesday and Friday afternoons.         270 Brittain St.       9-2-tf         TO LET.—Steff-contained Flat, eight rooms, 550 Haymarket Square.       29-3-tf         TO LET.—Steff-contained flat, 99 El-liott Row, with 9 rooms and bath. Car be seen Tuesday and Thursdays. Apply to R. N. DEAN, Contractor and Builder, 72 St. James street.       Tel. 712         16-2-tf.       ROOMS AND BOARDING         Sto Hunnished Float, eight rooms, sto Haymarket Square.       29-3-tf.         TO LET—A self contained flat, 99 El-liott Row, with 9 rooms and bath. Car be seen Tuesday and Thursdays. Apply to R. N. DEAN, Contractor and Builder, 72 St. James street.       Tel. 712         16-2-tf.       ROOMS AND BOARDING         Sto Junion street.       7-5-tf         GENTLEMEN can have first class accommodation at 86 Coburg St.       17-4-1 mo.         TO LET—One furnished front room with 15-2-tf.       15-2-tf.  | ter-section alongside his homestead.Price $3.00 per acre. Duties.—Must re-side six months in each of six yearsfrom date of homestead entry (includ-ing the time required to cara home-stead patent) and cultivate fifty acressextra.A homesteader who has exhaustedhis homestead right and cannot obtaina pre-emption may take a purchasedhomestead in certain districts. Price$3.00 per acre. Duties.—Must residesix months in each of three years, cul-tivate fifty acress and erect a houseworth $300.00.W.W. CORYDeputy of the Minister of the Interior.N. B.—Unauthorized publication ofthis advertisement will not be paid for.ON AND AFTER SUNDAY, Jan.10th, 1909, trains will run daily (Sun-day excepted), as follows:TRAINS LEAVE ST. JOHN.No. 6-Mixed for Moncton (leavesIsland Yard) | dressed half an hour before the carriage was ready, and had quite a timedeciding whether her gray shawl orher brown wrap were the more suit-able to wear!"The fat man blew his nose. "Nowaln't that just like 'em all?" he askedtenderly."Gee, I wisht I could 'a' seen her!"said the man in the striped shirt."Well," continued the Bishop, "theybought that bonnet, and everybody intown had to call on Aunt Electa to seeit, and they all made her try it on:and from what I heard of it later, Iguess there never was anything in theplace that created as much interest.Even the split in the MethodistChurch only ran it a close second. Foryou see every one in the village lovedher. There were very 'ew who hadnot good reason to. All her life shehad ministered to her neighbors, andshe was the first to be sent for intime of trouble."Of course everybody looked to seeher come out in church in that newbonnet; but when Easter morning cameAuna Electa appeared in the old one,and people saw the new one on thehead of Miss Louise Cary, a poor oldsoul who had never had anything veryfine in all her life before. Aunt Electatwinkled and smiled at every one withthe happiest face, and seemed to thinkit was the biggest joke in the word;when Mrs. Waite asked her about itafterward she said that Miss Louisehad asked her to let her try it on, as   | his throat before he continued."Well, somehow or other she got themoney together, and before any of usquite realized it she was off to Prescottto see that boy of hers and his newwife. She was seventy-two then, butshe was as young and sprightly as anyold lady you ever saw.""So's my mother," the youngest mansaid."She was to be gone three months.but in less than in two she was backagain; and, boys, I never saw thatlight of happiness in her face again.What was it. I don't know all; but Imet a man out in my diocese last yearwho used to know Charlle, and he saidthat no decent woman in the placecould speak to Charlie's wife; I guessyou all know what sort she was.""An' him lettin' his mother touchthat kind o' pitch!" said the man inthe striped shirt."After she got home again she wasquieter_than any one had ever seenher, and if you came upon her un-awares you were apt to find her sittingquietly thinking, thinking with herfingers on her lips, as if to hold themquiet. She had never sat idle an hourin her life before, I am sure, but sheno longer seemed interested in littlethings. Her affection for the people in'the town was the same, and even af-ter she became so ill she never forgottheir wedding anniversaries or theirbirthdays; I know more than one inthat village who has a little bundle ofAunt Electa's notes treasured up. Sheused to say, to the very last, that shecould write a few words of affection  |   |
| in hotel or restaurant. City references. Apply Box 697, Star Office.WANTED TO PURCHASE-Gentlemen's cast off clothing, footwear, fucoats, ladies' furs, jewelry, diamondsmusical instruments, guns, revolverstools skates, etc. Call or send postaH. GILBERT, 24 Mill St.EMPLOYMENT WANTED by ex-perienced Nurse. Apply 118 Charlottstreet. 26-4-1mo.WANTED TO PURCHASE-Gen-themen's left off clothing, jewelry, bi-cycles. Highest prices paid. Call orwrite. I. WILLIAMS, 16 Dock St.23-4-3mos.WANTED-A flat of about 7 roomand bath in a central locality. AddressBox 652, Star Office.ILOST-A pearl Rosary with golInks and cross, on Durham streesor between there and Waterloo by waof Main, Mill, Union and WaterlooFinder will confer a favor by iearinat Star Office. 11-5-2LOST-Hand-bag containing fivesix dollars. Please return to MRHOLLAND, 266's Pitt St.10-5-2  | WANTED-Girls to work in cigatfactory. Apply at once to A. S. HART,72 Prince Wm. St. 4-5-tfWANTED IMMEDIATELY-A cook.References required. Apply to MRS.RAYMOND, 159 Germain street.3-5-tfGIRL WANTED-For general house-work. Apply at 51 Hazen Street.26-4-tfWANTED-Coat and vest maker. W.J. HIGGINS AND CO. 26-4-tfSITUATIONS VACANI - MALLWANTED-Boys at Labatt's, WaterStreet. 10-5-6WANTED-At once a boy to learnthe barber business or a young manwith some experience. Apply at onceto J. R. Cameron, 9 Rodney streetWest Side. 10-5-tfWANTED-Clerk for SaturdAy evenings. Well paid. Experienced in bootand shoes preferred. Apply Box 698Star office. 10-5-tfWANTED-A sheet metai worker otinsmith. Apply to JAMES McDADSMill St. 5-5-tfWANTED-16 men for railroad an-other work. Also girls for the countryApply at Grant's Employment Agency73 St. James St. W. E.PALMIST AND ASTROLOGER  | 99 Wright street.       1-3-14.         TO LET—Small flats corner Charlotte         end St. James streets, Daniel Mullin,         Pugsley building.       16-2-tf.         'TO LET.—Steam neated room, central. Apply Box 625, Star Office.       24-2-tf.         TO LET.—Two flats, 8 rooms each.       Seen Tuesday and Friday afternoons.         270 Brittain St.       9-2-tf         TO LET.—Self-contained Flat, eight rooms, 550 Haymarket Square.       29-3'tf.         TO LET.—Store 7 Waterloo St. F. G.       SCOTT.         TO LET.—A self contained flat, 99 El-liott Row, with 9 rooms and bath. Car be seen Tuesday and Thursdays. Apply to R. N. DEAN, Contractor and Builder, 72 St. James street.         TO ROOMS AND BOARDING         FURNISHED Front Room in private family. Modern conveniences. Apply 305 Union street.         7-5-tf         GENTLEMEN can have first class accommodation at 86 Coburg St.         TO LET.—One furnished front room weated. Apply 18 Peters Street.         TO LET.—Large front room, with board. 15 Orange street.         TO LET.—Core furnished front room, with board. 15 Orange street.   | ter-section alongside his homestead.Price $3.00 per acre. DutiesMust re-side six months in each of six yearsfrom date of hemestead entry (includ-ing the time required to cara home-stead patent) and cultivate fifty acresextra.A homesteader who has exhaustedhis homestead right and cannot obtaina pre-emption may take a purchasedhomestead in certain districts. Price$3.00 per acre. DutiesMust residesix months in each of three years, cul-tivate fifty acres and erect a houseworth $300.00.W.W. CORYDeputy of the Minister of the Interior.N. BUnauthorized publication ofthis advertisement will not be paid for.ON AND AFTER SUNDAY, Jan.10th, 1909, trains will run daily (Sun-day excepted), as follows:TRAINS LEAVE ST. JOHN.No. 6-Mixed for Moncton (leavesIsland Yard)         | dressed half an hour before the carriage was ready, and had quite a timedeciding whether her gray shawl orher brown wrap were the more suit-able to wear!"The fat man blew his nose. "Nowain't that just like 'em all?" he askedtenderly."Gee, I wisht I could 'a' seen her!"said the man in the striped shirt."Well," continued the Bishop, "theybought that bonnet, and everybody intown had to call on Aunt Electa to seeit, and they all made her try it on;and from what I heard of it later, Iguess there never was anything in theplace that created as much interest.Even the split in the MethodistChurch only ran it a close second. Foryou see every one in the village lovedher. There were very 'ew who hadnot good reason to. All her life shehad ministered to her neighbors, andshe was the first' to be sent for intime of trouble."Of course everybody looked to seeher come out in church in that newbonnet; but when Easter morning cameAuna Electa appeared in the old one,and people saw the new one on thehead of Miss Louise Cary, a poor oldsoil who had never had anything veryfine in all her life before. Aunt Electatwinkled and smiled at every one withthe happlest face, and seemed to thinkit was the biggest joke in the world;when Mrs. Waite asked her about itafterward she said that Miss Louisehad asked her to let her try it on, as   | his throat before he continued."Well, somehow or other she got themoney together, and before any of usquite realized it she was off to Prescottto see that boy of hers and his newwife. She was seventy-two then, butshe was as young and sprightly as anyold lady you ever saw.""So's my mother," the youngest mansaid."She was to be gone three months.but in less than in two she was backagain; and, boys, I never saw thatlight of happiness in her face again.What was it. I don't know all; but Imet a man out in my diocese last yearwho used to know Charlie, and he saidthat no decent woman in the placecould speak to Charlie's wife; I guessyou all know what sort she was.""An' him lettin' his mother touchthat kind o' pitch!" said the man inthe striped shirt."After she got home again she wasquiety thinking, thinking with herfingers on her lips, as if to hold themquiet. She had never sat idle an hourin her life before, I am sure, but sheno longer seemed interested in littlethings. Her affection for the people in"he town was the same, and even af-ter she became so ill she never forgottheir wedding anniversaries or theirbirthdays; I know more than one inthat village who has a little bundle ofAunt Electa's notes treasured up. Sheused to say, to the very last, that shecould write a few words of affectionor greeting or consolation, if she coulddo no more; and no one ever knew her  | <section-header></section-header>   |
| in hotel or restaurant. City references. Apply Box 697, Star Office.WANTED TO PURCHASE-Gentlemen's cast off clothing, footwear, furents, games, revolversed tools skates, etc. Call or send postale H. GILBERT, 24 Mill St.EMPLOYMENT WANTED by experienced Nurse. Apply 118 Charlott street. 26-4-imo.WANTED TO PURCHASE-Gentlemen's left off clothing, jewelry, bid cycles. Highest prices paid. Call or write. I. WILLIAMS, 16 Dock St. 24-3mos.WANTED-A flat of about 7 room and bath in a central locality. Address Box 652, Star Office.IOST-A pearl Rosary with gold links and cross, on Durham strees or between there and Waterloo by wa of Main, Mill, Union and Waterloo by wa of Main, Mill, Union and Waterloo by its toolars. Please return to MR HOLLAND, 266½ Pitt St.IOST-Hand-bag containing five of six dollars. Please return to MR HOLLAND, 266½ Pitt St.IOST-Purse containing small su of money on Charlotte or Union Splease return to Star office.FULL SETS4.00   | WANTED-Girls to work in cigatfactory, Apply at once to A. S. HART,72 Prince Wm. St. 4-5-tfWANTED IMMEDIATELY-A cock.References required. Apply to MRS.RAYMOND, 159 Germain street.3-5-tfGIRL WANTED-For general house-work. Apply at 51 Hazen Street.26-4-tfWANTED-Coat and vest maker. W.J. HIGGINS AND CO. 26-4-tfSITUATIONS VACANI — MALLWANTED-Boys at Labatt's, WaterStreet. 10-5-6WANTED-At once a boy to learnthe barber business or a young manwith some experience. Apply at onceto J. R. Cameron, 9 Rodney streetWest Side. 10-5-tfWANTED-Clerk for SaturdAy evenings. Well paid. Experienced in bootand shoes preferred. Apply Box 695Star office. 10-5-tfWANTED-A sheet metai worker oftinsmith. Apply to JAMES McDADEMill St. 5-5-tfWANTED-16 men for railroad andother work. Also girls for the countryApply at Grant's Employment Agency73 St. James St., W. E.PALMIST AND ASTROLOGERWill tell you what is still awaltinyou in your future. PROF. A. SGACKLEWICZ, 286 Germain St., frot  | 99 Wright street.13-24,TO LET—Small flats corner Charlotteend St. James streets, Daniel Mullin,Pugsley building.16-2-tf.TO LET.—Steam neated room, cen-tial. Apply Box 625, Star Office,24-2-tf.TO LET.—Two flats, 8 rooms each.Seen Tuesday and Friday afternoons.270 Brittain St.9-2-tfTO LET.—Self-contained Flat, eightrooms, 350 Haymarket Square.29-2-tf.TO LET.—Self-contained flat, 99 El-liott Row, with 9 rooms and bath. Canbe seen Tuesday and Thursdays. Applyto R. N. DEAN, Contractor and Build-er, 72 St. James street.FURNISHED Front Room in privatefamily. Modern conveniences. Apply305 Union street.7-5-tfGENTLEMEN can have first classaccommodation at 86 Coburg St.17-4-1 mo.TO LET.—Large front room, withboard. 15 Orange street.28-1.29.20.20.20.20.20.20.20.20   | ter-section alongside his homestead.Price $3.00 per acre. DutiesMust re-side six months in each of six yearsfrom date of hemestead entry (includ-ing the time required to cara home-stead patent) and cultivate fifty acresextra.A homesteader who has exhaustedhis homestead right and cannot obtaina pre-emption may take a purchasedhomestead in certain districts. Price$3.00 per acre. DutiesMust residesix months in each of three years, cul-tivate fifty acres and erect a houseworth $300.00.W.W. CORYDeputy of the Minister of the Interior.N. BUnauthorized publication ofthis advertisement will not be paid for.ON AND AFTER SUNDAY, Jan.10th, 1909, trains will run daily (Sun-day excepted), as follows:TRAINS LEAVE ST. JOHN.No. 6Mixed for Moncton (leavesIsland Yard)          | dressed half an hour before the carriage was ready, and had quite a timedeciding whether her gray shawl orher brown wrap were the more suit-able to wear!"The fat man blew his nose. "Nowain't that just like 'em all?" he askedtenderly."Gee, I wisht I could 'a' seen her!"said the man in the striped shirt."Well," continued the Bishop, "theybought that bonnet, and everybody intown had to call on Aunt Electa to seeit, and they all made her try it on;and from what I heard of it later, Iguess there never was anything in theplace that created as much interest.Even the split in the MethodistChurch only ran it a close second. Foryou see every one in the village lovedher. There were very 'ew who hadnot good reason to. All her life shehad ministered to her neighbors, andshe was the first to be sent for intime of trouble."Of course everybody looked to seeher come out in church in that newbonnet; but when Easter morning cameAuna Electa appeared in the old one,and people saw the new one on thehead of Miss Louise Cary, a poor oldsoul who had never had anything veryfine in all her life before. Aunt Electatwinkled and smiled at every one withthe happlest face, and seemed to thinkit was the biggest joke in the world;when Mrs. Waite asked her about itafterward she said that Miss Louisehad asked her to let her try it on, as  | his throat before he continued."Well, somehow or other she got themoney together, and before any of usquite realized it she was off to Prescottto see that boy of hers and his newwife. She was seventy-two then, butshe was as young and sprightly as anyold lady you ever saw.""So's my mother," the youngest mansaid."She was to be gone three months,but in less than in two she was backagain; and, boys, I never saw thatlight of happiness in her face again.What was it. I don't know all; but Imet a man out in my diocese last yearwho used to know Charlie, and he saidthat no decent woman in the placecould speak to Charlie's wife; I guessyou all know what sort she was.""An' him lettin' his mother touchthat kind o' pitch!" said the man inthe striped shirt."After she got home again she wasquieter_than any one had ever seenher, and if you came upon her un-awares you were apt to find her sittingquietly thinking, thinking with herfingers on her lips, as if to hold themquiet. She had never sat idle an hourin her life before, I am sure, but sheno longer seemed interested in littlethings. Her affection for the people inthe town was the same, and even af-ter she became so ill she never forgottheir wedding anniversaries or theirbirthdays; I know more than one inthat village who has a little bundle ofAunt Electa's notes treasured up. Sheused to say, to the very last, that shecould write a few words of affectionor greeting or consolation, if she coulddo no more; and no one ever knew hertto forget. And you may be sure thaton her birthday and Christmas and St.Valentine's Day people did not forget   | <section-header></section-header>   |
| in hotel or restaurant. City references. Apply Box 697, Star Office.WANTED TO PURCHASE-Gentling rootwar, furenders, ladies' furs, jewelry, diamonds musical instruments, guns, revolver tools skates, etc. Call or send postal H. GILBERT, 24 Mill St.TEMPLOYMENT WANTED by experienced Nurse. Apply 118 Charlott street. 26.4-1mo.WANTED TO PURCHASE-Gent temen's left off clothing, jewelry, bid cycles. Highest prices paid. Call or write. I. WILLIAMS, 16 Dock St. 23-4-3mos.WANTED-A flat of about 7 room and bath in a central locality. Address Box 652, Star Office.LOST-A pearl Rosary with gold links and cross, on Durham streed or between there and Waterloo by ward of Main, Mill, Union and Waterloo Finder will confer a favor by leaving at Star Office.LOST-Hand-bag containing five of six dollars. Please return to MR HOLLAND, 2663 Pitt St.IOST-Purse containing small su of money on Charlotte or Union Splease return to MR HOLLAND, 2664 Pitt St.Stat. Star Office. 10-5-2FULL Star Office in the start of the strate without paid, We fit teeth with renders the extraction of teeth abbring the start of the start office in the start office in the start office. 10-5-2   | WANTED-Girls to work in cigatfactory, Apply at once to A. S. HART,72 Prince Wm. St. 4-5-tfWANTED IMMEDIATELY-A cock.References required. Apply to MRS.RAYMOND, 159 Germain street.3-5-tfGIRL WANTED-For general house-work. Apply at 51 Hazen Street.26-4-tfWANTED-Coat and vest maker. W.J. HIGGINS AND CO. 26-4-tfSITUATIONS VACANI — MALLWANTED-Boys at Labatt's, WaterStreet. 10-5-6WANTED-At once a boy to learnthe barber business or a young manwith some experience. Apply at onceto J. R. Cameron, 9 Rodney streetWest Side. 10-5-tfWANTED-Clerk for Saturdky evenings. Well paid. Experienced in bootand shoes preferred. Apply Box 685Star office. 10-5-tfWANTED-A sheet metal worker oftinsmith. Apply to JAMES McDADSMill St. 5-5-tfWANTED-16 men for railroad andother work. Also girls for the countryApply at Grant's Employment Agency73 St. James St., W. E.PALMIST AND ASTROLOGERWill tell you what is still awaltinyou in your future. PROF. A. SGACKLEWICZ, 286 Germain St., frot6 p. m. till 10 p. m. Fee 50c.  | 99 Wright street.13-24.TO LET—Small flats corner Charlottsand St. James streets, Daniel Mullin,Pugsley building.16-2-tf.TO LET.—Steam neated room, cen-tial. Apply Box 625, Star Office,24-2-tf.TO LET.—Two flats, 8 rooms each.Seen Tuesday and Friday afternoons.270 Brittain St.9-2-tf.TO LET.—Self-contained Flat, eightrooms, 350 Haymarket Square.29-2-tf.TO LET.—Self-contained flat, 99 El-liott Row, with 3 rooms and bath. Canbe seen Tuesday and Thursdays. Applyto R. N. DEAN, Contractor and Build-er, 72 St. James street.FURNISHED Front Room in privatefamily. Modern conveniences. Apply305 Union street.TO LET.—One furnished front roomsweated. Apply 18 Peters Street.TO LET.—Large front room, withboard. 15 Orange street.28-14.TO LET.—Large front room, withboard. 15 Orange street.28-14.TO LET.—Large front room, withTO LET.—Large front room, withTO LET. —Large front room, withTO  | ter-section alongside his homestead.Price $3.00 per acre. DutiesMust re-side six months in each of six yearsfrom date of hemestead entry (includ-ing the time required to cara home-stead patent) and cultivate fifty acresextra.A homesteader who has exhaustedhis homestead right and cannot obtaina pre-emption may take a purchasedhomestead in certain districts. Price$3.00 per acre. DutiesMust residesix months in each of three years, cul-tivate fifty acres and erect a houseworth $300.00.W. W. CORYDeputy of the Minister of the Interior.N. BUnauthorized publication ofthis advertisement will not be paid for.ON AND AFTER SUNDAY, Jan.10th, 1909, trains will run daily (Sun-day excepted), as follows:TRAINS LEAVE ST. JOHN.No. 6Mixed for Moncton (leavesIsland Yard)         | dressed half an hour before the children in the attime deciding whether her gray shawl or her brown wrap were the more suitable to wear!" The fat man blew his nose. "Now ain't that just like 'em all?" he asked tenderly. "Gee, I wisht I could 'a' seen her!" said the man in the striped shirt. "Well," continued the Bishop, "they bought that bonnet, and everybody in town had to call on Aunt Electa to see it, and they all made her try it on; and from what I heard of it later, I guess there never was anything in the place that created as much interest. Even the split in the Methodist Church only ran it a close second. For you see every one in the village loved her. There were very 'ew who had not good reason to. All her life she had ministered to her neighbors, and she was the first to be sent for in time of trouble. "Of course everybody looked to see her come out in church in that new bonnet; but when Easter morning came Auna Electa appeared in the old one, and people saw the new one on the head of Miss Louise Cary, a poor old soul who had never had anything very fine in all her life before. Aunt Electa the happlest face, and seemed to think it was the biggest joke in the world; when Mrs. Waite asked her about it afterward she said that Miss Louise had asked her to let her try it on, as the Discelekers' EXCURSIONS .  | <ul> <li>his throat before he continued.</li> <li>"Well, somehow or other she got the money together, and before any of us quite realized it she was off to Prescott to see that boy of hers and his new wife. She was seventy-two then, but she was as young and sprightly as any old lady you ever saw."</li> <li>"So's my mother," the youngest man said.</li> <li>"She was to be gone three months. but in less than in two she was back again; and, boys, I never saw that light of happiness in her face again. What was it. I don't know all; but I met a man out in my diocese last year who used to know Charlle, and he said that no decent woman in the place could speak to Charlie's wife; I guess you all know what sort she was."</li> <li>"An' him lettin' his mother touch that kind o' pitch!" said the man in the striped shirt.</li> <li>"After she got home again she was quieter_than any one had ever seen her, and if you came upon her unawares you were apt to find her sitting quietly thinking, thinking with her fingers on her lips, as if to hold them quiet. She had never sat idle an hour in her life before, I am sure, but she ho longer seemed interested in little things. Her affection for the people in 'the town was the same, and even after she became so ill she never forgot their wedding anniversaries or their birthdays; I know more than one in that village who has a little bundle of Aunt Electa's notes treasured up. She used to say, to the very last, that she could write a few words of affection or greeting or consolation, if she could do no more; and no one ever knew her to forget. And you may be sure that on her birthday and Christmas and St. Valentine's Day people did not forget her, ither; there was only one who forgot, and that was the one she loved best.</li> </ul>   | <section-header></section-header>   |
| in hotel or restaurant. City references. Apply Box 697, Star Office.WANTED TO PURCHASE-Gentlingroats, ladies' furs, jewelry, diamondsinusical instruments, guns, revolvertools skates, etc. Call or send postalH. GILBERT, 24 Mill St.TEMPLOYMENT WANTED by ex-preinced Nurse. Apply 118 Charlottstreet. 264-1mo.WANTED TO PURCHASE-Gentlemen's left off clothing, jewelry, bi-cycles. Highest prices paid. Call orwrite. I. WILLIAMS, 16 Dock St.234-3mos.WANTED-A flat of about 7 roomand bath in a central locality. AddressBox 652, Star Office.LOST-A pearl Rosary with goldHinks and cross, on Durham streedor between there and Waterloo by waiof Main, Mill, Union and WaterlooFinder will confer a favor by leavingat Star Office. 11-5-2LOST-Hand-bag containing five ofsix dollars. Please return to MRRHOLLAND, 266's Pitt St.10-5-2FULLSETS4.00We have a scientific formula withrenders the extraction of teeth abouttuely without paia. We fit teeth withoutplates and if you desire, we conby a new method, do this work without plates and if you desire, we conby a new method, do this work withthe size of gold crow   | WANTED-Girls to work in cigatfactory, Apply at once to A. S. HART,72 Prince Wm. St. 4-5-tfWANTED IMMEDIATELY-A cock.References required. Apply to MRS.RAYMOND, 159 Germain street.3-5-tfGIRL WANTED-For general house-work. Apply at 51 Hazen Street.264-tfWANTED-Coat and vest maker. W.J. HIGGINS AND CO. 26-4-tfSITUATIONS VACANI — MALEWANTED-Boys at Labatt's, WaterStreet. 10-5-6WANTED-At once a boy to learnthe barber business or a young manwith some experience. Apply at onceto J. R. Cameron, 9 Rodney streetWest Side. 10-5-tfWANTED-Clerk for Saturdky evenings. Well paid. Experienced in bootand shoes preferred. Apply Box 668Star office. 10-5-tfWANTED-A sheet metai worker otinsmith. Apply to JAMES McDADEMill St. 5-5-tfCARPENTERS WANTED Appl.R. N. DEAN, St. James St. 5-5-tfWANTED-I6 men for railroad amoother work. Also girls for the countryApply at Grant's Employment Agency73 St. James St., W. E.PALMIST AND ASTROLOGERWill tell you what is still awaitinyou in your future. PROF. A. SGACKIEWICZ, 286 Germain St., from6 p. m. till 10 p. m. Fee 50c.THE CLASS IN ARITHMETIC.Teacher-Johnny, how do you add   | 99 Wright street.TO LET—Small flats corner Charlotteend St. James streets, Daniel Mullin,Pugsley building.16-2-tf.TO LET.—Steam neated room, cen-tial. Apply Box 625, Star Office,24-2-tf.TO LET.—Two flats, 8 rooms each.Seen Tuesday and Friday afternoons.270 Brittain St.9-2-tfTO LET.—Self-contained Flat, eightrooms, 350 Haymarket Square.29-2-tf.TO LET.—Self-contained flat, 99 El-liott Row, with 9 rooms and bath. Canbe seen Tuesday and Thursdays. Applyto R. N. DEAN, Contractor and Build-er, 72 St. James street.To LET.—Isoner Street.16-2-tf.ROOMS AND BOARDINGFURNISHED Front Room in privatorfamily. Modern conveniences. Apply305 Union street.TO LET.—One furnished front roomsweated. Apply 18 Peters Street.TO LET.—Large front room, withboard. 15 Orange street.28-1-t29.By the Large, Fast and LuxuriousBy the Large, Fast and LuxuriousTwin-Screw Express and PassengerSteamabiles of the  | ter-section alongside his homestead.Price $3.00 per acre. DutiesMust re-side six months in each of six yearsfrom date of homestead entry (includ-ing the time required to carn home-stead patent) and cultivate fifty acresextra.A homesteader who has exhaustedhis homestead right and cannot obtaina pre-emption may take a purchasedhomestead in certain districts. Price$3.00 per acre. DutiesMust residesix months in each of three years, cul-tivate fifty acres and erect a houseworth $300.00.W. W. CORYDeputy of the Minister of the Interior.N. BUnauthorized publication ofthis advertisement will not be paid for.ON AND AFTER SUNDAY, Jan.10th, 1909, trains will run dæily (Sun-day excepted), as follows:TRAINS LEAVE ST. JOHN.No. 6Mixed for Moncton (leavesIsland Yard)         | dressed half an hour before the charriage was ready, and had quite a timedeciding whether her gray shawl orher brown wrap were the more suit-able to wear!"The fat man blew his nose. "Nowain't that just like 'em all?" he askedtenderly."Gee, I wisht I could 'a' seen her!"said the man in the striped shirt."Well," continued the Bishop, "theybought that bonnet, and everybody intown had to call on Aunt Electa to seeit, and they all made her try it on;and from what I heard of it later, Iguess there never was anything in theplace that created as much interest.Even the split in the MethodistChurch only ran it a close second. Foryou see every one in the village lovedher. There were very 'ew who hadnot good reason to. All her life shehad ministered to her neighbors, andshe was the first' to be sent for intime of trouble."Of course everybody looked to seeher come out in church in that newbonnet; but when Easter morning cameAuna Electa appeared in the old one,and people say the new one on thehead of Miss Louise Cary, a poor oldsoul who had never had anything veryfine in all her life before. Aunt Electatwinkled and smiled at every one withthe happlest face, and seemed to thinkit was the biggest joke in the world;when Mrs. Waite asked her about itafterward she said that Miss Louisehad asked her to let her try it on, asand asked her to let her try it on, asand asked her to let her try it on, asand asked her to let her try it on, asand asked her to let her try it on, asand asked her to let her try it on, asand asked her to let her try it on, asand asked her to let her try it on, asand asked her to let her try it on, asand asked her to let her try it on, asand asked her to let her try it on, asand asked her to let her try it on, asand asked her to let her try it on, asand asked her to let her try it on, asand asked her to let her try it on, asand asked her to let her try it on, asand asked her to let her try it on, asand asked her to let her try it on, asand asked her to le | his throat before he continued."Well, somehow or other she got themoney together, and before any of usquite realized it she was off to Prescottto see that boy of hers and his newwife. She was seventy-two then, butshe was as young and sprightly as anyold lady you ever saw.""So's my mother," the youngest mansaid."She was to be gone three months.but in less than in two she was backagain; and, boys, I never saw thatlight of happiness in her face again.What was it. I don't know all; but Imet a man out in my diocese last yearwho used to know Charlle, and he saidthat no decent woman in the placecould speak to Charlie's wife; I guessyou all know what sort she was.""An' him lettin' his mother touchthat kind o' pitch!" said the man inthe striped shirt."After she got home again she wasquieter_than any one had ever seenher, and if you came upon her un-awares you were apt to find her sittingquietly thinking, thinking with herfingers on her lips, as if to hold themquiet. She had never sat idle an hourin her life before, I am sure, but sheno longer seemed interested in littlethings. Her affection for the people in'the town was the same, and even af-ter she became so ill she never forgottheir wedding anniversaries or theirbirthdays; I know more than one inthat village who has a little bundle ofAunt Eleeta's notes treasured up. Sheused to say, to the very last, that shecould write a few words of affectionor greeting or consolation, if she coulddo no more; and no one ever knew herto forget. And you may be sure thaton her birthday and Christmas and St.Valentine's Day people did not forgether, either; there was only one whoforgot, and that was the one she loved  | <text></text>   |
| in hotel or restaurant. City references. Apply Box 697, Star Office.WANTED TO PURCHASE-Gentlemen's cast off clothing, footwear, fucoats, ladies' furs, jewelry, diamondsmusical instruments, guns, revolverstools skates, etc. Call or send postaH. GILBERT, 24 Mill St.EMPLOYMENT WANTED by ex-perienced Nurse. Apply 118 Charlottstreet. 26-4-imo.WANTED TO PURCHASE-Genttemen's left off clothing, jewelry, bi-cycles. Highest prices paid. Call orwrite. I. WILLIAMS, 16 Dock St.23-4-3mos.WANTED-A flat of about 7 roomand bath in a central locality. AddressBox 652, Star Office.IOST-A pearl Rosary with gollinks and cross, on Durham streesor between there and Waterloo by waof Main, Mill, Union and Waterloopinder will confer a favor by learnat Star Office. 11-5-2LOST-Hand-bag containing five ofsix dollars. Please return to MRHOLLAND, 266½ Pitt St.10-5-2LOST-Purse containing small suof money on Charlotte or Union Seplease return to Star office. 10-5-2FULLSETS4.00We have a scientific formula whi-renders the extraction of teeth abi-lutely without pain. We fit teeth withutely without pain. We fit teeth withutely without pain. We fit teeth withtrenders and if you desire, we con-star balan. We fit teeth withtrenders and if you desire, we con-star balan. We fit teeth withtrenders and if you desire, we con-star balan. We fit teeth withtrenders we contain the star we fit teeth withtrenders we contain the teeth withtrenders we contain the star we fit teeth withthe poly without pain. We fit teeth withthe poly of the star we fit teeth withthe poly of the star we fit teeth withthe poly without pain. We fit teeth | WANTED-Girls to work in cigatfactory. Apply at once to A. S. HART,72 Prince Wm. St. 4-5-tfWANTED IMMEDIATELY-A cook.References required. Apply to MRS.RAYMOND, 159 Germain street.3-5-tfGIRL WANTED-For general house-work. Apply at 51 Hazen Street.26-4-tfWANTED-Coat and vest maker. W.J. HIGGINS AND CO. 26-4-tfSITUATIONS VACANI — MALLWANTED-Boys at Labatt's, WaterStreet. 10-5-6WANTED-At once a boy to learnthe barber business or a young manwith some experience. Apply at onceto J. R. Cameron, 9 Rodney streetWest Side. 10-5-tfWANTED-Clerk for Saturday evenings. Well paid. Experienced in bootand shoes preferred. Apply Box 698Star office. 10-5-tfWANTED-A sheet metai worker otinsmith, Apply to JAMES McDADEMill St. 5-5-tfCARPENTERS WANTED ApplyR. N. DEAN, St. James St. 5-5-tfWANTED-I6 men for railroad andother work. Also girls for the countryApply at Grant's Employment Agency73 St. James St., W. E.PALMIST AND ASTRULOGERWill tell you what is still awaltinyou in your future. PROF. A. SGACKIEWICZ, 286 Germain St., fror6 p. m. till 10 p. m. Fee 50c.THE CLASS IN ARITHMETIC.Teacher-Johnny, how do you addcolumn of figures?Johnny (promptly)-Lengthways. | 99 Wright street.TO LET-Small flats corner Charlottsand St. James streets, Daniel Mullin,Pugsley building.16-2-tf.TO LETSteam neated room, cen-tral. Apply Box 625, Star Office,24-2-tf.TO LETTwo flats, 8 rooms each.Seen Tuesday and Friday afternoons.270 Brittain St.9-2-tfTO LETSelf-contained Flat, eightrooms, 350 Haymarket Square.29-2-tf.TO LETSelf-contained flat, 99 El-liott Row, with 9 rooms and bath. Canbe seen Tuesday and Thursdays. Applyto R. N. DEAN, Contractor and Build-er, 72 St. James street.FURNISHED Front Room in privatofamily. Modern conveniences. Apply305 Union street.7-5-tfGENTLEMEN can have first classaccommodation at 86 Coburg St.17-4-1 mo.TO LETLarge front room, withboard. 15 Orange street.28-1-t16-2-tf.TO LETLarge front room, withboard. 15 Orange street.28-1-t29.By the Large, Fast and LuxuriousBy the Large, Fast and PassengerSteamablis of the   | ter-section alongside his homestead.Price $3.00 per acre. DutiesMust re-side six months in each of six yearsfrom date of homestead entry (includ-ing the time required to carn home-stead patent) and cultivate fifty acresextra.A homesteader who has exhaustedhis homestead right and cannot obtaina pre-emption may take a purchasedhomestead in certain districts. Price$3.00 per acre. DutiesMust residesix months in each of three years, cul-tivate fifty acres and erect a houseworth $300.00.W.W. CORYDeputy of the Minister of the Interior.N. BUnauthorized publication ofthis advertisement will not be paid for.ON AND AFTER SUNDAY, Jan.10th, 1909, trains will run daily (Sun-day excepted), as follows:TRAINS LEAVE ST. JOHN.No. 6-Mixed for Moncton (leavesIsland Yard)         | dressed half an hour before the carriage was ready, and had quite a timedeciding whether her gray shawl orher brown wrap were the more suit-able to wear!"The fat man blew his nose. "Nowain't that just like 'em all?" he askedtenderly."Gee, I wisht I could 'a' seen her!"said the man in the striped shirt."Well," continued the Bishop, "theybought that bonnet, and everybody intown had to call on Aunt Electa to seeit, and they all made her try it on;and from what I heard of it later, Iguess there never was anything in theplace that created as much interest.Even the split in the MethodistChurch only ran it a close second. Foryou see every one in the village lovedher. There were very 'ew who hadnot good reason to. All her life shehad ministered to her neighbors, andshe was the first to be sent for intime of trouble."Of course everybody looked to seeher come out in church in that newbonet; but when Easter morning cameAuna Electa appeared in the old one,and people saw the new one on thehead of Miss Louise Cary, a poor oldsoil who had never had anything veryfine in all her life before. Aunt Electatwinkled and smiled at every one withthe happlest face, and seemed to thinkit was the biggest joke in the world;when Mrs. Waite asked her about itafterward she said that Miss Louisehad asked her to let her try it on, asExecond Class RoundThe The test isto be a fine to let her try it on, asSecond Class RoundThe The test is usedto be a fine to be ther try it on, asBat John, N. B.To   | <ul> <li>his throat before he continued.</li> <li>"Well, somehow or other she got the money together, and before any of us quite realized it she was off to Prescott to see that boy of hers and his new wife. She was seventy-two then, but she was as young and sprightly as any old lady you ever saw."</li> <li>"So's my mother," the youngest man said.</li> <li>"She was to be gone three months. but in less than in two she was back again; and, boys, I never saw that light of happiness in her face again. What was it. I don't know all; but I met a man out in my diocese last year who used to know Charlle, and he said that no decent woman in the place could speak to Charlie's wife; I guess you all know what sort she was."</li> <li>"An' him lettin' his mother touch that kind o' pitch!" said the man in the striped shirt.</li> <li>"After she got home again she was quieter_than any one had ever seen her, and if you came upon her unawares you were apt to find her sitting quietly thinking, thinking with her fingers on her lips, as if to hold them quiet. She had never sat idle an hour in her life before, I am sure, but she ho longer seemed interested in little things. Her affection for the people in 'the town was the same, and even after she became so ill she never forgot their wedding anniversaries or their birthdays; I know more than one in that village who has a little bundle of Aunt Electa's notes treasured up. She used to say, to the very last, that she could write a few words of affection or greeting or consolation, if she could do no more; and no one ever knew her to forget. And you may be sure that on her birthday and Christmas and St. Valentine's Day people did not forget her, ither; there was only one who forgot, and that was the one she loved best.</li> </ul>   | <section-header></section-header>   |

