of Mr. Ministry, a grave practical object

It is doubtless that the deliberations of the Executive should not be made public, and that the responsibility, which should be placed upon a political officer, will be the more weighty, inasmuch as the Government of the nation is so much interested in Canada, and the Government of Canada is so much interested in the Empire. It is, therefore, possibly the best arrangement that can be made, that the members should be sworn to secrecy.

8.—For this reason, I have no objection to the Government, which leaves Council members, and the Executive officers to be sworn to secrecy.

Members of that body will have the honor
