Put in To Sheburne.

The Royal Mail Steam Packet Chae-in the gale off the Nova Scotian coast yesterday, put into Sheburne Saturday morning under her own steam and undamaged. The steamer, which was bound from St. John to Halifax, with light cargo, encountered extremely heavy weather. Captain Hill reported to his agents at Halifax. A portion of a lumber deckload was lost in the fire during the storm in order to conserve the fuel supply, but when the steamer entered Sheburne harbor only a few tons of coal were left in the bunkers. The Chaeleur will take coal at Sheburne and resume her journey to Halifax.

Wrecked On Sable Island.

The Greek steamer Platas, disabled in the gale which has lashed the north Atlantic during the past week, was driven ashore on the north end of Sable Island, and will likely prove a total loss. Her crew of thirty men were taken off by the life saving department maintained on the island.
Wireless messages received at Halifax from Sable Island Saturday morning by the marine and fisheries department did not state when the Platas was driven ashore. The government steamer Arammore will sail from Nova Scotia this week to bring the shipwrecked crew to Halifax.

The Platas, which is a ship of 1,200 tons was bound from Athens to an American port.
