

DIGBY.—£20 5. This though less than the remittance of last year, is under the circumstances, highly creditable to the Churchmen of that mission.

GRANVILLE.—£17 5.

LUNENBURGH.—The sum received from this Mission amounts to £25; and the Rev. Mr. Cochran in transmitting it assures us, that if the good wishes of his people could only be converted into cash, we should have nothing to complain of in regard to funds.

ST. CLEMENT'S.—£9.

GUYSBORO'.—£18 0 4½.

YARMOUTH.—£31. This is the largest subscription yet sent forward by the people of this Mission, and reflects credit alike upon the Missionary and the people of his charge.

NEWPORT.—£10 4 4½ same as last year.

SHELBURNE.—£21 15 2½ inclusive of £5 remitted through the Bishop by the Rev. Dr. Rowland.

PICTOU.—£16 8 9. A sum exceeding the amount remitted last year, and has, the Missionary informs us, been very cheerfully contributed, notwithstanding the depression of trade and the large sum which the Parishioners have subscribed towards the enlargement of their Church.

From TRURO—Has been received £14, inclusive of £4 subscribed by Mr. Leaver to the College.

SACKVILLE.—£9 0 7½.

WEYMOUTH.—£8 10.

WINDSOR.—£21 0 2.

MARGARET'S BAY.—£10, which is highly praiseworthy, considering the many local objects which the Parishioners have on hand.

From LIVERPOOL—Has been received the liberal sum of £32 10, the largest subscription received from any local Branch this year, and most gratifying to the feelings of their devoted Pastor.

EASTERN SHORE.—From this place the Rev. Mr. Jamieson has again sent forward £23 as a contribution from his honest hearted fishermen and sailors. This tho' in appearance smaller, is in reality
