The father of the young man it is stated has made good the amount.

Windsor, N. B., Jan. 24.—The death of Mrs. Henry Johnson was a sad blow to the community. She was ill with pneumonia but one week and died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James W. Cochran. The funeral on Tuesday afternoon was one of the largest in the history of Windsor. Mrs. Johnson's life needs no words of commendation. Speech adds nothing to such a character as hers. The members of the family have the profound sympathy of all in the community.

Victoria, B. C., Jan. 23.—(Special)—Steamer Victoria brings news of the loss on December 27, of the German steamer Sulsting, on the Yang Tze, just above Yehane, when on her first voyage from Chung King, with twenty-eight foreign passengers, mostly missionaries, on board. Captain Breitgus, and a number of Chinese, who swamped the boats in their fight, were drowned. The foreigners, excepting Captain Breitgus, who remained at his post and was engulfed by the lowering up of the vessel, were saved.

Bellefleur Bay, Jan. 23.—On Thursday, Jan. 17, an enjoyable evening was spent at the residence of Mr. Daniel P. Williger, the guest being a surprise party given in honor of Mrs. Phoebe Campbell. About 20 guests were present. The tables were beautifully decorated. Music was furnished by Mrs. Campbell, Miss Pickett, Mr. Geo. Bond, Mrs. Robert Edgar, and Miss Judith Reicher. Selections by Mr. Stella Sprague, on gramophone were enjoyed by all. The big esteem in which Mrs. Campbell is held was shown by the presentation to her of a purse of $25.00 and a handsome cup and saucer. Speeches were delivered by Mr. John McAuley and Mr. Alex. Merril, who thanked the people in behalf of Mrs. Campbell for their kindness.

Toronto, Jan. 23.—(Special)—Discord has arisen in civic circles over the proposed memorial service to be held on the day of the Queen's funeral, which Mayor Howland and the board in control thought should be held in St. James' Cathedral and attended by the city council in a body. The Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist denominations are stronger numerically in the city than the Church of England and a deputation of clergymen waited on the mayor tonight, urging that the service be held in some public building; that as if the service is held in the Cathedral only the Anglican could participate. The mayor promised the deputation that the matter would be brought up at the board of control tomorrow.

Amherst, N. S., Jan. 23.—(Special)—Daniel McKenzie, miner at Joggins Mines met with a tragic death yesterday afternoon. While other miners he was awaiting at the bottom of the pit to be hauled to the surface. Some rocks fell with coal were about to be hauled up and it is said, instead of waiting for the empty makes to go up, he jumped on one of the full pikes.

When reaching the top of the slope he was thrown between the cars and his body terribly mangled, death being instantaneous. It is supposed that on hearing the top of the slope he mislaid his head and thus came by his death.

The deceased was 47 years of age, unmarried and lived with his mother. He was a prominent Old Fellow and Orange man.

SOMETHING OF THE BUSY LIFE OF OUR LATE BELOVED QUEEN.

Her Family History—Her Marriage—Succession to the Throne of Britain—Death of the Prince Consort—Political Changes—Volumes Published by Her Majesty.

Victoria Alexandrina (Queen of Great Britain and Ireland and Empress of India), only child of the late Duke of Kent and of the Princess Louisa—Victoria of Saxe-Coburg relict of the Hereditary Prince of Leiningen and sister of Leopold, Prince of Saxe-Coburg, afterwards King of the Belgians, was born at Kensington Palace, May 24, 1819. Her parents who had been for some time residing abroad, having hastened to England in order that their child might "be born a Briton."

The Duke of Kent died January 29, 1820, and the general education of the young princess was directed under her mother's care, by the Duchess of Northumberland, of the third Duke. Until within a few weeks of her elevation to the throne, her life was spent in comparative retirement, varied by tours through different parts of the United Kingdom. Queen Victoria succeeded her uncle, William IV., June 20, 1837, as Victoria I., and her coronation was celebrated in Westminster Abbey, June 28, 1838.

Her Majesty was married February 10, 1840, to his late Royal Highness, Prince Albert of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, by whom Her Majesty had issue (1), Her Royal Highness Victoria Adelaide Mary Louise, Princess Royal, born November 21, 1840; married January 25, 1858 to H. R. H. the Crown Prince Frederick-William of Prussia (He died June 15, 1887); (2), H. R. H. Albert Edward Prince of Wales, born November 9, 1841; married March 10, 1863, the Princess Alexandra of Denmark; (3), H. R. H. Princess Alice Maud Mary, born April 15, 1843; married July 1, 1862, to Prince Louis of Hesse-Darmstadt; (4), H. R. H. Prince Alfred Ernest Albert, born August 6, 1844; created Duke of Edinburgh, May 24, 1866; married January 23, 1874, the Princess Louise, Duchess of Argyll; (5), the present Emperor of Russia; died July 30, 1900; (6), H. R. H. Princess Helena Augusta Victoria, born May 28, 1846; married July 5, 1869, to Prince Christian of Schleswig-Holstein; (6), H. R. H. Princess Louise Caroline Alberta, born March 18, 1848; married to the Marquis of Lorne (Duke of Argyll), March 21, 1871; (7), H. R. H. Prince Arthur William Patrick Albert, Duke of Connaught and Strathearn, born April 7, 1850; married March 19, 1873, the Princess Louise Margaret Alexandra Victoria Agnes, third daughter of Prince Frederick Charles of Prussia; (8), H. R. H. Prince Leopold George Duncan Albert, Duke of Albany; born April 7, 1853; married April 2, 1882, the Princess Helen of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, daughter of the Prince of Wied and Pyrmont; (9), H. R. H. Princess Beatrice Mary Victoria Flore, born April 14, 1857; married July 23, 1885, the Prince of Monaco; (10), the first domestic grief which Her Majesty suffered was the loss of her mother, the Duchess of Kent, after a short illness, March 16, 1801, followed by the sudden death of the Prince Consort, to the great grief of the entire kingdom, December 14, in the same year.

Her Majesty's intense sorrow for her irreparable loss, although it had in a great degree disqualified her from appearing in public and at court ceremonies, and had imposed on her the labors of life of comparative seclusion had, however, never been allowed by her to interfere with the performance of her imperial duties as sovereign. Neither had it checked the ex-

KINGS COUNTY LIST. HER MAJESTY'S WISH

Application Before Chief Justice to Quash.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Brought the Subject Before an Informal Meeting of the Executive at Fredericton—Interviewed on the Result of His Inquiry Into the Matter of the List.

Within sight of Windsor Castle, in the grounds of Frogmore House, stands the royal mausoleum built by Queen Victoria for the Prince Consort's burial place. In the house close by her mother, the Duchess of Kent, lived till her death, a few months before that of Prince Albert. She, too, rests in a mausoleum at Frogmore.

The building erected by the Queen for her husband's tomb is one of the most beautiful of its kind. Its interior is decorated in the Italian style, with exceeding richness, colored marbles, white statuary, marble, bronze ornamentation and mosaics, all being of the costliest description. The Queen shrank from the thought of her beloved Albert, who was by nature bright and joyous, resting in the dark crypt beneath St. George's Chapel, which George III. had designed for the tombs of his family.

Several years were spent by the Queen in elaborating the details of the splendid mausoleum. It has been guarded with absolute privacy. On the anniversary of the Prince Consort's death year by year by members of the royal family gathered in seclusion around the massive sarcophagus under the octagonal lantern crowning the building.

The touching inscription indicates the Queen's wish to be laid to rest with her husband: "Here we rest I shall rest with thee; with thee in Christ shall rise again."

The royal burial place for the sovereigns of Britain is in St. George's Chapel, Windsor, where the original Wolsey Chapel or Tomb House has been restored and superbly decorated by the Queen. The Prince of Wales' son, Prince Albert Victor, was buried in 1892.

NEW INDUSTRY FOR ST. STEPHEN.

Board of Trade Accepts a Previous Proposition—Milltown's Civic Elections.

St. Stephen, Jan. 23.—(Special)—At a meeting of the board of trade it was decided to accept the proposition of McMillan Brothers, of Auburn, Maine, who desire to erect a shoe factory in this town. A few years ago authority was granted by act of the legislature empowering the town to issue bonds amounting to $8,000 which was to be given any company as a bonus for erecting a shoe factory. McMillan Brothers are willing to accept this bonus providing also that $10,000 in stock would be subscribed and they will guarantee to employ 125 skilled workmen. Six thousand dollars was subscribed at the meeting and the balance can easily be raised when the company is organized and satisfactory guarantees necessary.

The mayor, councillors and assessors were elected at Milltown today by acclamation, as follows: F. C. Murchie, mayor; Councilors—Ward 1, T. W. Butler and Harrison McMillan; assessor, J. S. Andrews; Councilors—Ward 2, Thomas A. Shirley and A. S. McKenna; assessor, H. Whitney; Councilors—Ward 3, Daniel Fitzsimons and A. Burns; assessor, Isaac Smith.

The crown that adorns the brow of Holland's youthful queen is said to have cost $800,000. In 1825 it was stolen by burglars and remained in their possession nearly two years. Eventually part of the stones were found near Brooklyn, and the remainder were ultimately discovered in Belgium.

A Sour Stomach and a Sour Temper.

The precursors of mental and physical weakness are indigestion and sourness of the stomach. Dr. Van Swan's Pimpapple Tablets keep the stomach sweet—aid digestion—keep the nerves centred well balanced—try to nature's process—pleasant and harmless. 35 cents.—E. C. Brown.

The population of the whole world is about 1,500,000,000. Of this Great Britain and her colonies has 25.9 per cent.; Russia, 8.09 per cent.; France, 6.3 per cent.; United States, 5.7 per cent.; Germany, 4.6 per cent.; Austria-Hungary, 3.1 per cent.; Italy, 2.2 per cent.

KING EDWARD THE SEVENTH, THE HEAD OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE.

The Sketch of the New Monarch—His Education—An Extensive Traveller—His Marriage and Family—Titles He Holds—Originator of the Royal College of Music.

H. R. H. Albert Edward, Prince of Wales, K. G., K. P., C. C., G. C. S. I., G. C. M. G., P. C., King of Great Britain and Ireland and Emperor of India, is eldest son of the late Queen Victoria and the late Prince Consort. He was born at Buckingham Palace, November 9, 1841, receiving his early education under the Rev. Henry John, rector of Prestwold; Mr. Gibbs, barrister-at-law; the Rev. C. F. Turner, and Mr. H. W. Fisher, and having studied for a session at Edinburgh, entered Christ Church, Oxford, where he attended the public lectures for a year and afterwards resided for three or four terms at Cambridge for the same purpose.

His Royal Highness spent most of the summer of 1860 in a visit to the United States and Canada, where he was most enthusiastically received. In 1858, he was gazetted to a company in the army, and joined the camp at the Curragh in June, 1861. Accompanied by Dean Stanley, the Prince travelled in the east, and visited Jerusalem in 1862. His Majesty is a K. G., a general in the army and colonel in the 10th Hussars and has the titles of Duke of Cornwall (by which he took his title in the House of Lords in February, 1863, in the peerage of England), Duke of Rothesay, Baron of Renfrew and Lord of the Isles in Scotland, and Earl of Dublin and Carrick in Ireland, and enjoys the patronage of 20 livings, chiefly as owner of the dukedom of Cornwall. His Majesty married, March 10, 1863, the Princess Alexandra of Denmark, by whom he has issue. The Prince of Wales became president of St. Bartholomew's Hospital in April, 1867. Towards the close of the year 1871, His Majesty was attacked with typhoid fever and for some weeks his life was despaired of, but he slowly recovered and was able to take part in the memorable thanksgiving service in St. Paul's Cathedral, February 27, 1872. He was elected grand master of the Free Masons in England in succession to the Marquis of Ripon, in 1874, and on April 28, 1875, was admitted to the office at a lodge held in the Albert Hall, south Kensington. On May 5, 1875, he was installed as the Free Masons' Hall at first principal of the Royal Arch Free Masons. In 1875-76 His Royal Highness visited India. The great interest he took in the Paris exhibition of 1878 contributed in no slight degree to render it a success.

His Majesty attended the court festivities held at Berlin in March, 1883, to celebrate the silver wedding of the crown prince with the princess royal of England. On this occasion he was nominated by the Emperor as a field marshal in the German army. In 1885 the Prince, in company with the Princess, made a tour through Iceland. In 1880 the Prince, with the Princess and their sons, visited the Paris exhibition and in October of the same year he was present at the wedding of the Duke of Sparta, at Athens.

The annual income of His Majesty was raised in 1889 from £40,000 to £70,000, in accordance with the recommendation of a select committee appointed to inquire into the subject of royal grants, on the occasion of the Queen's application for an allowance for Prince Albert Victor and the Princess Louise of Wales.

His Majesty has taken a great personal interest in all the exhibitions recently held at South Kensington and was elected president of the Colonial and Indian Exhibition, opened by the Queen in May, 1886.

He also originated the Royal College of Music and is the chief mover in the jubilee scheme of an imperial institute. In 1888 his silver wedding was celebrated.

THE BRITISH EMPIRE.

How It Has Grown Under Victoria's Wise Reign.

Some conception of the growth of the British empire under Queen Victoria may be formed from the following table. In addition, it must be remembered that in 1837 the Indian territory, even indirectly under British sway, included nearly of the great frontier provinces of Burma and the Punjab.

Representative government was granted to all the important colonies in 1856. Canadian federation began in 1867, and the dawn of this year saw the union of Australia take effect.

Resides territory actually acquired, Great Britain has assumed practical control of Egypt, while restoring the Sudan to Midnight rule, and there is no apparent prospect of her withdrawal from the Nile valley.

1839—Alden annexed.
1842—Hong Kong acquired.
1843—Sindh annexed.
1848—Sikh territory ceded.
1852—Punjab acquired.
1852—Pegu protectorate assumed.
1856—Oude annexed.
1858—Crown assumed rule of India.
1874—Sikh dominions annexed.
1875—Sultan's share in Suez canal bought.
1878—Island of Cyprus occupied.
1880—Burma annexed.
1890—Zanzibar protectorate assumed.
1896—Aden ceded to accept British sovereignty.
1896—Kitchener occupied Dongola.
1899—Tribute of Siam.
1900—Transvaal and Orange Free State annexed.

WORTH MANY MILLIONS.

The Queen's Private Fortune Estimated at Between $20,000,000 and $25,000,000.

Queen Victoria's private fortune has been estimated at between $20,000,000 and $25,000,000, but the exact amount is known probably to but two persons besides her husband—Lord Innes and Lord Rowton, who for years have had entire charge of her financial affairs. Lord Rowton was secretary to Lord Beaconsfield during the lifetime of the latter.

The Queen's fortune is invested, mostly in English real estate, although she is credited with the ownership of many American railroad securities. Her collection of jewels—the finest in the world—is said to be worth several millions.

Her bankers are Coutts, of London.

"CRAZY WITH PAIN!"

Ignorance of the cause lets many a poor head "go crazy" with pain, when it is but the seedling time of that dread malady—Catarrh.

And if every sufferer knew that DR. A. GNEV'S CATARRHAL POWDER is the quickest acting, safest, surest, and most pleasant and effective cure for Catarrhal Headache, how much suffering would be spared.

This wonderful discovery in modern medicine has proved its claims to potency thousands and thousands of times in the performance of cures in deep-seated cases of chronic Catarrh which specialists have declared past curing—It relieves headache in ten minutes. 50 cents.
