FOR ANOTHER EXHIBITION.

PROPOSITION MADE AT THE ANNUAL MEETING TUESDAY.

Laid Over Until the Committee Interviews the Local Government and Civic Authorities.
C. A. Everett Resigns Position of Manager-Financial Statement Submitted.

Charles A. Everett, who has since 1895 acted as secretary of the Exhibition Association, handed in his resignation at the meeting of the association held Tuesday afternoon. In resigning, Mr. Everett is prompted by the feeling that the office should be held by a younger man. The resignation was received, but not accepted, as the attendance at the meeting was but small.

The association is now in a fair way financially, and at yesterday's meeting a recommendation from the directors to the effect that the exhibition be held next fall was submitted and while no decisive action was taken, chances for St. John's big autumn show are good.

Mr. McLaughlin presided, and the members in attendance were W. M. Jarvis, S. S. Hall, R. B. Emerson, A. O.
Skinner, R. O'Brien, Col. Cunard and R.
R. Patchell.

Mr. McLaughlin stated the object for which the meeting had been called and dealt briefly with the financial condition of the association, as shown by the secretary's report.

Two reports from the secretary were then read, one to the president and the other to the shareholders. In his report to President McLaughlin, Mr. Everett pointed out that the excess of liabilities over assets in April, 1901, was about $3-230.75. A meeting was held at which the president was authorized to tender to the province and the city the property of the association on condition that grants were made to cover the liabilities.

A grant made by the province of $1-813.14, and by the city, of $1,600. The association had received no information as to the intention to grant the assets in consideration of the grant. The total payment of $1,600 had been used to reduce the debt and while the provincial grant had not yet been paid, yet as a result of the order the association was entitled to overdraw on the Bank of Mon-real.

The liabilities and assets now stand:
Indebtedness as presented in April, 1901, $3,230.75; insurance, $202; interest to credit of Leonard & Sons, $32.80; interest to credit of Bank of Montreal, $24.00; printing and advertising, $96.00; other accounts, $27.80; $3,686.35.

Assets: city's grant, $1,600; provincial grant, $1,813.14; sale of lamps, $37.50; rebate on accounts, $463.52. Total, $3,914.17.
Balance to credit, $18.18. The surplus portion of the accounts has been paid.

The total cost of the eight exhibitions, including purchase of lands, erection of buildings and its equipment, was $101,- 625.32, and of this amount $12,213.64 figures for prizes were $55,417.50. Including recent grants, the association had received from the provincial treasury $22,613.64, from the city $10,000, and from the provincial treasury $12,213.64. These total grants and these total grants were exceeded by the expenditure for prizes alone by $12,- 803.86. Insurance to the amount of $11,- 000 in force on the association property was the sum submitted by the secretary to the shareholders received receipts during the past year were:

On capital account, $55.00 Outstanding accounts, $109.40
City grant for 1901, $1,000.00
City grant for 1901, $1,000.00
Sale of lamps, $37.50 Total, $3,601.90

These were deposited in the Bank of Montreal. During the past year 11 shares of stock have been added, making the total issue 1,764 shares. These realized to the association $6,820, which has been invested in the properties of the association. The estimated value of the property is upwards of $18,000.

Mr. Everett, in his report, tendered his resignation, as manager and president, and if desired, he would be pleased to continue as a director.

The president said the question to be discussed was, first, is it desirable to have an exhibition, and if so, what steps were necessary to be taken?

S. S. Hall moved that the reports be received and placed on record. Carried.
R. B. Emerson said it was an open question whether an exhibition should be held, and referred to the meeting of the executive when it had been decided to approach the local government and enquire. He asked if anything had yet been done.

Mr. McLaughlin replied that they had not yet had opportunity to see any members of the local government, especially Rev.
Mr. Emerson then said that if the association again decided to hold an exhibition, they should appoint a small committee to meet the local government and endeavor to secure a grant. The same committee could meet the city and the grant asked for should be such as would enable the association to hold exhibitions without the necessity of financing. The government should give not less than $5,000 and the city $3,000, or, as an alternative, he proposed that if the government would guarantee the prize list and if the city $3,000, the show could be held.

Richard O'Brien said the small attendance did not argue well for the interest in the exhibition. The meeting had been well advertised and yet only eight members attended. If the other members knew of the meeting and yet remained away it showed that the necessary interest was not being taken. He suggested that a committee be appointed to interview the government and the council. In the past the exhibitions had not been financially successful, and then the association had the cooperation of active young members and business men.

Justice Lindsay presiding. The docket had one case of criminal assault and two civil cases.

George. The case was heard by Justice Lindsay.

and threatening violence. The grand jury found a true bill for assault against Jones.

The Smallpox Situation.

The 10th case of smallpox was reported to the board of health Wednesday, the first ease is Willie McEwan, the three-year-old son of Gilbert McEwan, residing at 33 Lombard street. The house in which the little sufferer resides adjoins the Duncan apartment, in which there has been a case of smallpox. The boy had been unsuccessfully vaccinated and it is reported to be a very severe case. The mother was vaccinated 12 years ago and her father about six years ago, and with another child who had been unsuccessfully vaccinated, they were all treated yesterday at the hospital. Wednesday, and Dr.

NEARLY FIFTY YEARS PARTED

HAPPY CLIMAX YESTERDAY TO ROMANCE IN REAL LIFE.

Thomas Kane, of Boston, Who Lived Long in Ignorance of His Own Identity, Finds His Sister Here—United by the Kind Offices of Rev. Fr. Gaylor.

Thomas Kane, of Boston, now sojourning in St. John, is a happy man today.
And he has every reason to be. For 48 years he has been in ignorance of his real identity and for the same time he has been mourning as dead, three sisters, all of whom lived in St. John. Two of them are dead, but Wednesday morning he and the same time, Mr. Kane received undoubted proof of his identity and was restored to his surviving sister, the last of his family, save himself.

Mr. Kane's story is a romantic one and will be of interest to St. John people for two reasons, first, because it began and ended here, and secondly because his sister has resided here for years and is well-known. Forty-eight years ago Mr. Kane, then a child of four years, was separated from his three sisters in this city. Wednesday he lovingly caressed the last of these sisters and was, Wednesday evening, as to speak, in the bosom of his family.

In 1854 Thomas Kane, his parents and three sisters left Ireland for Canada in an emigrant ship. They were destined for St. John but on reaching here the father and mother landed at the quarantine and they died and the four orphan children were left alone and unprotected in second care and forbidden on that occasion when they realized they were helplessly alone and friendless. Fortunately however, though they had no relatives, they found friends attracted to them by sympathy and Christian charity.

Thomas was taken in charge by a kind priest and turned over to the care of the Sisters of Charity. The little girls were provided for in St. John. His mother at St. John. The girls were taken to the loss of their parents became less poignant, through the agency of time and soon grew to love their new friends and home. A few months later Thomas was adopted by a family named McLaughlin of Richibucto, he assuming the name of McLaughlin and regarding his parents as his own. He grew up in the family, Finnally, in his boyhood, from Richibucto he went to Boston and having a predilection for a sea-faring life he decided to sail with the "men who go down to the sea in ships." He followed the sea for some years and voyaged well over the world. Then he returned to Boston and was appointed a pilot becoming in the time, himself a pilot. He prospered in his chosen occupation and having accumulated this world's goods in sufficient quantity to give him a comfortable and verbal rainy day, determined to return to New Brunswick and seek his sisters, whom he had reason to believe were still alive and in the city of St. John. He McLaughlin and under that name was married. He had doubts, however, as to his identity and endeavored in many ways to find out who he really was, but the sisters of his early childhood, the death of his parents, his separation from his sisters had largely been forgotten and in consequence men had already been practically nothing.

Meanwhile the sisters whom he left in St. John had grown to womanhood and were married. Mrs. Wm. Lowe, of 13 Broad street, Mrs. Patrick Condon, of Pitt street, and Mrs. Grant, of Woodstock, N. B. They endeavored in every way possible to locate their lost brother and communicated with the Sisters of Charity with this end in view, but after forming out no further information could be secured.

Eight years ago Mr. Kane visited St.
John in an effort to locate his relatives.
He hunted up all the names and soon found that none could prove relationship with him. Then he gave up active search though he still retained hope that the family which circumstanced him would be united in God's own measure.

His sister, however, continued her search longer and finally advertised for him through the Freeman in May last. The advice met his eye and he believing himself to be the man required communicated with Rev. Fr. Gaylor in St. John. His father, Gaylor, supplied the history of the boy Thomas Kane from the time of landing here until his adoption by the McLaughlin family. Thomas Mc-Laughlin, the Boston pilot, then took up the threads of his life at the point where his sister had failed and by dint of much hard work and careful enquiry succeeded in proving to his own satisfaction that Thomas Kane, the emigrant boy, and Thomas McLaughlin, the successful man, were one and the same person. His communications with his sister and soon doubts he might have had as to his identity were completely removed. A visit to St. John was planned and yesterday accompanied by his sister and her mother he found his long lost relatives. The meeting was an affecting one. In conversation with Fr. Gaylor Wednesday Mr. Kane stated he had discovered that when in St. John on his former search, eight years ago he had, several times, passed the house where lived the sister he sought and he knew it not. However, all is well that ends well and Mr. Kane is now perfectly happy. He is at present visiting his niece, the Misses Lowe, of Broad street. Of the three sisters he left here in 1854 Mrs.
Condon of Pitt street, is the only one now living. Mrs. Lowe and Mrs. Grant having joined the majority some years since.

QUEENS COUNTY COAL.

Arrangements Completed to Mine 1,000 Tons Per Day.

In a very short time coal will be mined by machinery in the Queens county coal fields at the rate of 1,000 tons per day. This was decided at the meeting of the New Brunswick Coal and Railway Company directors held Thursday night, when arrangements were completed to purchase two Butler excavating machines with a capacity of 500 tons per day each. Premier Tweed presided at the meeting and H. G. Butler, of Gananville, Illinois, was present.
Mr. Butler is the patentee of the machine which bears his name and which has been successfully used in the Illinois coal fields for some time. The conditions in the coal areas in Queens county. Consequently the company is of opinion that the machine is capable of being profitably operated there.
At last Thursday's meeting Mr. Butler described in detail the machine and its workings and after hearing him and considering the reports of experts who were sent to Illinois to examine it, they decided to purchase two and place them in operation in the Queens county fields. These two machines are expected to mine and load on 1,000 tons of coal daily. This purchase means that the Queens county fields will be thoroughly mined and this another will be added to the enterprises having for their object the development of new Brunswick's natural resources.

COUNTRY MARKET.

Produce in Better Supply and Prices Easier in Consequence.

In consequence of the good sleighing which enabled the country people to bring their produce to the city market, prices dropped considerably this week. Particularly is this true of eggs, which are coming in in good quantities. Meats and poultry have also declined slightly. Corrected retail prices are as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Item and Price. Includes County beef, side or quarter, 0.07; Pork, per lb., 0.14; Butter, per lb., 0.17; Eggs, per doz., 0.20; etc.
