

FROM OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

The Sheffield Choir has received in Montreal, as in St. John, very flattering notices. Their concert here Saturday night was given before an audience that filled every available seat in the Opera House, from dress circle to gallery. Not only was it a brilliant and artistic one, but it was also one of the most beautiful costumes in the present, artistic in as much as nearly every lover of music in the city was there. The boxes were occupied by the Lieut-Governor and Mrs. Tweedie, Mrs. Byrne and Captain Barker aide de camp to the Governor. In another box sat his worship the mayor and Mrs. Frink and Miss Frink. Other boxes were occupied by Mrs. and Mr. F. H. Bay and Mrs. Doris Savre, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schofield, Miss Edith Skinner and Mr. A. O. Skinner. On the stage, the ladies competing in the singing dresses, on the bodice of which was pinned the red rose of England, presented by Mayor Frink, a graceful, happy thought must have been in the mind of the lady soloists were Miss Louise Dale and Miss Taggart. The former was very handsomely gowned in white satin with silver trimmings. Miss Taggart wore a lovely pink and white gown with tulle chignon and trimmed with beaded Oriental bands and crystal fringe. Finding that the steamer would not arrive in St. John on Saturday afternoon, Lady North Noel and her brother Lord Camden, went directly to Montreal. After the magnificent musical programme was concluded, the ladies and gentlemen of the choir were taken to Keith's assembly rooms, where a reception in their honor was held. Under the direction of Mrs. Taggart, the choir received the reception rooms were beautifully decorated with bunting. The tables were placed at one end of the large hall and they too were elaborately adorned with flowers, glass chins and had some silver ornaments. There was also in this room an ice cream table which, like the others, was effectively decorated. The ladies and gentlemen who formed the reception committee were his honor Lieut-Governor Tweedie and Mrs. Tweedie, Mr. George A. Henderson, Mayor and Mrs. L. A. Davidson, Mrs. Thomson, Mrs. George West Jones and Rev. G. A. Kubring. An orchestra was present. The ladies who presided at the tables were Mrs. H. Estabrook, Mrs. V. Anglin, Mrs. P. A. Brown, Mrs. Kimball, Mrs. R. J. Ritchie, Mrs. James Duddy, Miss Hegan, Mrs. George Hegan, Mrs. Eadie, Mrs. Colby Smith and Mrs. John M. Magee. Serving the ice cream were Mrs. Bonnell, Mrs. L. A. McAlpine, Mrs. Cross, Mrs. W. H. Shaw and Mrs. Rankine. Mrs. J. Morris Robinson, Queen Square, is in Montreal, the guest of Mrs. H. Beverly Robinson. Afterwards she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Ellis, in Quebec. Mr. H. Beverly Robinson has gone on a business trip to Montreal.
