Pepular Young Artillery Officer Mortally Wounded and Never Recevered Consciousness.

There will be widespread sympathy in he city for Hon. J. D. Hazen, minister of marine and fisheries and representative of St. John city and county at Uttawa, in the death of his son, Lieutenant James Murray Hazen who was reported "died of wounds" last night.

Yesterday, at Ottawa, Hon. Mr. Hazen received the following telegram from Major Malcolm McAvity of the Fifth Infantry Brigade staff, who is located about two miles distant from the battery in which Lieutenant Hazen, was serving, which read as follows: which read as follows:

which read as follows:

"Jim died died today of wounds, did not suffer much, was unconscious from time of accident until the end. Was with him shortly after the accident until the end." This telegram was in turn transmitted to the other members of the family residing in St. John.

Lieutenant Hazen was one of the most respected and best known young men of the city and his friends here are legion. He was a graduate of the Royal Military College at Kingston and went overseas last August and in England was attached to the 25th Battery, Seventh Brigade Field Artillery, with which he has been fighting in France ever since.

Only a few days ago he celebrated his twentieth birthday 'mid the shot and shell of the battlefield and in a recent letter to his father he said he was greatly pleased with the life on the firing line, was getting along splendidly and was glad that he was doing his "hit" for the empire. Major Malcolm McAvity is a brother-in-law of the young hero and a brother, Captain D. King Hazen, is on duty in England at the present time. orother, Captain D. King Hazen, is on duty in England at the present time. The news of Lieutenant Hazen's death came as a great shock to his parents and other relatives as well as to both old and other relatives as well as to both old and young in the city who were acquainted with and respected the young man for his manly qualities and sterling character. Mayor Frink last evening sent the following telegram to Hon. J. D. Hazen, Ottawa: "On behalf of the citizens of St. John, I desire to express to Mrs. Hazen, yourself and family their sincere sympathy in the loss of your son on the field of battle. His name is inscribed on Britain's roll of honor—a gallant son of New Brunswick who gave his life for the king and empire and whose Christian life and character ensures rest and peace and the hope that you and yours shall meet again.

A young man, aged 23 years, Sherman Constantine, was engaged early last fall in driving some cattle from the farm of Beverly Coates at Havelock to the farm of Fletcher Oldfield, Newtown, and after a short stay at Newtown he started some time in the afternoon to return to Havelock and since then his whereabouts has been a mystery. About 1.30 o'clock this afternoon Mr. Keith and his son went out to do some fencing on his farm, about 500 yards from his house, and was in the act of cutting down a small tree when he was horribly shocked to find the body of a man lying near by. He ran to his house and telephoned to Chief of Police Asbell, Sussex, who with Coroner F. W. Wallace, drove to Newtown and brought the body to Sussex, where it now lies at the undertaker's morgue.

Near the body was found an open jackknife and in the pocket $1.05 in sil-
