New York, April 12th—Berth rates to Great Britain continue very strots, room still being searce, but to the Continent room is abundant, and rates barely supported. The chartering demand has been moderate, the Petroleum trade being restricted by the difficulty of 'r Jouring cargoes, but with the tonnage supply reduced to moderate proportions, there has been little or no variation in rates. There is some inquiry for Grain tonnage, but the demand is not likely to become urgen for some weeks, or until after the resumption of navigation. The West India trade romains dull, but for South America good demand for tonnage still prevails, especially for lumber to the River Plate. Long voyage business continues dull. The charters include an Am ship, 838 tons, hence to Shanghae, general cargo, lump sum; an Am bark, 720 tons (bound to River Plate), from ports in Java to Cork or Falmouth for orders to the United Kingdom or Continent. 71s 61: an Am iron bark, 679 tons, hence to Valparaiso, general cargo, lump sum; an Am ship, 1169 tons, from Cardiff to Hong Kong, coal, understood 35s; an Am bark, 512 tons, hence to Gijon, part cargo tobacco 47s 63. remainder staves for Cardis current rates and back from the latier port to New York, lump s.m; an Am brig, 485 tons, now loading for Aspinwall, from Fensacola to Rio, lumber, $29 and primage; an Am ship, 485 tons, hone to Rosario, lumber, $23 and primage; an Am brig, 485 tons, hence te Rosario, lumber, $23 and primage; an Am brig, 3490 bbis refined petroleun, now here, frum Philadelphia to the German Baltic, 7:; an Am brig, 175 tons, from St Mary's to Trinidad, PS, lumber, $15 and port charges; one, 373 tons, from St Jago to New York, sugar, 40c.
