MINISTER FOUND DEAD.

He Blew Out the Gas in Y.M.C.A. Headquarters.

Philadelphia, Dec. 30.-Rev. John R. K. Sellers, Methodist minister, of Guyboro, N. S., who was visiting his brothers in this city, was found dead today in the headquarters of the Reading Railway Young Men's Christian Association. He had blown out the gas through a window pane of the usage, it is thought, and was asphyxiated. Mr. Sellers was spending the Christmas holidays here. They only discovered today that he had left on Christmas eve. Several search parties started out to discover the body, but it was not found until the next morning. The missing man was about 22 years of age, and a splendid boatman and good swimmer.

FEAR HE IS DROWNED.

Aultsville Man Missing Since Christmas Eve-Boat Found.

Cornwall, Ont., Dec. 30.-There is every reason to believe that Alfred Hunter, of Aultsville, was drowned on Christmas eve. He had been visiting at Goose Neck Island, a few miles up the river, in the headquarters of the Reading Railway Young Men's Christian Association. He had blown out the gas through a window pane of the usage, it is thought, and was asphyxiated. Mr. Sellers was spending the Christmas holidays here. They only discovered today that he had left on Christmas eve. Several search parties started out to discover the body, but it was not found until the next morning. The missing man was about 22 years of age, and a splendid boatman and good swimmer.
