

May 28, 1836, he was ed. at the Quebec Semy., and, later, studied Agricul. at the Univ. of Durham, at the Royal Coll., Cirencester, Eng., and at the National Sch. of Agricul. Grignon, France, at which latter institution he graduated. Returning to Can. he was apptd., 1857, Secy.-Treas. of the Prov. Bd. of Agricul. and of the L. C. Agricul. Assn. He also ed. the Can. Agriculturist and the Revue Agricole. In 1863 he was returned to Parlt. for Richelieu, continuing to sit therein up to the confederation of the Provinces (a measure he opposed), 1867. He was an unsuccessful candidate for the representation of the same constituency in the Ho. of Commons, at the g. e. 1867, and for the representation of Montreal East, in the Legislature, 1881. Mr. P. was apptd. Secy.-Treas. to the Can. Comn., Philadelphia Universal Exhn., 1875, and held a like office in connection with the Paris Expn., 1877-78. He founded the Chambre de Commerce, Montreal (of which he is hon. Presdt.), 1887, and was the del. of that body to the Paris Expn., 1889, on which occasion he was apptd. a representative of Gt. Brit. on the internl. jury in regard to implements, horses and cattle. On the same occasion he was apptd. an officer of agricultural merit by the French Govt., foreign correspondent of the National Soc. of Agricul. of France, and Can. representative at the Internl. Congress of Agricul. He is also a Knight of the Legion of Honour, and an officer of Public Instruction of France. He was the first farmer in L. C. to import Ayrshire cattle into the Province, and the first to import Percheron stallions from France. He was awarded a gold medal by the Bd. of Trade, Rouen, for having brought to that port the first transatlantic steamer entering it from Can. He was a del. to the Congress of the Chambers of Commerce of the Empire, held in London, 1893 and 1896, and, in 1897, was Chairman of the Parade Comte. Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebration, Montreal. He is the author of "Traite d'Agricul. Pratique" (1865), and of several political brochures. Politically, he is a Lib. He is also a strong advocate of the political ind. of Can. and of commercial union with the U. S. In religion, he is a R. C. He m., 1866, Miss C. F. Couillard, Montreal, a lady who is descended from the issue of the first marriage contracted in Can.—Longue Pointe, Montreal.

PERRIGO, James, M.D., is the s. of the late Jas. Perrigo, by his wife, Eleanor Reeves. B. in Montreal, 1846, he was ed. at North Georgetown and at McGill Univ. (B.A., with 1st rank honours in Nat. Science, 1866; M.A., 1869). He studied Med. at the same institution (M.D., 1870), and proceeding to Eng., obtained the diploma of the Royal Coll. of Surg., and was elected Secy. of the Obstetrical Soc., London. On the formation of the Med. Faculty of Bishop's Coll. Univ., Lennoxville, 1870, he accepted a chair therein, and was for some yrs. after his resignation from the Faculty, 1894, Prof. of Surgery in the Univ. He has practised throughout in Montreal. Politically, he is a Con.; in religious belief, an Ang. He m. 1885, Marion G., dau. of the late H. Chandler, Montreal.—326 Sherbrooke St., Montreal.

PERRIN, The Rt. Rev. William Willcox, Bishop of Columbia, B.C. (Ch. of Eng.), is the s. of Thos. and Margt. Perrin, of Westbury-upon-Trym, Gloucestershire, Eng., and was b. at that place, Aug. 11, 1848. Ed. at King's Coll., London, and at Trinity Coll., Oxford (B.A., 1870; M.A., 1873), he was admitted to the diaconate by the Bp. of Winchester (Dr. Wilberforce), 1871, and to the priesthood, 1872. Apptd. curate of St. Mary's, Southampton, under Canon Wilberforce, he remained there till 1881, when Bp. Browne offered him the living of St. Luke's, which he accepted. While at Southampton, he became Chairman of the local Sch. Bd., was Warden of the Southampton Refuge (which is con-