

47 G. 3. c. 9. His Majesty may permit any Quantity of Worsted Yarn to be exported from London to Lower Canada not exceeding 20,000 lbs. yearly.

28 G. 3. c. 38.

II. And whereas the Quantity of Worsted and Woollen Yarn permitted to be exported by an Act passed in the Forty-seventh Year of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for allowing the Exportation annually of a limited Quantity of Worsted Yarn to Canada, is found not sufficient for the Indian Trade in Canada; be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to permit the Exportation of any Quantity of Worsted or Woollen Yarn, not exceeding Twenty thousand Pounds Weight in any One Year, from the Port of London, to be transported to the Province of Lower Canada, in such Proportions, at such Times, in such Manner, and subject to such Regulations and Restrictions as shall be directed and appointed by His Majesty, by and with the Advice aforesaid, any Thing in an Act passed in the Twenty-eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into One Act of Parliament, several Laws now in being, for preventing the Exportation of live Sheep, Rams, and Lambs, Wool, Woolfels, Mortlings, Shortlings, Yarn, and Worsted, Cruels, Coverlids, Waddings, and other Manufactures, or pretended Manufactures, made of Wool slightly wrought up, or otherwise put together, so as the same may be reduced to and made use of as Wool again, Mattraffes or Beds stuffed with combed Wool, or Wool fit for combing, Fullers Earth, Fulling Clay, and Tobacco-pipe Clay, from this Kingdom, and from the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, into Foreign Parts; and for rendering more effectual an Act passed in the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, intituled 'An Act for the Winding of Wool,' to the contrary notwithstanding.
