Anybody Can Play This on the Piano or Organ in One Evening

as we now have it in the "EASY FORM MUSIC METHOD." With the keyboard chart (see illustration) "EASY FORM" Music shows you where to put the fingers of both hands so that you can start playing it at once.

Here's the PROOF

"My boy, who couldn't play a note, sat down and played three pieces first night."—Mrs. E. Windover, Halls Bridge, Ont.

"I certainly think Easy Method Music wonderful, my Grand-daughter, 11 years old never had a lesson, now she can play several pieces quite correctly."—Mrs. (Rev.) Jas. Graham, Inglewood, Ont.

"I could play the first piece in 40 minutes and never tried a note on the piano before."—Mrs. S. Standing, 400 Borman Ave., Winnipeg, Man.

EXAMPLE:

When the music says "D.A." just strike the keys marked "D.A." You can't go wrong!

It's as Simple as A.B.C. because young children or old people who can read the first 7 letters, A.B.C.D.E.F.G., can now play the piano or organ in a few hours without any previous experience whatever.

"Easy Form" Music is a genuine blessing to those who truly love music, but who never had several years' time and patience to puzzle out the Chinese Signs in ordinary music.

Eye-glasses Not Necessary.

Eye-sight can be Strengthened and Most Forms of Diseased Eyes Successfully Treated Without Cutting or Drugging.

That the eyes can be strengthened so that eyeglasses can be dispensed with in many cases has been proven beyond a doubt by the testimony of hundreds of people who publicly claim that their eye-sight has been restored by that wonderful little instrument called "Actina."

"Actina" also relieves Sore and Granulated Lids, Iritis, Cataracts, etc., without cutting or drugging.

Over one hundred thousand Actinas have been sold; therefore the Actina treatment is not an experiment, but is reliable. The following letters are but samples of hundreds we receive:

Miss Susie Swartz, Berlin, Ont., writes: "I cannot say enough for what 'Actina' has done for my eyesight. When I was 8 years old I had to start to wear glasses. The doctor said I could never expect to go without glasses. I have used 'Actina' only six months and can now sew and do all my work without glasses. I had worn glasses for seventeen years."

Mrs. Emery E. Deitrick, 7124 Idlewild Street, E. E., Pittsburg, Pa., writes: "My eyes were very weak, and my vision was so bad that I could recognize people only at short distances. Since using 'Actina' I have discarded my glasses, my headaches are gone, and my vision, I believe is as good as ever it was."

Mr. J. H. Frankenfield, 522 E. 20th Street, Cheyenne, Wyo., writes: "Regarding what the 'Actina' has done for me, I am proud to say that I am not wearing my glasses at all. As for my catarh it is almost gone, and I have been troubled with it for more than sixteen years. A great number of my railroad friends are buying 'Actinas' as you know by the orders you have received."

"Actina" can be used with perfect safety by every member of the family for any affliction of the eye, ear, throat or head. A Free trial of the "Actina" is given in every case.

Recognized Him at Once

Among the many rebuffs received by solicitors for charity funds, that described in the following story from the New York Tribune illustrates a gentle wit which must have pleased almost as much as a generous contribution:

A clergyman in a small Western town entered the office of the local paper, and said to the editor:

"I am soliciting aid for a gentleman of refinement and intelligence who is in dire need of a little ready money, but who is far too proud to make his sufferings known."

"Why," exclaimed the editor, pushing back his chair, "I'm the only man in the village who answers that description. What is the gentleman's name?"

"I regret," said the minister, "that I am not at liberty to disclose it."

"Why, it must be I," said the editor. "It is I! It is I! surely! Heaven prosper you, parson, in your good work!"

Amended

The editor was dreaming in his "den" when the door opened and a rather stern-visaged woman entered, without apology, says a writer in the Baltimore Sun.

"Will you kindly explain," she began, grimly, thrusting a newspaper clipping under the editor's nose, "why your reviewer refers to my recent book as a 'History of Female Suffrage by a new Historical Writer'?"

"Quite unpardonable," said the editor, gravely. "Of course the word should be spelled with a 'y.'"

A Well-known Name

Among the many namesakes of Thomas Jefferson is a colored man who for more than ten years has spent his time in humble but useful employment. He wheels ashes and rubbish of all sorts from the back doors of the houses in one of the districts of a New England town. He has learned through the servants in

No Cloud on His

Colonel Brownson, eighty-four years old, but still erect and vigorous, was riding leisurely homeward on his bay mare Kit, when he was overtaken by a man residing in the next township, with whom he had a slight acquaintance, and they fell into conversation.

"I have just been down to the country seat," said the other, "on what I suppose you would say is a foolish errand, inasmuch as I have lived where I am for thirty-seven years, and nearly everybody within forty miles of here knows me. I have been proving up my title."

"Your title?"

"Yes; and let me tell you, colonel, you had better look up yours. You never can tell what may happen."

"I am not afraid about my title, sir," majestically answered Colonel Brownson, who had never owned an acre of ground in his life. "I won it, sir, in the Mexican War!"

Feeding the Stock

The victim of the following story, told in Mrs. Henry W. Cole's "A Lady's Tour Around Monte Rosa," was possessed of a keen sense of humor. Otherwise his dignity might have been ruffled by the unconscious revelation which came to his ears.

In the course of Mrs. Cole's travels she met the Rev. Robert Montgomery, the poet, who told her an incident of his early career in the pulpit. When he was first admitted to holy orders he was appointed curate in a rural Scotch district, and lodged in the house of a small tenant-farmer.

Notwithstanding his office of clergyman, the family did not appear to hold their boarder in high veneration, for one day he heard the woman servant call out to her mistress:

"M'assis, shall I feed the pigs first, or gie the mon his dinner?"

these houses many items of interest concerning his employers and their families, and has a decided belief in his own importance to their welfare.

One day the head of one family went out into his back yard, and seeing the colored man at work over the ash barrel, said, affably:

"Let's see, what's your name?"

"Thomas Jeff'son, sah," was the reply. "Ah!" said the gentleman. "I think—I am quite sure—I have heard that name before."

"Yas, sah, mos' likely you is heard it," said the negro, showing his white teeth. "I's done shovel ashes an' wheel har'ls out o' dis year alley fo' de las' ten yeahs."

A Useless Implement

Aunt Ann Arkwright, the bustling spouse of Uncle Joshua Arkwright, proudly showed him a silver implement which a friend had given her as a birthday present. It was shaped something like a spatula, but broadened considerably toward the handle. Uncle Joshua inspected it with some curiosity.

"What is it?" he asked.

"Haven't you any idea?" she said. "No, not the least in the world."

"Well," said Aunt Ann, "it's a pie-knife."

Uncle Joshua picked it up, inspected it critically, and laid it down again.

"I haven't any use for it," he said, "as far as I'm concerned. It's too wide. I couldn't eat pie with it 'thout cutting my mouth."

Miller's Worm Powders prove their value. They do not cause any violent disturbances in the stomach, any pain or griping, but do their work quietly and painlessly, so that the destruction of the worms is imperceptible. Yet they are thorough, and from the first dose there is improvement in the condition of the sufferer and an entire cessation of manifestations of internal trouble.
