Ottawa, May 10, 1918.

Reverend Sir,-

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 14th instant, enclosing applications for the admission to the Mount Elgin Institute of the three children of Judge Ross of Oshawa.

In reply I beg to say that, as you have been informed, the Department cannot consent to the admission of Roman Catholic children to a protestant school and the admission of these three children to your school cannot, therefore, be approved.

The applications are being returned herewith.

Yours obedient servant

Assistant Deputy and Secretary

Rev. S. R. McVitty,
Principal,
