Ottawa, 11th February, 1919.

Rev. Sir:-

I beg to inform you that the Department has given an order to Messrs. Lymans Limited of Montreal for the drugs for which you made requisition for use at St. Paul's Mission at Fort Albany. The drugs will be forwarded to you by Messrs. Revillon Freres Trading Company. You should inform the Department at a later date as to whether they reach you in good order. You should find enclosed with the drugs an account for the articles sent you. Be good enough to check over all the drugs with a view to ascertaining whether everything charged for has been sent. You should certify the account, if correct, and forward it to the Department.

Your obedient servant,

Rev. J.T.Griffin,
Missionary in charge,
St. Paul's Mission,
Albany Fort,
James Bay, Ont.
via Cochrane, Ont.
