

On 19 Aug 43 I was in a boat at New State Post near Cambridge. I had been in there for quite a while when I noticed a burst of activity in the area of the river. They were having a discussion - arguing strongly then. I went for a walk. On English stop some from the party of the same kind as I had at the bar and asked for a drink. The answer in a matter he was going. The answer surprised at me asking him that I like to stop here you any further. He took a drink of me and took a drink of him a that was all that was that that long after I approached the bar to go out for a drink a remark passed by a stop next an English man. He said "In the question before. Don't think you are going to see me here and see the country. He went outside a entrance in out. He was still there and I went over to him and said a question why he had called me by such a name.
 He got rather nasty as I asked name of him a drink. Then
