AND FRIENDLY GREETINGS.

Others say: "It is a charming illustrated magazine 40 pages monthly, of anecdote and argument for the Christian Home. Finely and profusely illustrated. "At 75 cents a year, certainly one of the cheapest extant. But better one of the best. Full of the Gospel spirit, excellent temperance sketches. Missionary intelligence, short stories, all clean and wholesome, calculated to promote purity and knowledge in the "Home Circle." Whatever its circulation, it ought to be doubled.—*N. Y.
