THE LOCAL BUDGET

W. H. Mitchell, of Wallaceburg, was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Miss Bernice Miller, of Ridgeway, is the guest of Mrs. Joseph Miller.

O. L. Lewis has returned from Toronto, where he was on the staff mission of attending the funeral of his mother. Much sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Lewis in their bereavement.

FOR TEACHERS

Arrangements have been completed for the entertainment of the visiting teachers of the county at the McKee School, next Wednesday evening. The entertainment promises to be the best ever provided for the teachers in convention.

W. N. May, chairman of the Public School Board, will act as chairman of the evening.

Dr. Geo. T. McKee will deliver a lecture on Rome, giving an account of his travels through Italy.

Miss Gertrude Somerville, soprano, will sing a couple of solos and the Christ Church Male Quartette, composed of Messrs. J. W. Wilson, J. R. Smith, W. M. Smith and R. W. Angus, will give a number of selections.

This will be followed by a conversation and the serving of refreshments.

The dancing committee, under the direction of Miss Irving, will make the room attractive and inviting for the visitors.

Some men give the bill to a sentiment before it is half uttered.

Rashness is the faithful but unhappy parent of misfortune.

To be firm of character does not mean to be steadily stubborn.

Bearing burdens gracefully does not always come with practice.

Do You See Specks

And spots before your eyes and imagine you are simply bilious? Do they continue in spite of ordinary curative remedies? Does your headache constantly or more or less intermittently? All these ailments may be due to stomach or liver trouble; but the chances are that once your eyes are set right by well adjusted glasses or spectacles, the spots and specks, the head aches and heart aches will miraculously disappear. At all events it's worth trying, isn't it, when the trial costs you nothing whatever here.

...SOCIETY...

Miss Gertrude Scott, Park avenue, is visiting friends in Detroit.

Miss Mary McKee, of Dover Lodge, left Saturday on an extended visit to Montreal.

Mayor Cowan, of Chatham, was a caller on Mayor Campbell at the City Hall yesterday. He was on his way home from Toronto. — London Free Press.

P. H. Bowyer, M. P. P., East Kent, and A. B. McKee, M. P. P., West Kent, were among the invited guests at the Government House dinner at Toronto. The function was under the personal supervision of His Honor, the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province.

Howard Stevens, son of Mr. H. J. Stevens, manager of the Canada Flour Mills Co., is expected home from California next week. Mrs. Stevens is too ill to come home, but will return as soon as it will be safe for her to make the journey. She is at present suffering with a brother of Mr. N. H. Stevens.

Ex-Mayor McKee has received a letter of thanks from his friend Edmund Bristol, M. P. Mr. McKee wrote congratulating Mr. Bristol on his election in Toronto to represent the seat formerly held by the late Ned Clarke. Mr. Bristol and Mr. McKee were room-mates when they were both law students together. At that time the Chatham young man predicted that his friend would some day make a political name and be Premier of Canada. Mr. Bristol is brilliant and a born fighter.
