SECOND SESSION.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

Convention re-assembled according to adjournment, at 2.30 o'clock; President, Rev. S. W. DeBlois, A.M., in the chair.

Prayer was offered by Rev. T. A. Blackadar.

Minutes of the last session were read and approved.

N. S. Ministerial Educational Society presented its annual report, which, on motion, was adopted.

On motion, it was

Resolved,—That a Committee be appointed, to superintend the printing of 3000 copies of the Year Book for the use of the churches, and that 100 copies be reserved for the use of the Convention.

The following brethren were appointed: Revs. G. Armstrong, W. P. Everett, J. E. Hopper, and J. Goodwin.

The N. S. Ministerial Education Board presented their annual report.

The Committee on Home Missions, reported as follows:

The Baptist Convention of last year, laid down the following propositions:

That the work of Missions was essentially one.

That the Home Field should receive the united attention of the Body, in order to the successful working of our Missions abroad.

That the co-operation of the Baptists of the Maritime Provinces in Home Mission Work, would give greater efficiency to the Body, and more enlarged success to its interests.

In view of this fact, and the fact that the Nova Scotia Home Missionary Union, at its last session, declared its willingness to have the work of Home Missions in Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island,
