

A Picture That Talks

THIS BIRD'S-EYE VIEW of A. W. Anderson's farm buildings, located at Kane, Pa., tells a simple story of roofing superiority. It shows five buildings, all covered with

Carey's Flexible Cement Roofing

The work was done by Mr. Anderson himself with but knife and hammer as tools. The dwelling shows the neat and economical application of Carey's Roofing. Mr. Anderson writes:

"Carey's Roofing is first class in every respect, the best I have ever seen. I am using it with entire satisfaction on flat and steep surfaces, for eave spouts and all other places. It keeps my cattle comfortable, as cold and all moisture are excluded. What I have done with Carey's Roofing other farmers may do equally as well. I will always be glad to use it and recommend it."

Carey's Roofing is composed of best all wool felt (our own manufacture), our highly tempered Asphalt Compound, strong burlap, and our fire-proof cement. No other roofing has the feature of Carey's Patent Lap, which covers and protects nail heads, insuring a neat, smooth, absolutely water-proof union of sheet to sheet and roofing to roof-board. Carey Roofs never blow off.

Ample TIMBER for All Purposes

Prof. Thos. Shaw, after personal inspection, writes: "This rich and beautiful farming section lying in the vicinity of Last Mountain Lake, embraces one of the finest areas in the Northwest. The land is undulating in this region, mostly open prairie. The soil is rich black vegetable loam, from one to two feet deep, and is underlaid with a clay subsoil. Frost, to injure the wheat, is virtually unknown. Being thus favored so highly by nature, it is not surprising that the production of wheat in this region is phenomenally high; in several instances forty to forty-five bushels per acre have been reaped. Oats, Barley, Flax and all small grains yield relatively as good as those of wheat. Potatoes grow most luxuriantly. Two or three years ago there were not more than thirty-five settlers in the entire area; now there are over a thousand, and others rapidly coming in."
