

FATHERS DOWD AND TOUPIN.

CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE. preclude them from making it commensurate with their desire and worth.

These were followed by addresses from the St. Patrick's Temperance Society, by P. Doyle; Ladies of Charity, by Rev. Father Quinn; confraternity of the Holy Rosary, by Rev. James Callahan; Children of the Rosary, by Rev. Father M. Callahan; Children of the Catechism.

The address of St. Patrick's choir, presented by Mr. Grant, the senior chorister, followed. Then came a testimonial of the Catholic Young Men's Society, by J. J. Gettings, the Leo Club by P. Ledue, congregation of St. Mary's Church by J. A. Bardon and the addresses from the Protestant citizens by Mr. M. P. Ryan.

REV. FATHERS DOWD AND TOUPIN.
having ascended the pulpit, expressed his thanks to those who had highly honored him and remarked that many of the eulogies bestowed upon him were entirely undeserved.

REV. FATHER DOWD.
In thanking the address which he had just heard, he said, we were appreciated in the highest degree, especially as we were convinced that their puny efforts were overrated.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The unexpected and somewhat ominous calm was now for the first time broken. It was 9:30 o'clock when Denis Kilbride began his statement, then the first noise was heard outside the hall when several hundred men and boys had collected crying "God save the Queen" and shouting "God save the Queen" and shouting "God save the Queen."

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

to lay special stress, and that was the Protestant one. He had always been the recipient of good wishes from this section of the community, and on more than one occasion they had come forward with open handed charity and in no small way contributed to the success of bazaars and other events in aid of Catholic institutions.

W. O'BRIEN AT KINGSTON.

ANOTHER OUBREAST OF ORANGE FURY.
Kingston, Ont., May 20.—At Ottawa this morning Wm. O'Brien paid a visit to the University where he received an ovation and an address from the students.

As Mr. O'Brien stepped out of the car he was in the much talked of Kingston, the "Derry of Canada," as it is called. Kingston has a population of 15,000, of whom 5,000 are Catholics.

Arriving at the skating rink, where the meeting was held, crowds—all O'Brien sympathizers—were found gathered around the building and along the sidewalk. Policemen armed with revolvers moved up and down and forbade anybody to block up the entrance to the hall.

The audience numbered about 1,200. It was very similar to that of Ulster tenant farmers, whose custom it is to listen rather than applaud. O'Brien, in opening his remarks, won at once the Ulster approval. He said, "My mission, as you know, is to stir up strife, but blend the orange and the green."

Among other things Mr. O'Brien said: "I believe that the few misunderstandings which exist between Protestants and Catholics in Ireland are due to the fact that the Catholic Irishmen in Canada will soon pass away. Thank God, they are rapidly passing away, and I could not help thinking when I heard to-day that Kingston was known as the Derry of Canada that perhaps the name was a name of good omen."

The unexpected and somewhat ominous calm was now for the first time broken. It was 9:30 o'clock when Denis Kilbride began his statement, then the first noise was heard outside the hall when several hundred men and boys had collected crying "God save the Queen" and shouting "God save the Queen."

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

however, intercepted them and they had to fly for their lives.
The mob next rushed to the Burnett House, thinking that O'Brien was there, shouting "To kill with home rule," "Kill him," and although O'Brien was not there they fired volleys of stones at the windows and then crossed and yelled to their heart's content. The Canadian Freeman, the Irish Catholic organ, was wrecked.

Two hours had now elapsed since the first attack was made and nobody knew where O'Brien was, but he was soon discovered. Peter Devlin, who lives on the corner of Wellington and William streets, stole down to the Chief of Police Hosney and said: "O'Brien is safe with me."

"You will protect you now to the hotel," said Mayor Carson; "I will call out the artillery."
"Will you protect you now to the hotel," said Mayor Carson; "I will call out the artillery."

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

years, till Lord Randolph Churchill in his day of power dispersed him, brought him into the House again and made him Home Secretary and member of the Cabinet.
When Lord Randolph resigned every one thought that Mr. Matthews would resign also, but the unexpected thing always happens with Matthews, and Matthews remained in office. He has not made much mark on the House this time so far, but is undoubtedly a man of ability and probably, when we have all made up our minds that he is a dead failure, he will suddenly make himself a success.

THE OLD MAN RECOUNT.
Now, what of the opposition benches? Mr. Gladstone is to the front, as ever, fighting the Irish cause with energy. He is in excellent health, full of the joy of strife; full also of hope for the speedy triumph of home rule. He said to me the other day: "I cannot and any one man in any section of English politics who proposed or pretended to believe that the system of Irish government could remain on its present basis."

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

Charley Bazaar, Essex Centre.
The Catholics of Essex Centre, in the county of Essex, being few in numbers and feeble in purse, and having done their best towards building a Catholic church in that thriving village, are constrained to appeal to the charitably inclined Catholics of Canada for assistance. And, therefore, respectfully call the attention of all such to their Bazaar, the drawing of prizes for which will take place at Essex Centre on July 1st, 1887.

Catholic Colored Mission Windsor Ontario.
As Dean Wagner, who has in hands the work of the Catholic Colored Mission of Windsor, wishes to begin the erection of a suitable school-house and church at the earliest possible date, all persons who have received his appeal for help are kindly requested to fill their lists as soon as convenient, and send the proceeds, together with the benefactors' lists, to the reverend gentleman. All moneys received will be immediately acknowledged. Persons not receiving in due time such acknowledgment will be pleased to notify Dean Wagner by postal card.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

PARNELL.
Messrs CALLAHAN & Co.
GUYVILLEMAN.—The Olograph of Mr. Parnell, composed of 1000 copies, appears to me to be an excellent likeness, striking as it does the physical expression of the man. His portrait is a masterpiece of art.
MICHAEL DAVY.
We guarantee our "PARNELL OIOLOGRAPH," (Copyrighted,) the only correct likeness of the Irish Leader, and the only painting. Sixty copies are available in tubes on receipt of $2.00.
Agents Wanted. Liberal terms.

CANVASSERS WANTED.
IN ALL PARTS OF CANADA FOR THE SALE AND PROMOTION OF THE OIOLOGRAPH OF MR. PARNELL.
The work is published with the full approval of His Holiness. Contains the most accurate biography of the late Mr. Parnell and the only English translation of his private letters. Contains the full text of all money received from its sale in Canada. For terms and notices in today's RECORD. For terms and notices apply to PEOPLE'S PUBLISHING CO., Toronto. WORLD PUBLISHING CO., Guelph.

CHARITABLE BAZAAR.
THOROLD, ONT.
FATHER SULLIVAN, OF THOROLD, is making a final effort to complete his church (Our Lady of the Holy Rosary), commenced by him in 1878. His parishioners are comparatively few, and generally in humble circumstances. To aid in this good work, he is obliged to hold a charitable Bazaar next October. The stores are put at the modest sum of ten cents each. He hopes the charitable persons, to whom he addresses letters or tickets, will kindly consider his appeal.

KEEPS YOU COOL.
Balbriggan Underwear, - 50c.
French Balbriggan do. - 75c.
White & Cold Cashmere do. 75c.
PETHICK & McDONALD
393 Richmond St.

BOOKS.
MONTH OF MAY.
A Flower for each Day of Month of May, 10 cents; per 100, $8.00.
Flowers for May or Thoughts for Month of May, by Rev. J. E. Mills, 10.
A Flower Every Evening for May, 25.
The Month of May, containing Meditations for each day of May, by P. W. S., 35.
The Ursuline Month of May, 35.
Month of May, translated from the French of De Russi, 50.
Month of May in Religious Communities, by Agnes Sadlier, 50.
The Children of May, cloth gilt, 35.
May Prayers, or Thoughts on the Litanies of Louth, 75.
Golden Wreath for the Month of May, 50.
Mary the Morning Star, 40.
Master Admirabilis, 50.

FIRST COMMUNION PICTURES.
For Girls or Boys.
Size, 6 1/2 x 10 per doz. 30
" 9 x 10 " 40
" 12 x 18 " 60
" 12 x 18 extra, per doz. 72
Lace Pictures for First Communion.
For Girls or Boys, plain, 2 1/2 x 4, per doz. 25
" colored, 2 1/2 x 4, " 60
" plain, 2 1/2 x 4, " 30
" decorated, 2 1/2 x 4, " 13.15

D. & J. SADIER & CO.
116 Church St. 1687 Notre Dame St.
TORONTO. MONTREAL.

BENZIGER BROTHERS.
NEW YORK, 36 & 38 Barclay Street.
CINCINNATI, O., 143 Main Street.
ST. LOUIS, Mo., 206 South 4th St.

Manufacturers and Importers of Banners and Flags of all kinds.
Scarfs, Sashes, Collars, Badges, Hats, Caps, Metal Badges, Emblems, etc., etc.
Banner Crosses, Knobs, Spears, Eagles, Poles, etc., etc.
Embroideries, Oil Paintings, Silks, Damasks, Gallons, Fringes, Hosiery, etc.
Send for our Illustrated Price-List.
It will prove to any one's advantage to send for our estimate before ordering elsewhere.
The leading House in Regatta.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

NICHOLAS WILSON & CO.
126 Dundas Street,
Tailors and Gents' Furnishers.
FINE AND MEDIUM WOOLLENS A SPECIALTY.
INSPECTION INVITED.
P. O'DWYER,
WINE & SPIRIT MERCHANT,
152 Dundas Street, London.

O'BRIEN AND KILBRIDE.
THE DUBLIN EDITOR ADDRESSES THE NEW YORK ASSEMBLY.
Detroit Free Press.
Albany, May 26.—The Speaker's gavel fell for the last time in Assembly chamber at 12.10 p. m., but just as the audience and members were leaving the chamber the Speaker remounted the rostrum and announced that Editor Wm. O'Brien was in the room, and extended to him an invitation to mount the platform beside him.

The famous editor, who appeared to be in good health and spirits, was greeted with hearty applause. Mr. O'Brien made a ten minutes' speech, in which he referred to the universal hospitality with which he had been received everywhere in America, to the feeling of security he experienced when he found himself under the glorious stars of Cape Vincent, to the great honor accorded him by the Legislature of New York. The Irish cause, he declared, would ever go on. Nothing could daunt its promoters; they had the greatest leader in history and the greatest living Englishman as their advocates and promoter of the Irish cause, even Parnell and Gladstone themselves.

Speaker Husted referred to the fact that seven years ago he had the honor to present Mr. Parnell in the chamber, and that two years ago, while he (Mr. Husted) was abroad in France, he had the honor to receive from Mr. Parnell a personal statement which Mr. O'Brien had just made; that American sympathy was most grateful to them.

Mr. O'Brien then retired from the Chamber amid hearty applause, and the large audience quietly dispersed. O'BRIEN WELCOMED BACK TO MONTREAL.
Montreal, May 26.—When the train bearing Editor O'Brien steamed into Bonaventure station to-night there was in waiting an immense concourse of people, who took the horses from the carriage occupied by O'Brien, and amid the ringing of "God Save Ireland," the carriage was drawn to St. Louis. A speech was made by Editor O'Brien, and a speech by the Mayor of Montreal, in which he welcomed the Editor and his party to the city.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

REV. FATHER TOUPIN.
The House of Commons is now led by a gentleman of whom I ventured to tell an American audience tonight. He has a most immense advantage—that of bearing the name of Smith. Smith is the very type and embodiment of a respectful successful English tradesman.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure.
This Powder is pure. A sample of pure, unadulterated flour is enclosed. It is the only one that will stand the test of the microscope. It is the only one that will stand the test of the microscope. It is the only one that will stand the test of the microscope.

W. T. O'REILLY.
Inspector of Buildings and Public Charities,
Parliament Buildings,
Toronto, May 24th, 1887.

WILLIAM HENRY & CO.
No. 304 and 306 West Baltimore Street,
Baltimore, Md. No. 112 Fifth Avenue, N. Y.