The Care of Abo Money.

We publish the chloring letter from the Care of the C of birth. This is not an unusual thing; every respectable Insurance Company, and a number of secret societies, to my knowledge, demand such certificate as a condition precedent to the payment of such claim.

There has been do undue delay in the payment of Mooney's death claim, under the circumstances, because they failed to turnish such certificate when requested. I assume that such certificate when requested. I assume that such certificate has or late been forwarded, and that is the reason why the claim has been paid, because if the claim has been paid without furnishing such certificate then an injustice has been done, indeed—not to Brother Mooney's heirs, but to the association in general, on account of payment by the Supreme Council of a claim in which the proofs furnished by the heirs have been all along legally defective. It is quite true they may have furnished the ordinary proofs, but this was a case which peremptorily required the furnishing of the date of birth. I think that a great number of members under the jurisdiction of the Grand Council of Canada agree with me that in all cases where members are verging close upon fifty at the time of entry, a certificate of date of birth should be in all cases be condition precedent to payment of beneficiary certificate; more especially when after the course of a few months' membership the member dies; and there is often a well-founded suspicion that in such cases the risk was an improper one to be taken, as very frequently parties at that age are in an alling condition at the time of entry. I caded I have had a conversation with one very eminent member of the Grand Council of Canada in which he agrees with me that a certificate of date of birth should in all cases be filed. It is only too alarmingly apparent that there is a fair percentage of members in the association by false pretences. I know professionally of two such cases in Branch 30, Peterborouch. I have been informed of one such case in one of the vertificate of one of the furth should always be proc result of showing the necessity of a strict observance of the constitution with reference to age at time of entry. It was to this end, and to prevent impositions of this kind by Catholics on the shady side of fifty, that I ventured to suggest in my proposed constitution that the age limit be raised to the age of fifty-five, and the amount restricted to one thousand dollars; because I looked upon it that there were some cases where the parties were on the wrong side of fifty when they joined the society, who considered that they were just as well entitled to join the society as if they were close to fifty years of age, but not actually fifty, and that at worst such persons thought that a wrong statement as to age was nothing more than a white lie.

Be assured I shall always feel grateful for your evidence of sympathy. Words cannot express the kind regard and remembrance which I shall ever cherish for you.

MARRIAGES.

St. Brigide, Iberville Co., Que.
On Wednesday, June 22, our small villare was on the qui vice on the occasion of the marriage of Mr. J. D. E.
Lafond, son of D. Lafond, Esq., merchant of this place, to Miss M. E. Donnelly, daughter of Wm. Donnelly, Esq., also merchant of the same place.

Also the marriage of Mr. A. Giroux, advocate of Farnham, to Miss E. Lafond, daughter of D. Lafond, Esq. After the marriage ceremonies were over a solemn High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Capon Larocque, of St.
Hyacinthe, Rev. H. Balthazard, P. P., acting as deacon, and as sub-deacon Mr. A. Lafond, brother of the respective bride and groom.
Music and singing was of a very high order, as Mr. Viau, organist of Farnham, presided at the organ, and Mr. Birtz, of St. Hyacinthe, formerly singer at Notre Dame church, Montreal, and Mr.
Letkoy, of Farnham, joined our small choir, so we had a rich musical treat. A large concourse of friends were assembled in the church to witness the ceremony. After Mass the happy couples and invited guests proceeded to the residence of Mr. Lufond, where a sumptuous meal was awaiting them. The two brides received many valuable presents from their friends, which shows the universal esteem in which they were held by their many acquaintarees.
In the evening the two couples left home on their wedding tour. We hope that heaven's choicest blessings may be the lot of Mr. and Mrs. Lafond, also of Mr. and Mrs. Giroux, through life.

nished, then that some proper legal evidence should be obtained as to why the same is not flouished be obtained as to why the same is not flouished by the same is not flouished by the same is not an intention. I am satisfied, on the part of the Supreme Council to do any injustice to the Mooney helrs; and I am certain, so far as I am concerned, I merely desired to protect the association against the payment of what apparently appeared to be an unjust claim. Another thing, no injustice has been done the heirs, as the courts of law were open to them after the period prescribed by the constitution for payment had elapsed; and they might have sought redress therein against the Supreme Council if they considered they were entitled to recover the amount. The beneficiaries under the certificate, and Mr. Mooney's relatives gene ally, are persons of substa ace and any way, in the event of their success, the Supreme Council would have to pay all costs. They were not, of course, entitled to interest, as contended in your article, because their proofs were defective.

You say that you hope that you will never hear of such another case. I also hope the same, but for a very different reason. My hope is that the Supreme Council will adopt the policy of non-payment in every case until a certificate of birth its filed. By thus insisting, cases of imposition on the society will be avoided. If the Supreme Council now order that all our membership furnish such certificate I venture to say that fully 10 per cent. of our present membership will be in a position to be expelled.

It rust that the notoriety to which this case that given rise will at all events have the happy

OBITUARY.

Mr. Thos. Murray, Paris. Ont, The readers of the Review will be sorry to read the death notice, in another column, of Mr. Thomas Murray, who died on Monday eve not last at his residence in Paris. He was on the oldest and most respected citizens of this

of the oldest and most respected citizens of this place.

At the time of his death he was a resident of Paris for fifty five years, and everybody who knew him had a good word to say about him, and during his life he always had a kind word to say for every person. He did not seem to have one single enemy, although living and doing business for half a century in one place. During his life he amassed considerable amount of wealth, which he leaves to his grown-up family, leaving them in good circumstances. He was a faithful husband, and a kind-hearted father, a good neighbor and a generous friend; in religion, a faithful Catholic, and much respected by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and six of a family to mourn his loss, His family are Mrs. Roche of Watford: Miss Anne, school teacher at Lindsay; John Murray, in the freight department of the N. Y. Central, Niagara; Misses Helena and Maggie, and Thomas, who are still at home.

Deceased was born at Long Point and came to Paris when a surall boy, making his home here almost ever since that time.

Many will hear of this sad news with regret, as he was universally respected.

All his family were at home and stood around the death-bed of a loving father at the time of his death, except Miss Anne, of Lindsay, who was unable to attend owing to sickness, and who will not be advised of the death of her father until she more fully recovers her health, as her medical attendant stated that it would not be wise to inform her of the sad event, at present.

The funeral, which was a very large one, took piace on Weldandan.

Thomas Blute,
That the parishioners of St. Mary's Church, Campbellford, hereby express our heartfelt sorrow for the sad affliction sustained by our pastor, Reverend Father Casey and his bereaved family by the death of his father, the late Richard Casey, Esq., of Smith Falls and hereby extend to them our sincere sympathy and trust that God will give them strength to bear their loss with resignation and submission to His hely will,
and humbly pray that He in His mercy will grant eternal rest to the soul of the departed;
and that a copy of this resolution be sent to the CATHOLIC RECORD and to Rev. Father

FROM DESCOUSSE, N. S.

FROM DESCOUSSE, N. S.

To THE RECORD—Rev. Angus Chisholm, D. D., for six years parish priest here, bade adieu to his parishioners yesterday, Sunday. It is sal at any time for a Catholic congregation to part from a priest, but doubly so when there exists such genuine and universal love between priest and people as has been the case in this parish for the last six years. To say that every person in this parish loved the Rev. Dr. is simply stating a fact—loved him as children love a good tather; and the parting is exceedingly painful. Few outside the Catholic Church understand why we Catholics love and respect our priests so much; at least if they do understand they never give a correct explanation.

"He that heareth you," says Christ to His Apostles, "heareth Me, and He that despiseth Wonderful words!—Not so much the authority, perhaps, as the doctrine they teach.

This is the principal reason why Catholics love and respect the priesthood. Apart from this, of course, there are personal charms which endear a priest to his people.

During the six years that Rev. Dr. Chisholm labored among us he built a beautiful parochial house, had gallaries placed in the clurch and had considerable repairs done to the church. These are only temporal things. After all the best legacy he could leave us, if we would only follow his example, is the exemplary life he led. In parting we can only say God bless him. "Better loved you cannot be, will you ever come back again?"

Descousse, June 20, 1892.

P. S.—Rev. Dr. Chisholm does not leave here to take another parish. He goes to the College, and will be Editor of the Casket.

he Terrible Sufferings of Isaac W. Church From Paralysis.—Crushed by a Fall of Forty Feet—He Spends Months in a Hospital and is Discharged Only to Suffer Great Agony— Months Without Sleep and a Victim of Nerv-ous Prostration—An Account of his Cure as Investigated by a "Times" Reporter.

Hamilton Times, June 20, 1892. "In the spring of 1887, while working on a building in Liverpool," said Mr. Church, " a scaffold on which I was standing collapsed and I fell to the pavement, a distance of forty feet. Bruised and bleeding I was picked up and conveyed to the Northern Hospital, and not one of the doctors who attended me held out any hope for my ultimate recovery. The base of my spine seemed to be smashed into a pulp, and the efforts of the medical men were directed altregether towards relieving the terrible agony I suffered rather than towards curing my injuries. I had the constitution of an ox though, and the speaker threw out his chest and squared a pair of shoulders that would have done credit to a prince among athletes, "and as I seemed to have a tremendous grip on life the doctors took heart and after remaining in that hospital forty weeks I was discharged as being as far recovered as I would ever be. For twenty-six weeks I had to lie in one position, and any attempt to place me on my back made me scream with pain. Through cighten months after my discharge I was unable to do a stroke of work, and could with difficulty make my way about the house, and then only with the aid of crutches. Twice during that time I underwent operations at the hands of eminent surgeons, who were amazed at the fact of my being alive at all after they had been informed of the extent of my injuries. On the last occasion my back was cut open and it was discovered that the bones which had been shattered by my fall had, by process of time, completely overlapped each other. forming a knuckle that you see here," and Mr. Church showed the reporter a carious lump hear the base of his spine. "All efforts to straighten those hones continued unavalling, and maily the doctors told me that in the course of a few months paralysis would set in and my troubles would be increased tenfold. Their predictions proved only to 5 trae, and before long I was in almost as bad a condition as ever. No tongue can tell the pain I suffered as the disease progressed, and eventual once more and accordingly procure in a box of those little Pink Pills from Mr. Harrison, the druggists, and commenced to use them according to the directions. This was in October of last year. I had not taken them a week till I began to feel an improvement in my general health. In a month I slept every night like a baby. The pains left my back entirely, and by the beginning of the new year I could lie on my back for nours and never feel the slightest pain therefrom. Prior to taking the pills I suffered terribly with its, many of them so severe that three or four men were required to hold me. The pills knocked those all out, though, and all the time I used them I did not have even the suspicion of a fit, and as for my weight, well, you will hardly believe it, but honestly, in that time I gained forty pounds. Well, to make a long story short, I went to work again a few months ago, this time in the Hamilton Nail Works, where I went as shipper, and I have worked there ateadily since the first day I went in. Last full I was too weak to walk a mile, now I work iron 7 a. m. to 6, p. m.; and my work is no child's play either, I can assure you. I handle about 500 kegs of nails every day, and each keg weighs one hundred pounds, and has to be lifted a distance of from five to six feet. All my renewed strength I ascribe to the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which I consider have worked wonders in my own case. For any one troubled with nervousness, sleeplessness or loss of strength in any way, in my opinion there is nothing in existence like those pills for restoring people who are thus afflicted. Yielding to the advice of friends, who claimed that my renewed health was not due to the Pink Pills, I quit using them for about a month, but the recurrence of those terrible fits warned me of my folly and I commenced using the pills again, and I will certainly never be without them in the house."

"Not If I knew it, anyhow," remarked Mrs. Church. "I know only too well the good they

MARKET REPORTS.

MARKET REPORTS.

London, June 30—The market to-day was large, and in the strict sense of the word it was a strawberry market. Grain deliveries were small, and wheat fell to $1.25 per cental or 15 cents per bushel. This is nothing but what might have been expected in the present condition of the wheat market, both over this continent and also on the other side of the Atlantic. But 55 cents per bushel does not pay a farmer in Ontario. Oats were in good demand, at 55 to 98 cents per cental. No peas or barley came forward. There was no chance in the meat market. Beef was easy, at $5.50 to $4.50 per cwt. Mutton, 6 to 8 cents per pound. Londo. It to 12 cents a pound wholesale. Veal firm, at 5 to 6 cents a pound. A few pigs that are ordered sell at $6.50 per cwt., slaughtered. Poultry was scarce. Butter was firm, at 16 to 17 cents a pound for best roll, and It to 15 cents for crock. Eggs were in good demand, at 9 to 12 cents per dozen; the former price for large store lots and the latter per single dozen. There was a large strawberry output, and this fruit advanced to 5 and 8 cents per quart. Gooseberries sold at 5 to 10; per quart.

There were large quantities of vocatables of all kinds, and old potatoes advanced to 50 and 60 cents per bag. Green peas were in good demand, at 15 to 20 cents a quart. Wool was steady at 16 cents a pound. Hay was easy at $1.50 to $4.50; extra. $3.90 to $4.

June 39.—CATTLE—The market was firmer to-day, and higher prices were paid for one or two choice loads than were paid at the preceding market of the week. The general run of prices, however, showed but little alteration, good doads being obtained at 4; to 5e, and extrachoice at 56,12; to 56,25 per cwt. Messys. Rogers & Haligan sent through about 59 loads yesterday and to day, and paid the outside price for several choice lots. Mr. Thomas Crawford was a liberal buyer of the best shipping steers, and paid as high as 5-2e per cwt. for one bunch of 18 fine export cattle, averaging about 1,390 lbs. Butchers' cattle were not quite so active, but not quotably lower in price. About the last of the stall-fed cattle were placed on the market, and some brought lancy prices, as high as 4[e per lb. Grass cattle are now coming in freely and are selling lower, around 3; to 3[e per lb. By moon most of the saleable extile had changed hands.
