Practical Experience. IS BETTER THAN EXPERIMENTAL SCIENCE.

The science of medicine, as practised in hospitals and families, by nine-tenths of our regular physicians, is an experimental science.

It is better than experimental science, as it is not founded on a consistent philosophy.

Now, mark the difference between the experimental remedies of the profession, which even the great Maudsley declares fail more frequently than they succeed.

And those of Professor Holloway, a man who has built up a new system of medical treatment, in which, as we verily believe, there is not a single flaw.

We have authentic statistics before us, which show that the annual consumption of Holloway's Pills exceeds that of all the advertised preparations of the same class at present before the world.

This, of itself, in a country where the opinion of the majority is considered entitled to supreme respect, should be a sufficient warrant of superiority.

But we have seen a still stronger proof of their inestimable properties, in the shape of a copy of the record of certificates and testimonials of cure received by Professor Holloway, directly and through his agents, during the last five years.

Their average almost exceeds belief. It is upwards of 75,000, or more than two hundred per cent. There is no question as to the accuracy of the statement.

Most of the most common and fatal diseases incident to our climate, are those which affect the stomach, the liver and the bowels.

We have seen the effect of Holloway's Pills in cases of this nature, and when we aver that they are a specific, covering all the varieties of these complaints, we do not mean to do so lightly.

Permit us, in all kindness, to recommend all who suffer from bilious disorders, whether acute or chronic, to resort at once to this remedy.

It is not our wont to obtrude advice on our readers, nor do we do so now; but we are so thoroughly convinced of the uniform efficacy of these Pills, in every disease that affects the great secretory organs, that we cannot forbear giving them our earnest endorsement and recommendation.—N. Y. "Dispatch."

Death of Martin Gay Black, Esq.

We have this week the painful task of recording the removal by death of one of our most valued citizens, and one of the most devoted and useful members of the Wesleyan Church in this city.

As the eldest son of the late venerable William Black, his name is associated with imperishable memories of the rise and progress of Wesleyan Methodism in these Colonies; while his own intrinsic worth, his deep, unassuming piety, his unswerving steadfastness, his quiet and unostentatious benevolence, with his readiness for every good work and work, have endeared his memory to the hearts of thousands of every name and denomination.

His illness was brief, and was marked by much suffering; but he died in great peace on Saturday morning last, and was buried on Monday afternoon.

His removal demands a more lengthened notice than this mere notification of his death, and we hope we may receive from some able pen a review of his past useful career.

As a Steward for the poor of the Church—one of the Circuit Stewards of the Circuit for many years—Treasurer and Vice President of the N. S. Bible Society, &c., his loss will be extensively felt, and one which will not easily be supplied.

The following remarks are from the Sun newspaper of Monday:—

In common with our contemporaries of every shade of politics, we have to express the most unfeigned regret at the loss which has been sustained by the death of the late Martin Gay Black, Esq., whose demise occurred on Saturday morning, after a comparatively short illness.

Familiarly known and loved by every resident in Halifax, and in the full enjoyment of his mental faculties until a few days past, the deceased will be sadly missed from his wonted haunts, and his loss will be especially to the city—from the meetings of which for a period of over thirty years, he has scarcely ever been absent.

As a merchant, Mr. Black was remarkable for calm solidity of judgment; for neatness, order and punctuality, and the most unobtrusive uprightness.

But the deceased will be long remembered with affection, for the kindness and amiability of his character. As a citizen it would not be easy to say too much in his praise.

In mind, manners, and deportment, Martin Gay Black was the ideal of a Christian gentleman. Ever one of the foremost in the number and extent of his benevolent and philanthropic efforts, he was especially a friend to the poor and needy, to whom his heart, his hand, and his purse were ever open.

Few indeed, even among his intimate friends, were aware of the number and extent of his benevolent and philanthropic efforts, he was especially a friend to the poor and needy, to whom his heart, his hand, and his purse were ever open.

For the Provincial Wesleyan. Church Dedication. The Dedication Services of the new Wesleyan church in Aylesford West will be held (D.V.) on Sunday, November 17th.

I submit the following plan of appointments, viz: At 10 1-2 A.M., the Rev. Charles Churchill, A.M., will preach.

At 6 1-2 P.M., the Rev. Thomas Angwin. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered at the close of the morning service.

On Monday evening the 18th, the Annual Meeting of the Wesleyan Church in the new Church. Brethren from the adjoining Circles will be present to plead the claims of Christian Missions.

We trust that many prayers will ascend to the Most High, that His blessing will succeed the efforts of His Servants, who have erected this House for His worship, that it may be filled with His glory; and that it may be the birthplace of many souls.

G. W. TUTTLE, Superintendent, Aylesford, Oct. 23, 1861.

We have received a communication from Baddeck, C. B., reflecting upon the unceremoniousness of parties connected with the Free Church, in refusing permission to a Wesleyan Clergyman to officiate there, although the place had till then been open to Ministers of all denominations.

We do not know that any good would result from its publication; for ourselves, we had rather preach in a house or barn, than run the risk of a refusal, where there is any probability of such result following an application of the kind.

Notice to Ministers. We have very great aversion to making repeated applications for money—but it is absolutely necessary imperatively to call attention of the Ministers on the several Circuits to the duty of collecting and remitting subscriptions immediately.—There is no argument of the hardness of the times and the scarcity of money, but what applies with double force to our own circumstances—and we unhesitatingly say that, if the paper is to be continued, it can only be by a vigorous and continued effort to collect and remit the amounts that are due to us.
