

THE GREAT PAPER.

MANY pieces of old paper are worth their weight in gold. I will tell you of one that you could not buy for even so high a price as that. It is now in the British Museum in London. It is old and worn. It is more than six hundred and sixty-six years old.

A king wrote his name on this old paper, and though he had written his name on many other pieces of paper, and they are lost, this one was very carefully kept from harm, though once it fell into the hands of a tailor, who was about to cut it up for patterns, and at another time it was almost destroyed by fire.

Visitors go to look at it with interest. They find it a shrivelled piece of paper, but they know it stands for English liberty, and means that "Britons never shall be slaves." It is called the "Magna Charta," which means simply the "Great Paper." There have been other great papers, and other papers that have been called "charters," but this one is known the world over as the "Great Paper."

We draw the attention of the readers of the CHURCHMAN to the Messrs. Petley & Co's sale now going on at the Golden Griffin—large reductions upon the original prices of goods, are offered.

We call the attention of our readers to Messrs. H. L. Raymond & Co's., advertisement, 4 Pine street, New York. Those who have business in stocks will note this.

The elegant saloon-steamer, "Chicora," is sailing between Toronto, Lewiston, and Niagara, making close connection with the N. Y. Central, and Canada Southern Railways. This fine steamer commenced her double trips on Saturday last, many of our readers will doubtless avail themselves of this pleasant excursion.
