The collections at Emmanuel Church, Preston, Lancashire, on Advent Sunday last, amounted to £730, 12s. 8d. This effort was part of a scheme to raise the sum of £2,000 for the complete renovation of the church which is in a most dilapidated condition. The scheme was set on foot by the new vicar of the parish, the Rev. Walter Morris, some five months ago. The people, who are entirely of the working class and who have suffered much from "short time" in the cotton trade, took the matter up with the greatest enthusiasm.

An interesting ceremony took place in the Library of Canterbury Cathedral lately, when the Bishop of Dover, the Right Rev. Dr. Walsh, was presented with a beautiful triptych of views of Canterbury Cathedral, on behalf of the clergy of the diocese as a mark of their esteem and respect. The presentation took place on the 50th anniversary of the Bishop's ordination to the priesthood. The Rev. Canon Bartram made the presentation and the Archbishop of Canterbury was in the chair. The Dean of Canterbury was also present.

At Albany, in Luzon, the native church was left for a year without a missionary. Did they disband? No; but they went industriously ahead and kept up services at sixteen outstations as well as at Albany.
