

Chintzes make impressive and very desirable draperies and hangings

A word then anent the new stock of Colonial Drapery Fabrics which have just arrived in all their fresh newness of color and design.

A Renaissance Tapestry in the soft harmonious shades of Brown, which lend color and charm without detracting from other furniture in a room. This will appeal to many on account of its wide usages—draperies, hangings & coverings are but a few of its uses. It is priced most reasonably too—seventy-five cents a yard—full yard wide and guaranteed to wash and not fade.

Bijou Rose Oxford Taffeta

While Cretonnes with their cheertful colorings are generally used indoors to instill therein an atmosphere of outdoor freshness, by their use the outdoor verandah may be rendered so comfortable and inviting that one is impelled to spend their leisure moments there in the open air amid the restful and harmonious surroundings so essential to perfect relaxation.

Bijou Rose Oxford Taffeta is one of the many creations we have which in addition to their many uses indoors are adaptable for use in the cushions, pillows, lamp shades and various coverings of the furniture of a well appointed porch. Price 60c yard.

COLONIAL Drapery Fabrics

We have a very attractively arranged little book entitled "The Home Beautiful" which we shall be only to pleased to mail you on receipt of card. It contains many illustrations and treatments of various rooms and will greatly facilitate home re-newing. Send for it—it's free.

to love. He was the little son of Rev. Ross. Mr. and Mrs. Ross and Miss Ruth have our sympathy in their sad bereavement. Mr. Albert Keller was the guest of his son, Frank for a couple days this week. Mr. Peter McUmber, of Madoc is visiting his son-in-law, Mr. Wm. Dean. We are all glad to see David McUmber able to be out again to church, he was a child, whom to know was also Mrs. Jas. Hollinger.

CAPTURED A CANARY BIRD

Police Take Pleasure in Feeding New Kind of Prisoner.

The latest catch of the Belleville police is not a criminal but a sweet-voiced canary which escaped yesterday morning from its cage.

Chief Newton was passing up Front Street near the Standard Bank when he saw a bird at the side of a building. A boy was on hand and the Chief and he captured the little yellow fellow. The sorcerer was taken to the police station where he stayed all day while the search failed to reveal the owner. At the station it managed to get out of one of the cages borrowed and some scheming was necessary to recapture the bird. A kind hearted officer went out and got some bird seed for the pet.

This morning Mr. Wm. Bennett, heard of the capture and seeing the bird identified it as his, which had escaped from a third floor window of the Standard Bank Chambers.

DEATH CLAIMS SISTER OF MR. DAVID PRICE

From The South London Gazette, London, England, April 24th, 1914—Many of our readers will regret the passing of one who for many years was a resident of Bermondsey, Mrs. John Almond, who passed to her rest on Thursday, the 16th inst. in her 82nd year, was the widow of the late John Almond, builder of Jamaica Road, and later of Port Road, Bermondsey.

It may be of interest to note that 50 years ago this Easter, banners were published at St. James' Church, Bermondsey, for her marriage; Mrs. Almond was born at Darlington, her father, the Rev. Ross Price, being the Baptist minister of the church in that place, which no doubt, to some extent, accounted for Mr. and Mrs. Almond, associating themselves with the Drummond Road Baptist Church from its commencement, now close on 50 years ago. The interment took place at Nunhead Cemetery on Tuesday last prior to which Dr. John W. Ewing, M.A., conducted the funeral service at her residence, Jennings Road.

Mr. David Price City Treasurer, is the youngest brother of the late Mrs. Almond.

Mr. W. A. Russell, K.C. of Stediac, N.B., has been spending a few days in the city as the guest of his brother Mr. S. Russell, Registrar.

O.B.C. VS. O.S.D.

The Deaf Boys and Business College Play a Close Game.

On Monday afternoon on the grounds of the Ontario School for the Deaf, a close and exciting game of baseball was played between nines representing the School and the Ontario Business College.

As the game took place after school hours only seven innings were played instead of the usual full game of nine. Both teams put up a snappy game in the field and also out in the most approved Ty Cobb style on the bases. In fact, that loose did they out one of the O.B.C. boys, in endeavoring to accomplish the famous hook slide to first ripped his clothes. However, he continued in the game. Decherster, the crack deaf southpaw, kept the heavy hitting bookkeepers down well and also fielded his position in goal style making several difficult catches and stops. After a ding done struggle in which the teams were tied more than once, the deaf boys finally won out by the score of 7 to 6. Mr. Nurse, of the O.S.D., handled the indicator to the satisfaction of both teams.

Always Serviceable—Most pills lose their properties with age. No so with Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. The pill mass is so compounded that their strength and effectiveness is preserved and the pills can be carried anywhere without fear of losing their potency. This is a quality that few pills possess. Some pills lose their power, but not so with Parmelee's. They will maintain their freshness and potency for a long time.

A DASHING RUNAWAY

Armouries' Concrete Fence Damaged by Wagon.

A dashing runaway occurred at 11.30 this morning in the vicinity of the Armouries. The Dominion Express wagon was on the armouries' entrance awaiting a load of properties used in "The Golden Age" production to be shipped to Toronto. The horse attached thereto became alarmed and ran away. At the gate the wagon struck the cement wall and railing on Bridge street, two of the cement cope stones being carried to the north edge of the concrete walk and the railways twisted loose. At the post office an electric pole was struck and the wagon damaged, the horse breaking loose and not being captured until it reached the west side of the river.
