SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE.

WRECK OF THE SHIP "AGNES," OF DEBLIN.

The ship Princess Boyal, Duguid, from Bristel, arrived at Bathurst, on the Bath Sept., had on board, Capt. Small-man, officers, surgeon, seamen, and I passeuger, in number 32 men, of the ship Agnes, of Dubliti, from Quebee, timber inden, taken from the wreck of the Agnes, on the 18th Sept., in int. 67, long. 478.

Captain Smallman reports as follows: "On Tuesday. 10th Sept., daylight came in, with an swrill gaile, the reabeaking over the ship fore and aft, pumps would not suck. About 6, A. M., an assortmans sea broke over the store in the ship's stern, carrying death and destruction ford and aft. It stove in the ship's stern, anshed the pixpe fited and beams into atoms; knocked away half the rudder, and did not leave a weige of anything on the props. It took to two men away from the wheel, and myself at the minuted closely injured. John Thompson, left airs broken; Nicholas Patterson, skull fractured, and halfig a the minuted.

"Immediately after the sea struck the ship, she broached." SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE.

Divine Service will be held (D.V.) on board the California, to-morrow, (Sunday.) at three o'clock; also in the Bethel School-room, in Queen Street, at nine o'clock, A. M., and four, P. M., to which seamen and emigrants are respectfully invited.

A Funeral Discourse, on occasion of the death of the Rev. Dr. Cote, late of the Grande Ligne Mission, will be delivered to-morrow evening, in the Baptist Church, St. Helen Street, by the Rev. Dr. Cramp. Service to commence at half-past six o'clock.
