MANY NEW BATHING DRESSES HAVE TUNICS

The severely plain skirt is not as attractive in a bathing costume as the skirt which has some fancy trimming touch. The tunic is a favorable motif this season and this new bathing dress of black lansdowne-a worsted and silk material much liked for this purpose—has a graceful skirt with a lapped tunic much shorter at the front than the back. The sleeves are also lapped at the outer side of the arm and there is a shoulder-point collar of cerise brocade hemmed with black satin which gives glowing color to the suit, The cap is black satin piped with cerise.
