Ald. J. H. Spence In Mayor's Chair

Whether Ald. J. H. Spence, will be Mayor of Brantford in 1914 or not, is not known. The dynamic chairman of the finance committee of the City Council has not yet announced himself as Mayoralty candidate, hence the absence so far of dark horses on the mayoralty field. But whether Spence runs or not, he has been Mayor of Brantford. He was made Mayor last night. Acting Mayor, it is true, but nevertheless having all the power of a chief mag-istrate of a bustling busy city like tion, which carried unanimously, re-ferred to the section and clause of the citi journalist £2,000, while Viscount Municipal Act, which conferred on Maitland and another gentleman in he acting mayor all the necessary carlef-in-order to transact business. But the resolution also expressed £105 e for his speedy recovery. When dence of President H. Pollman Evans Ald. Spence took the chair. he ex-pressed his own regret and what he President Evans was p
