CHURCH NOTES

THE FIRST BAPTIST.

All the services of the church yesterday were well attended. In the morning the attendance at the communion service was large and six new members were added to the roll. There were 307 present in the Sunday school. The report for 1912 showed an average increase of 82 per cent over 1911. At the evening service the church was crowded. The pastor preached on "How much do you weigh?" basing his remarks upon Daniel 5: 25: "Thou art weighed in the balances and found wanting." Different scales in which people weigh themselves and are weighed in turn by their fellows, were referred to, but the attention of all was called to the scales of divine judgment in which all are weighed. The ritualist, the moralist and the atheist each in turn were weighed by the pastor. It is the Christian who takes Christ into the scale with him, who alone will escape the verdict, "found wanting" by the judge of all the earth.

WELLINGTON STREET

Large audiences were present at all the services yesterday. The pastor, Rev. R. D. Hamilton delivered two very eloquent and inspiring sermons. His morning sermon was "The Holy Spirit for Service" and his evening topic "A New Year's Message." A feature of his work for the day was his morning sermonette to the boys and girls. The choir under Mr. Darwin rendered excellent music. Mr. Russell T. Collins, tenor, of London, sang a solo morning and evening and his fine work was greatly appreciated. The male quartet by Messrs. Stubbins, Easterbrook, Burton and Houghton was much enjoyed. At the Sunday School Miss Carson sang a solo very acceptably.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

At the morning service, after an impressive sermon by the Rev. M. Kelly the Communion was observed and a number of members added to the membership, an appropriate anthem being rendered by the choir. The evening service being an election sermon, subject "Our treatment of our public men" was ably handled by the pastor. During the sermon two points were discussed: "What we expected of our public men." (2) "What treatment they expected from us." The picture as given of a public man in Exodus 18:21, where he is represented as able, God fearing, truthful and hating covetousness. This, said the preacher, was what we might expect of our public men. But suppose some public man possessed qualities, how will you treat him? was asked. Instances of abuse which has been hurled at our leaders, were given. Men sometimes speak as though public men were paid to stand that kind of thing, or as though it were a light matter, but it was pointed out that it was just such abuse and misrepresentation that led to the attempted assassination of ex-President Roosevelt. Mr. Kelly pointed out that we are apt to glorify the men who lived in the past, while we hardly give the men of the present a chance to do their work, and he read an extract from a paper, which was published when Lincoln was President to show that while he would now reserve Lincoln as a great man while he was President of the United States, he was charged with treason, burglary, perjury, embezzlement and twelve other charges. No wonder an easily inflamed assassin was found to murder him. The speaker pointed out that unless we treat our public men with greater fairness, there will soon be a dearth of them and that will work out badly for popular government—either municipal or federal. Criticism is needed and public men are prepared for it, but if a man is honorable, no one is warranted in hurrying at him abuse and slander simply because he does not agree with him. The times are rich, mammon is everywhere being worshipped and there is little in the way of public spirit.

Obituary.

The death occurred yesterday of Amasa B. White, one of the oldest residents of the city, he having resided here for the last 60 years. He was in his 81st year and was born in Nova Scotia. He retired many years ago and had since resided with his son O. A. White, 19 Murray street. He was a sterling citizen and fond husband and father. He leaves to mourn his great loss, seven children: Mrs. S. Sayles, Brant County; O. A. White, city, E. J. White, Hamilton; Mrs. F. Bowman, California; A. T. White, Mexico; Mrs. F. Grummet, Seattle, Wash.; H. D. White, St. Catharines.

HULL—DALLEY.

Very quietly on New Year's eve the marriage took place of Christine Gertrude Louise, second daughter of Mr. Richard Dalley of Toronto, ex-conductor of Ordnance Stores, to Arthur Wellesley, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hull of this city, formerly of Brantford. The Rev. R. Hamilton officiated. The bride, who was unattended, wore a tailored suite of navy blue serge and white picture hat, and corsage bouquet of pink and white carnations. After the ceremony the happy couple drove to 112 Amelia street where they will reside.

WALLEY FINED FIFTY

Charles Walley, charged with being a member of an unlawful assembly, was fined $50 or two months by His Honor Judge Hardy in the County Court this afternoon. Through his counsel, Mr. Geo. Heyd, Walley pleaded guilty. No evidence was taken on the case, but Mr. Heyd put several prominent citizens on the stand who testified as to Walley's good character. Crown Attorney Wilkes, in summing up, stated that he hoped His Honor would be lenient Judge Hardy before passing sentence, said he felt sorry for the accused man, but stated that he would treat all cases as they came to him. A friend paid the shot.

PERSONAL

Mr. Frank Levee, Toronto, is visiting friends in the city.

Mr. Walter E. James of Toronto is renewing old acquaintances in town.

Miss Nellie Reeveley of Guelph, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Millard, Emily street.

Aches and Pains of rheumatism are not permanently, but only temporarily, relieved by external remedies. Why not use an internal remedy—Hood's Sarsaparilla, which corrects the acidity of the blood on which rheumatism depends and cures the disease.

"My nerves were very bad, and I control my arms and legs," writes Mrs. Robert Bustard, Maxwell, N.B. "Dr. Chase's Nerve Food cured me of what I believe was the early stage of locomotor ataxia or paralysis. I cannot describe what I suffered, but now I am entirely cured."
