LOOK CHEERFUL

No matter how depressed you feel, look cheerful! A gloomy face is unattractive. Look cheerful! Nobody cares about your mood. Each has his sorrows, goodness knows! So why should you your grief disclose? Look cheerful!
Though you are as blue as sapphire, look cheerful! You're prettier when you smile you know. Look cheerful! The world abhors a gloomy face. And tales of woe are commonplace. So stir yourself and take a brace— Look cheerful!

HIGH and Public schools to reopen Sept. 2nd.

MR. PHIL WILTSE's fine stock of fall goods will arrive this week.

An addition has been made to the E. & W. depot at Athens.

HIGHEST price in cash paid for all kinds of grain—ATHENS GRAIN WAREHOUSE.

MRS. MALCOLM BROWN wishes to tender her sincere thanks to her many friends for their kindness to her during her late bereavement.

MR. T. S. KENDRICK is making extensive repairs to the Witheril property on Wiltse street, which he has purchased, before moving into it.

A LARGE number of our young people are going to Brockville to-morrow night on the special excursion train. A monster lawn social is being held there.

THE most enjoyable event of the season will be the excursion to Brockville to-morrow night. The young men of the Island city are having an immense lawn social and everybody is assured of a pleasant trip.

DR. LILLIE has purchased through the local agent, Mr. Fair, a handsome pneumatic tire runabout from the McLaughlin Carriage Works. The doctor enjoyed his first drive in it on Monday evening.

REV. MR. REYNOLDS, pastor of the Methodist church here, is now enjoying his holidays. He will visit his brother in Montreal. Next Sunday his work here will be taken by Mr. Servis, a young man well known here.

THE annual Athens camp-meeting will be held on the camp ground 2 1/2 miles from Athens, commencing Aug. 27th. There have been a goodly number of cottages erected on the camp ground during the last year. It is expected that this will exceed all that have been on this ground.

A CERTAIN lady had many sympathetic inquirers at Charleston on Wednesday evening last who wanted to know what caused a bad cut on her which caused a black eye. It appears that in her ticket selling enthusiasm while in Athens she ran against an iron railing in an effort to collar a victim.

THE "Wallopers" go to Brockville on Monday to play the return match with the Boys of that town. The local captain is confident of a victory for his team. Many supporters will accompany the team. It is said the Brockville manager has notified the Athenians to put up at the Ottawa House!

MR. W. H. DINGLE, whose music advertisement appears in another column, has had over twenty years of experience in teaching piano, organ and singing. He was educated at Leipzig, Germany, and has prepared many pupils for examinations, many of whom are now our leading professional musicians.

THE Ontario Minister of Education has announced that hereafter no text books will be authorized for use in the schools of Ontario until after it has been published and in general circulation for at least six months. In this way their will be no difficulty in learning the opinions of teachers and experts concerning the books for which authorization is desired.

MR. WM. HENDERSON, of McIntosh Mills, a former resident of Athens and the House of Industry, met with a painful accident on Wednesday last. While drawing in grain the horses ran away, overturning the load, and he was thrown against a fence. His arm was badly torn, necessitating seventeen stitches. Dr. Harte is in attendance. Mr. Henderson is improving nicely.

THE social under the auspices of Trinity church, Lansdowne Rear, on Mrs. Johnston's spacious lawn at Charleson Lake on Wednesday evening last was a splendid success. Fully six hundred were in attendance, the evening was pleasant and a very nice time was spent by all. An excellent supper, consisting of cake, sandwiches, ice cream, and coffee, was served on the grounds. In a booth young ladies sold lemonade, peanuts, etc., and were well patronized. The grounds were attractively arranged, evergreens and flags forming a conspicuous part in the decorations. The grounds were well lit up by big Chinese lanterns and torches. There was nothing in particular to draw the attention of the large crowd, so the time was spent in eating, walking and talking. Part of the Lyndhurst band were present and they played one or two selections. The proceeds amounted to the handsome sum of $150.

MRS. P. Y. MERRICK has been in Athens for the past few days packing up her household goods for removal to Ottawa where she intends to reside in the future.

MR. W. A. LEE, clerk in T. S. Kendrick's store, spent his holidays at Lyndhurst. He now has a good supply of fish stories on hand, as most of the time he was handling the rod.

MR. THOS. THOMPSON, left on Monday afternoon to visit his parents near Brockville. From there he leaves to-morrow to resume his studies at the Mt. Hermon College, near Boston.

Mr. W. C. Smith goes to Watertown, N. Y., on Monday to spend a few days with his brother James, who is laid up with a bad knee. An operation was performed last week and he is now doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lewis leave to-morrow to take up their residence in Brockville, Mr. Lewis having opened a law office there a few weeks ago. They will live on the corner of James and Victoria streets. There is universal regret in Athens over their departure.

Miss Ella Gardiner, preceptress of Albert College, Belleville, and Mrs. Cowan, of Hamilton, spent Thursday in Athens calling on old friends. Many years ago these ladies were residents here, their father, Rev. J. Gardiner being stationed on the Methodist circuit here.

Mrs. Dixon and children, Edith and George, of Burlington, Iowa, enjoyed a few days this week with Athens friends being guest of Miss Patterson, Elgin street. Mrs. Dixon is one of Burlington's prominent singers and has made many warm friends here by her charming personality.

Mrs. Clow entertained a few lady friends on Saturday evening, in honor of Miss Taplin, of Boston, those present being school friends of this young lady. Two or three hours were very pleasantly spent. Those present were, Miss Blanchard, Miss Arnold, Miss E. Wiltse, Miss Boyce and Miss J. Taplin.

Mrs. G. W. Beach had a pleasant gathering at her home last evening in honor of her guest, Miss Kennedy, of Toronto. In the early part of the evening tennis and croquet were played and much enjoyed. Later the guests were nicely entertained with music. The songs by Mrs. Dixon, an honored guest, of Burlington, Iowa, were a treat and highly appreciated. She has a sweet, well cultivated voice, and her selections were rendered in a very pleasing style.

Among those present were; Mrs. Dixon son, Burlington, Iowa; Miss Hickson, Brockville; the Misses Hattie and Lucy Patterson; the Misses Elma and Jennie Wiltse; the Misses Ethel and Jessie Arnold, Miss Berney, Miss Giles, Miss Blanchard, Miss Boyce, Miss Reynolds, Miss Slack and Miss Edna McLaughlin.

A happy party of young people thoroughly enjoyed a few hours at the lake on Monday afternoon and evening. For this they are indebted to the Misses Patterson, who arranged the delightful outing in honor of their guests, Mrs. Dixon, of Burlington, Iowa, and Miss Hickson, of Brockville. Most of the afternoon was spent in boating, many of the pretty islands and points of interest being visited. The weather was very pleasant and the picturesque scenes at Charleston completely won the hearts of the visitors. A nice lunch, provided by the ladies, was served on the La-ne-o-tab, the houseboat owned by Mr. B. Loverin. The party drove home by moonlight. Those present were, Mrs. Dixon and children, Edith and George, Burlington, Iowa; Miss Hickson, Brockville; Mrs. G. Judson, the Misses Hattie and Lucy Patterson, Miss Berney, Miss Arnold, Miss Wiltse, Mr. S. McBerney, Smith's Falls; Mr. D. Brown, Mr. White, Mr. Fickwell and Mr. Berney.

Another Athens boy has joined the happy band of benedicti. Here is what the Free Press, Anoka, Minn., has to say of a wedding of which a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Blanchard, of this place, was one of the contracting parties. "Tuesday, at high noon, occurred the marriage of Attorney Will A. Blanchard of this city to Miss Gertrude M. Stevens. The ceremony was performed in the presence of only a few relatives and friends, by Rev. D. D. DeLong, pastor of Fellowship Congregational church of that city. Immediately after the wedding they left for this city—by way of the great lakes and Duluth—where they expect to make their future home. Mrs. Blanchard, we understand, is a lady of many accomplishments who will be welcome to the social circles of Anoka. Mr. Blanchard is the junior member of the enterprising law firm of Wyman & Blanchard and has legions of friends in this county. The Free Press extends best wishes and congratulations.
