Death of Talented Wolfville Lady.

The remains of Miss Hilda Estelle Vaughn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Vaughn, of this town, whose death took place at Dorchester, Mass., on Saturday last, were brought to Wolfville this week and the funeral was held from her parents' home on Wednesday afternoon. The deceased was one of Wolfville's most popular and clever daughters and was dearly beloved by many friends. Arrangements have been made to run a special Farmers' Excursion to Truro on Friday, June 22nd, from Annapolis and stations east on the Dominion Atlantic Ry., including stations on the Cornwallis Branch. Special train will leave Annapolis at 6:30 a. m., stopping at all stations to Windsor, arriving at Windsor at 10:10 a. m., and running from there express to Truro, arriving at Truro 12:30 p. m. The regular morning train will take care of passengers desiring to attend this excursion on the Midland Division.

A special will leave Truro at 6 p. m. same day, making all stops to Annapolis, including stations on the Midland Division, and an extra train will be run from Kentville to Kingsport on arrival of the special from Truro.

Prof. Cunningham, President of the Agricultural College, is providing a very attractive program. There will be an exhibition of live stock on the college farm and the following animals will attract special attention.

The new trotting stallion, Captain Aubrey, generally regarded as the greatest standard bred stallion owned in the Dominion of Canada, and the foremost son of the Emperor of the trotting stallions of the world, Peter the Great, was sold for $57,000 when he was 21 years of age.

Similar interest is attached to our Clydeade stallions, one of which, Lord Ullin, was first prize and reserve champion at Toronto and Chicago.

In our cattle stable is an Ayrshire heifer that with her first calf will produce nearly 14,000 lbs. of milk this year, and that may, if all goes well, make the champion record of Canada. In the Holstein herd is a cow that gave a high as 113 lbs. of milk in one day, equal to over 44 quarts. The Ayrshire herd is headed by a son of Jean Armour, the first Ayrshire cow is the world to make over 20,000 lbs. of milk a year. A sister of our bull holds the world's three year old record for Ayrshires, i. e., 21,936 lbs. of milk.

There are so many equally fine animals that it is impossible to describe them all in a short announcement.

It is planned to make the day specially interesting to women who will be entertained in the new Science Building. Special attention will be paid to demonstrations on the home canning of vegetables and fruit.

The college plant was never in finer shape. The buildings and grounds and premises all look particularly fine this year.

The People's Forum.

I would like to call the attention of your readers to a matter of considerable importance to the townspeople who are so energetically trying to increase the crop production of the country. A friend told me some time ago that he purposed planting what ground he had but feared it would be trampled as many parties had been in the habit of using his lot as a thoroughfare. I suggested that he put up a fence at the back. He has been at considerable expense to build a fine high line fence of wire mesh—a fence that one would think anyone of ordinary brain power would know was not intended for the public to climb over.

Today I was standing with him in front of his residence when he said "Look!" I looked and saw a young man of my acquaintance enter his road-way, walk across the garden and climb this nice, new fence. Now I know it was only the thoughtlessness on the part of the young man, but it was provoking just the same.

I know that it is the custom to take short cuts through back yards. Owners do not like it, but, rather than appear mean, let it go. Now, however when it means damaging crops that have meant considerable expenditure of labor, it is especially annoying. A word to the wise should be sufficient. Thanking you for your space. A Member of the Planting Club.
