ECONOMY applied with a Paint Brush

THE great national duty to-day is to "conserve." It's a duty you owe yourself as well as your country. A duty just as applicable to a house or building, as it is to the things you eat and wear. Buildings, in fact, show so tremendous an increase in cost, that the importance of keeping them protected is apparent to all who know how steel, wood, and the cheapest protection you can give a building is the kind you apply with a brush—PAINT. For true protection, scorn the inefficient, cheap paints. Use only

B-H ENGLISH PAINT
70% Pure White Lead (Standard Genuine B.H.)
30% Pure White Zinc
100% Pure Paint

The kind we guarantee to possess as its important base, the above correct formula. This formula, printed on every can, and guaranteed over our President's signature, commits us to the standard. High in cost as white lead has become, we must use it in the same proportion as heretofore. To use less of it, would necessitate the removal of the protective from our roofs and to do that would injure the reputation that these paints have acquired by reason of their superior ingredients. It is by using pure white lead and pure white zinc in such liberal quantities that we have been able to produce a paint that truly excels in covering capacity—and that stands the severe "weather test" of Canada in a way that speaks true economy for all who use it.

"I know of a place where you can always get cut rates."
"Where is that?"
"From the man who makes a business of winning them."

"Jones is a great believer in the power of habit."
"Yes, that is why he married his stenographer. He thought she would continue to take dictation."

"I'll run over to your place sometime and get a bite."
"Thank let me know beforehand so you won't get it from one new bull-dog."

How He Won His Victoria Cross.
How current William Grimshalden, of the King's Own Scottish Borderers, though armed only with one trench captured thirty six German machine guns and a trench mortar, and thereby won the Victoria Cross in this town in an efficient manner.

On the course of an attack, Grimshalden's trench mortar team captured four trench mortars and instructed them to open as rapid a fire as possible on the block house, the assaulting one of our trench mortar batteries, which was also concentrating on the same target.

The ground between him and the block house was open and entirely devoid of cover. In spite of this he made his way across it in a series of rushes, followed closely by his small band of riflemen.

Under a hail of bullets from the enemy machine guns, and armed with only one hand grenade, he worked his way round to the entrance at the rear of the block house. With his solitary weapon he suddenly appeared in the midst of the enemy, and persuaded each gun team in turn to lay down its arms.

So it happened that thirty six German, with their six machine guns and a trench mortar, surrendered to one British soldier and a team. By his bravery and initiative he was thus responsible for the capture of this stronghold with its defences, and at the same time prevented what threatened to become a critical situation.

Don't Be Dyspeptic.
The dyspeptic has thought only of the stomach when the real source of trouble is in the Liver, Kidneys and Bowels. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills thoroughly cleanse and purify the digestive and excretory system and in this way put the organs of digestion into splendid working condition. Little patient urging on these organs when sluggish will restore the health of healthful digestion.

Grow Sunflowers.
The production of sunflowers is being encouraged in England. The Ministry of Food Production Department has issued instructions how to grow sunflowers and advises all persons to grow them, explaining that the seed is rich in oil and makes an excellent chicken food.

Substitutes for Wheat.
In order to save wheat it is important housewives should use substitutes for wheat flour whenever possible. For gravies and dusting flour, barley or rye may be used entirely for wheat rye bread, graham, whole wheat, etc. or 10% of rye or barley or rye flour may be substituted for wheat flour in brown bread 35 per cent; in oat cake, roll dough, doughnuts, dark sheet cake, 4% cup cake, dark cookies, 15 to 25 per cent; in pie crust, muffins, griddle cake, dumplings, noodles and puddings 15 to 25 per cent; in tea biscuits, waffles, fritters, 20 per cent; and in fried cakes, crackers, 25 to 35 per cent.

A Long Journey.
After two years in the mud and trenches of Flanders, Thomas Atkinson got his leave at last, and made what he considered the best use of his holiday by getting married. On his journey back to Southampton, he received the telegram his marriage certificate in evidence for his return railway pass. The official, who chanced to be a Scot, studied it carefully, and then said: "Well, mon, you've got a ticket for a long overland journey, but not on the South Western Railway."

When the old-fashioned wife
With her baby had strid,
"I'll go back to my mother," she's sob,
"But the spouse of to-day
Doesn't threaten that way,
She says: 'I'll go back to my father.'"

Potato Growing Made Easy
So great was the demand for the recently issued bulletin on Potato Cultivation, written and edited by the Dominion Horticulturist, that a popular edition of 16 pages has been prepared and can be had free by addressing the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa. As an aid to the potato grower, especially to the less experienced and the beginner, this bulletin, which is numbered 90, should prove invaluable. It plainly explains the best method of preparing the soil, the subsequent planting and cultivation of the potato, the protection from insects and diseases and the digging and storing. A list is given of varieties recommended for different districts in every province.

Last Sunday in a small country town the people gathered for worship as usual. The clergyman who officiated was a stranger to the congregation. He had a good story to tell of how the Gospel of Christ was proving itself a great asset of our race in this present time of great need, and by way of illustration, he told the story of the work of the Y. M. C. A. for our boys in summer camps and winter barracks and naval posts in Canada and in Britain; also the work that is being done in France from the separat town right up to the front trenches. This he expressed the hope that his hearers would not see this very practical form of Christianity go by through lack of men's to do their very best work.

The service closed, and four farmers waited at the door to speak to the man who had made that appeal. They all wanted to make their contributions right away to assist in this work. The preacher could only protest that he had not any authority whatever to receive contributions,—"The canvas will be made on the 7th, 8th and 9th of May, and you will be asked to make your contribution then." The amounts pressed upon the clergyman by those four farmers totaled $7.00 and this is only one illustration of what may be expected in every section of our province when the canvassers come out next fall to solicit in aid of the Y. M. C. A. work overseas. Let every one help.

Retreat from a letter received by
Rev. R. P. Dixon, from Pte. Reginald Black, who is now in France:—
"At present I am at the Canadian Corps Headquarters driving a Cadillac touring car for the A. D. C. S. and find the work most interesting in every way."
The Chaplain services operate through moving picture shows. Canteens, coffee stalls, etc., besides giving the boys, too, all kinds of athletic goods in the way of baseball and cricket outfits, tennis, chess, football, sweaters, etc., also writing paper and other things too numerous to mention. All this is supported by the profits from the canteens and not by donations.

All this saves an enormous amount for the boys and keeps them in the best of spirits, which is as necessary as guns and ammunition.

They conduct services in all parts where Canadian troops are stationed and have chaplains for all denominations. Taken altogether it is a very fine organization and almost everything necessary for the welfare of the troops.

Have not seen many I know as yet although I did see Eric D'Almeida driving a car but did not have a chance to speak to him.

Victory the Only Way to Peace.
The whole outlook in the World War is so apt to be changed, if not entirely reversed overnight, that a weekly journal cannot easily attempt any reasonable survey of the situation. Generally when what, in these particulars, it has to offer them reaches its readers, intervening events have rendered it no longer intelligible, or, at any rate, of little value. At the moment of writing, the great German drive seems to have spent much of its force, and the Allied line, though forced back, is still unbroken. The Traction losses are reported as being appalling, vast columns of men have been flung into the hands of the British guns with reckless abandon and indescribable disregard for human life. Notwithstanding this awful sacrifice the Germans have not broken through. But whatever losses the British and French have suffered in the smashing attacks that have been delivered by the German forces, there have been already enormous moral compensations. For one thing the air is again clear and German militarism is once more revealed in all its hideous aspects. All pretence has been stripped away and the Germany that exists to-day is seen to be a mere Germany that threw down the gauntlet to civilization in 1914. It is more apparent than ever that the monster of autocracy will yield to nothing except superior force, and there will be no peace until Prussianism is beaten by the might of arms. Nothing will be gained by negotiations or by compromise. Nothing can be expected until the military pressure on which Prussianism rests is destroyed. It may take two or three years, but if there is ever a peace better than a truce, the Allies must make up their mind to hit the thing through, cost what it may.

A Builder of Health.
Nothing can be of greater assistance in building up the system than Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for this food—pure vitamins, rich blood, and nourishment restores the body, a tired nerve center, gradually and naturally the body and mind regain vigor and energy, and you feel again the joy of living which comes only to people in good health.

An elderly farmer hitched his team to a telephone post.
"Here," exclaimed the policeman, "you can't hitch there!"
"Can't hitch!" shouted the irate farmer. "Well, why have you a sign up. Fine for Hitching!"—Presbyterian Standard.

The Burden of Anxiety falls on the Women

ALMOST everybody is living under a tense nervous strain during these trying times, but the burden rests particularly heavy on the women in the home. Whatever their employment about the house, the mind has much time to dwell on the dreadful things that might happen.

There is nothing so wearing on the nerves as worry and anxiety. Nerve force is consumed at an enormous rate, and as the nerve cells become starved and depleted you find yourself unable to rest or sleep. You soon get so you can only see the dark side, and become down-hearted and discouraged.

Headaches, neuralgic pains, indigestion and failure of the vital organs to properly perform their functions are among the symptoms which tell of exhausted nerves and low vitality.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food will help you if you will only give it a chance. We know this from long experience with this great food cure. We have proven it by evidence published in this paper from time to time. It only remains for you to put it to the test.

You may wonder why people are so enthusiastic in recommending this treatment for the nerves. But you will understand after you have experienced the benefits that are to be obtained by its use.

You will find yourself resting and sleeping better, appetite and digestion will improve and you will know again the joy of good health.
