TAGLERINO NOT GUILTY,

But Black Hand Charge Has Yet to be Heard.

When the trial of John Taglerino, on a charge of assaulting Joseph Deak, was again taken up yesterday afternoon the first witness called was P. C. Springer. He told of going to the store. He saw Deak that night, and he was badly cut up and somewhat excited, as he had been drinking. The first trace of blood was on the sidewalk. Deak told him Taglerino had wounded him.

P. C. James Clark said P. C. Cruickshanks found a razor on the sidewalk, but it had no blade. There was no signs of a fight inside the store, but the blood on the sidewalk outside indicated a tussle.

P. C. Thomas Brown said he found the club. The store had been closed, but he could not say for how long. Some of the glass was broken.

Samuel Taglerino, a son of the prisoner, was heard being out with his father peddling bananas. After they returned home his father went out to get some apples. When he returned witness with him to get a piece of log so that the wagon could go over the sidewalk. They could not find a log and had returned to the wagon when some boys notified them of the fight, and when they arrived the two, Deak and Taglerino, were outside. Taglerino saw Deak. He did not remember whether he told P. C. Springer that his father and John Flowers, the strange Italian, were in the fight together. He told the policeman that his father had the club to scare drunks out.

"For burglars some time," said the boy.

Mrs. Taglerino said the two Poles went into the store, bought some tobacco and had some cigars made for them. In another room John Flowers was fixing shoes and told them to get out if they were drunk. When Taglerino saw the Pole was going to make trouble he used the club and tried to poke him with it. Flower went out the back door and around to the front, where he knocked Deak down with a shovel. She had her hand cut by flying glass when the window was broken. She saw Flowers making motions as though he was cutting Deak, but her husband at that time was in the store.

John Taglerino, the prisoner, went into the witness box, but his honor said he did not think his evidence was necessary, as it had not been proved that he was connected with the cutting.

In giving his decision his honor said he could not find the prisoner guilty, because he had not used more force than was necessary to keep the drunken man out. If a club or knife had been used it would have been more serious, as such was using more force than was necessary.

When the decision was interpreted to him the prisoner touched his forehead with his hand a couple of times as a form of showing his gratification. He was an overcome with the decision that he gasped and appeared as though he was going to faint.

Taglerino still has to be tried on the charge of writing a Black Hand letter in connection with the recent Black Hand outrage.

Merritt Settlement

On Thursday of last week a number of people assembled at the home of Mr. Omar Bartlett, McCollum's Settlement, and gave him a surprise, it being the eighty-second anniversary of his birth-day. There were relatives from Welland, Smithville, Grimby Village, Caistor and Merritt Settlement.

Mrs. M. O. Merritt has returned home after spending Thanksgiving week with relatives at Ottawa.

Mrs. L. Lammman and Mrs. Wm. McCannell and daughter, Ina, spent Thursday of last week with Mrs. M. Merritt, of Welland.

Mr. Norris Bartlett, of Chantler's, visited his parent here last week, Mr. A. Bartlett.

Mr. Ira and N. Jacobs, of Winona, called on relatives and friends in this place on Thanksgiving Day.

Arthur Lammman spent Thursday and Friday with friends at Welland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Zimmerman, of Hamilton, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Putman, of Spring Creek, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. Nelson on Sunday and Monday last.

Mr. W. Southward, of Beamsville, called on relatives here on Monday last.

Mrs. M. Merritt of Fulton, spent Monday with Mrs. J. Lammman.

Mrs. A. Lammman and baby, Kenneth, spent Thursday of last week with Mrs. C. Teeter, of Kimbo.

Mrs. W. Merritt and son, Dennis, visited Mr. and Mrs. E. Teet, of Winslow, on Sunday last.

Renforth

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith, of Ancaster village, passed through Renforth on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant, of Jerseyville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hosack.

Mr. Frank Smith, who has been dangerously ill and under the care of Dr. Boyes, is now, we hope, a little better.

On Friday night Mr. J. Donovan entertained a few of his friends with a fowl supper.

Mr. Dennis Smith, of Leamington, is at present visiting relatives in this locality.

On Sunday morning the early risers of Southcote were quite surprised to find some of their beautiful shade trees adorned with gates at half mast, swaying gently to the breeze. They first thought there was some noted person dead, but it was only Hallowe'en.

Kelvin

This section is having an early winter. It has been real winter weather lately.

Mr. G. W. Weaver purposes having an auction sale of his farm stock and implements in the near future.

A few relatives spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Charles Almas, of this place.

Several from this vicinity attended Mr. R. W. Watson's auction sale of farm stock and implements at Mount Vernon on Tuesday last.

Many attended church here on Sunday.

Rev. T. R. and Mrs. Clarke spent Monday evening in Northfield Centre.

The cheese factory will close at an early date.

Mrs. Sovereign has returned to her home after spending a few days with her sister, here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Jarvis spent Sunday with the latter's brother.

Quite a number from here spent Saturday in the Telephone City.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church met on Tuesday last at the home of Mrs. Clarence Crabb.

York

Mr. Oscar and Mrs. Wickett, of Hamilton, are spending a few days with the former's parents here.

Mrs. M. Runchy spent Thanksgiving with her daughter in Hamilton and Toronto.

Mrs. E. Baker was the guest of Mrs. E. Moore last week.

Miss Jennie Renshaw spent Friday with the Misses Martindale, Fair View farm, Ontario.

Mr. Arthur and Mrs. Smith, Grand View farm, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. Bradt.

The weather being wet and cold is making it disagreeable and slow for the farmers getting out their potatoes and root crops.

The annual Thanksgiving dinners were held in St. John's Sunday School hall on Friday night, Oct. 29th. A good programme was given by a number of Cayugaites to a large and appreciative audience. All did ample justice to the fine dinner gotten up, as usual, by the ladies of the Auxiliary.

Mr. L. Bradt, Cloverhill, left on Friday to attend the funeral of his cousin, Mrs. John Stitzinger (see Mary Hans).

votes and Apportionment, which will secure the city, to a large extent, from the further deprecation of Tammany Hall. I regret that I did not gratify my friends by getting more votes, but I am glad to have the opportunity of expressing thanks for the hard work done by willing friends and organization.

"I congratulate Judge Gaynor upon his large vote.

FOR WIDE OPEN TOWN.

San Francisco, Nov. 3.—After three years of reform government, which followed the bribery graft disclosures in the Reuf and Schmidt union labor demonstration in 1906-07, San Francisco yesterday again chose union labor administration by electing P. P. McCarthy mayor, and Charles M. Fickert district attorney.

Opposed to Fickert was Francis J. Heney, who for three years has conducted the bribery graft prosecutions. Mr. Heney's defeat was decisive, his vote running behind that of W. H. Crocker, Republican, for Mayor, and that of Dr. T. W. B. Leland, Democrat.

Continuance of the graft prosecutions was the dominant issue. Mr. Heney promised, if elected, to carry it on with unabated vigor. Mr. Fickert asserts that he will prosecute only such of these cases as can probably be carried to a successful result.

The opposition to McCarthy rallied round the statement made from the stump that if elected he would make San Francisco the "Paris of America." This declaration was seized upon as meaning he would stand for a return to the "wide open town."

Shortly after midnight Francis J. Heney, conceding his defeat, said: "The first battle for 'Equality before the law' has been fought and lost, but the war against graft will continue to be waged by all true soldiers, who have been fighting with me in the great cause of common honesty, common decency and civic righteousness.

"We have been defeated in this election, but the sober moral sense of the community will again reassert itself and San Francisco will vindicate herself before the world. I retract nothing I have said during the recent campaign. I have no regrets except for poor San Francisco and the many thousands of people who were shouldered to shoulder with me in the good fight."

DEMOCRATS IN MASSACHUSETTS.

Boston, Nov. 3.—The Democrats of Massachusetts were more gratified in looking to-day than yesterday's election, for while the latter succeeded in keeping Gov. Eben S. Draper and the balance of the State ticket in their present positions, their victory by a margin of 8,000 votes in a total of 370,000 was too close for comfort.

The Democrats also made gains in the Legislature and to-day some of them went even so far to predict a defeat two years hence of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge.

In New Jersey yesterday the Republicans held their own in the Legislature, gaining three votes in the Senate to offset a loss of three seats in the lower house.

FROM MARYLAND.

Baltimore, Nov. 3.—The latest but still incomplete returns of the election in Maryland indicate that the negro suffrage amendment has been defeated in the State by from 12,000 to 14,000; that Dr. J. I. Herring, Democrat, has been re-elected State controller; that the Assembly will be Democratic, and that a split ticket will be elected in Baltimore city.

REPUBLICANS ON TOP.

Philadelphia, Nov. 3.—Pennsylvania elected the Republican candidates for State treasurer, auditor-general and Judge of the Supreme Court at yesterday's election, and Philadelphia overwhelmed the reformers' opposition, electing the entire Republican county ticket by a majority of more than 43,000 in one of the heaviest votes ever polled in the city.

IN OTHER STATES.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 3.—The Republicans swept Rhode Island yesterday, Governor Aram J. Pothier of Woonsocket, being re-elected by 11,824.

Jackson, Ky., Nov. 3.—Although a dynamite bomb was exploded and thousands of shots fired in last night's wild election celebration, only walls and plaster were damaged. Several persons in their homes had narrow escapes, as the bullets plowed through walls and windows.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 3.—Dawn following election day found Democracy in possession of nearly all its ancient heritage in Kentucky. The next Legislature will be Democratic by over two-thirds majority.

AT MANILA.

Manila, Nov. 3.—Returns from yesterday's general elections of members of the Assembly, provincial governors and municipal officers are coming in slowly. The Nationalists have carried the provinces of Laguna, Pampanga and Rizal.

NEW YORK FIGURES.

New York, Nov. 3.—Complete returns on the vote for Mayor, tabulated this morning, show the following: Gaynor, 250,678; Bannard, 177,662; Hearst, 153,843. Gaynor's plurality, 73,016.

The complete vote of New York City for the Board of Aldermen gives Mitchell (Fusion), a plurality of 71,031 over Galvin, the Democratic nominee.

LICENSE OR NO LICENSE.

Buffalo, Nov. 3.—The towns of Aurora, Eden, Holland and Wales, in this (Erie) county, voted yesterday for no license. Collins voted that no liquor be sold there except at drug stores on a physician's prescription. Eight other towns voted for licenses.
