

CHURCHILL GETS $50,000.

Dundee Jute Manufacturer Gives to Campaign Fund.

Hon. Mr. Balfour is Again on the Sick List.

Liberals in a Joyous Mood, Says Mr. Birrell.

London, Dec. 20.—There is the greatest disappointment at the indisposition of Mr. Balfour, the Unionist leader, who has been forbidden by his physicians to speak at the Conservative Club luncheon at Edinburgh. The absence of the leader will prove a serious handicap to the Conservatives if prolonged. The Christmas lull is thus doubly welcome to the Unionists as affording him an opportunity to recover. Mr. Balfour is also on the sick list.

The Liberal campaign to-day received a filling in the shape of a gift of $10,000 to Mr. Churchill by a Dundee jute manufacturer for the defence of free trade, which probably will be a very grateful augmentation of the funds.

The speakers to-night included Mr. Birrell and Sir Edward Grey. The former said the present House of Lords was Jerry-built house. In future the Second Chamber must be differently composed. "We are in a joyous mood," he declared, "with customary cheerfulness we scent victory."

Sir Edward Grey, at Sunderland, replied to a severely personal attack by the Duke of Northumberland. He also declared the House of Lords to be the only permanent opposition to the Liberal party.

Lord Charles Beresford, at Pembroke Dock, reiterated his determination to speak out unless things naval were put right. The public had been misled by the Admiralty press bureau, which had done away with the good-feeling and comradeship in the navy. Mr. F. E. Smith, speaking to a Salford audience, emphasized the danger of the German challenge to the Empire's naval supremacy.

Mr. Keir Hardie, at Glasgow, referred to the fact that the House of Lords to-morrow gives judgment on the question whether trades unions possess the right to levy for salaries of representatives in Parliament. He said if the judgment was adverse, the party had everything in order for carrying on its financial work for at least two years.

Mr. Lloyd-George had a remarkably enthusiastic reception while motoring through the streets of Newport. A crowd of several thousands compelled him to make a speech.

Both sides are conducting the campaign with the utmost vigor in every corner of the land.

Mr. Haldane is also sick-listed. Lord Rosebery has written to the Times asking for definite declarations of policy on the question of reform of the House of Lords from both sides. He says: "I can find no pledge in Mr. Balfour's manifesto that his party will undertake a reform of the House of Lords, and yet unless such pledge be given thoroughly and unmistakably we may see a Conservative Government come into office and repeat once more the fatal error of letting the opportunity pass."

The campaign has brought out two interesting communications. Jerome K. Jerome, addressing the workmen at Marlborough, speaks strongly for the Liberals. He said that if the Lords were once given power over finance the Liberals could never hope to take office again, because 99 out of every 100 Conservatives were rich men and able to afford to contest an election every year, if necessary, while the Liberal labor men could not stand the cost of yearly elections, which the Conservatives could finance by constantly throwing out the Liberal budgets.

THE ISSUES IN THE CAMPAIGN.

From the London Daily Graphic's report of Premier Asquith's address at a mass meeting held in London on December 10th: "Mr. Asquith went on to declare (quoting Mr. J. Chamberlain's letter to the Balfour meeting at Birmingham) that it was the fear of the Budget as an alternative to tariff reform which had led to the rejection of the Finance Bill. Neither he nor any of the Liberal Ministers supported by a majority of the House of Commons were going to submit again to the rebuffs and the humiliations of the last four years."

The issues in the common campaign against the common enemy were the absolute control of the Commons over finance, the maintenance of free trade, and the effective limitation and curtailment of the legislative powers of the House of Lords. Let them show themselves worthy of the task and quit them like men."

THE BUDGET A SCARECROW.

From a manifesto issued by Mr. Balfour, and published on Dec. 11: "It is not so much the privileges of the Lords which are threatened by the single Chamber plan as the rights of the people. It is in their interests that the plan must be defeated."

"The Budget now waiting the sentence of the people seem designed to set purpose to make every man who has invested his money in this country consider how he can remove it, and every man who is hesitating where to invest it determines to invest it abroad. The super-tax frightens some, the new death duties cripple others, and, worse than all, the origin of the proposals and the principals on which they have been defended show clearly how thin is the dividing line which separates the policy of the Government from that of the avowed Socialists."

THE FOOD TAX.

London, Dec. 20.—(Globe Cable.)—Mr. Balfour's continued illness, which prevented his fulfilling an engagement to speak at Edinburgh to-day, is having a serious effect on the Conservative campaign. The tariff reformers especially are much disappointed at the inability of the Opposition leader to speak at Edinburgh. Mr. Balfour has been looking into the tariff problem, and it was hoped that he would give the lead as to the articles which, in the event of the adoption of the tariff reform proposals, would come under the head of "raw materials," and would therefore be admitted free.

GOLD COINS.

Fifty Thousand Dollars of Yukon Gold at Ottawa.

Ottawa, Dec. 20.—The first big consignment of gold from the Yukon was received to-day at the royal mint here. Mr. Jos. Boyle, now of Dawson City, and formerly of Ottawa, arrived to-day with a grip containing gold bricks worth $50,000, which he disposed of to the mint to be coined into gold currency. It is probable that the first Canadian gold pieces will be coined from the bricks brought out by Mr. Boyle. A number of English sovereigns were coined last summer from Canadian gold, but so far no Canadian gold pieces have been coined. Hon. Mr. Fielding announced in his budget speech last week that arrangements were being made to begin a Canadian gold coinage, and next year should see a considerable number of Canadian five and ten dollar gold pieces in circulation.

At present practically all the gold taken out of the Yukon is marketed at Seattle or in other American cities. Efforts are now being made to secure the establishment of a Government purchasing office in Dawson, where miners can get full value for their gold. At present there is a discount of nearly two per cent. charged by the banks, although it can be sent to the mint at Ottawa by mail for less than one per cent. of its value. It is asserted that the mint can coin Yukon gold at a small profit, the same as is done in other countries using gold currency, while at the same time there would be a considerable amount saved to the producers in the Yukon.

The shoe workers of Toronto are going to present a demand to the manufacturers for an increase in the present scale of wages.

CAPE BRETON EARTHQUAKE.

Ground Swayed and Trembled With the Shock.

Felt Over a Large Extent of the Territory.

Not Much Damage Done—Communication Cut Off.

Halifax, Dec. 20.—Northern Cape Breton was shaken by an earthquake yesterday afternoon, the effects of which were felt from Mabou, on the western coast of the island, to St. Annis, on the east. Communication with Inverness was wholly cut off last night. The shock was felt there more severely than in any other section of the island, and after 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon it was impossible to get in communication with that section of the island. While it was not thought there has been serious damage, there was some anxiety felt last night over the interruption of communication. The first news of the disturbance came from Baddeck. The telephone central there reported that between 3 and 3:30 o'clock the town was rocked by a seismic disturbance of considerable force. St. Ann's, on the eastern coast, also reported severe shocks.

Reports came in next from Orangevale of a disturbance there. The telephone central at that point stated that shortly after 3 o'clock the village was startled by a heavy rumbling sound. At first it was thought to be an express train running at high speed, but in a moment the ground began to sway and tremble. Dishes and light articles danced around on the shelves and houses were badly shaken. No damage was reported along the line of the Intercolonial. The operator at the Grand Norfolks station stated that the earthquake had not been felt there, but Orangevale station, before it closed for the night, stated that, in addition to the shock there, West Bay, Mabou and Margaree had also been visited by the tremors. No news could be secured from Inverness or Pothook last night. All evening the long-distance operators in the Sydney central endeavored to establish communication with these points, but every attempt proved futile. The wires all failed to respond, and about 11 o'clock the Sydney office concluded that the earthquake was responsible for the derangement of communication. Judging from the force of the disturbance in other sections of the country it is not thought that the quake could have been severe enough in Inverness to have caused any damage, but the fact that no word could be got from there during the night caused some anxiety.

EARLY CLOSING.

Wave of Temperance Sweeping Over Montreal.

Montreal, Dec. 20.—By a majority of three-fourths of its members the City Council to-day gave second reading to the by-law which will provide that from the first of May next all restaurant and hotel bars shall be closed at 10 o'clock each night, except Saturday night, and at 7 o'clock on Saturdays. The present hours are midnight all the week, with the exception of Sunday. Never in the history of Montreal has such a wave of temperance reform spread over it. From all parts of the city petitions were sent in in favor of the by-law, and the aldermen, who took the view that they were the representatives of the popular will, gave their support to the project. A bitter fight will likely be waged by the liquor interests against the by-law, which is assured of passing its third reading after to-day's vote.

ROAD BUILDING.

Southwestern Traction Line to be Extended.

London, Ont., Dec. 20.—Full inspection of the Southwestern Traction Company's line was made to-day by Mr. Murray Verner, of Pittsburgh and Brantford; Mr. W. S. Dinnick, of Toronto; Mr. T. H. Purdom, K. C., and Mr. John Milne, of this city; Manager Mower and other officials. According to semi-official information the line will be extended from Brantford to London in the spring, involving construction of the line from Brantford to Woodstock. At the latter place the Woodstock-to-Ingersoll line will be taken over, and the line from London to Ingersoll will be projected. Other lines are in contemplation.

SAVED MOTHER.

Five-Year-Old Lad's Plucky Attack on Assailant.

Ottawa, Dec. 20.—The five-year-old son of Mrs. Philemon Wright, of Ironsides, Que., four miles from Hull, did heroic service on Thursday afternoon last in saving his mother from a brutal assault by George C. Hammond, a hired man on Mr. Wright's farm. During the husband's absence Hammond entered the house, where Mrs. Wright was alone with her two babies in arms, and Harold, a boy of five. Hammond seized Mrs. Wright and attempted to assault her. Young Harold, picking up a stick of cordwood in the kitchen, ran to his mother's rescue, and while Hammond was struggling with her hit him over the head with all his might. Hammond knocked the boy down, but the plucky youngster ran outside and called two men, who luckily happened to be passing on the road. They hurried in and Hammond escaped by the back door. He was captured by Sheriff Wright yesterday after a long chase. In the Hull Court this morning he was remanded until to-morrow.

WATSON CRAZY.

London Journal in 1892 Recorded Poet's Commitment to Asylum.

New York, Dec. 20.—The American to-day reprints an item from the St. James' Gazette (London, Eng.), of Dec. 3, 1892, which chronicled the appearance in public court thereof William Watson, the poet, on a charge of being a dangerous lunatic. The Gazette story says "about 12 years ago Mr. Watson met with a disappointment in a love affair, and this induced for a time a serious suicidal mania. The care and attention of his friends, combined with a visit to Algiers, restored his reason."

He was arrested because he had rushed forward and tried to stop the horses in the carriage in which the Duke and Duchess of Edinburgh and one of the princesses were driving. He gave as his reason that he wanted to see if one of the two leading royal personages was in it. He was committed to an asylum by the magistrate.

The measure of love is not whether it drains your bank account, but whether it draws on your heart.
