WHERE TO ADVERTISE.—It pays to advertise in the OBSERVER as those who have tried are free to admit. Fires, top coats and mittens have been resorted to by some in their frantic efforts to secure the artificial heat necessary for the promotion of their comfort and good nature.

HELD OVER.—A communication from W. Roumel and other interesting matter unavoidably held over this week.

HOME AGAIN.—Last Friday a number of the Hillsboro friends of Capt. Charles W. and Mrs. Dickson assembled at the station to welcome them back to Albert County. Capt. and Mrs. Dickson have been spending some months in Eastport Me., where Mrs. D. owns a very valuable property, situated in one of the pleasant parts of the town.

Though generally well pleased with Eastport Capt. Dickson was forced by ill health to leave the place and return to his tasty and comfortable home at Hopewell Cape. The damp, foggy atmosphere brought on a severe attack of pneumonia from which the captain rallied with difficulty and from the effects of which he is still suffering, being weak and short of breath. During his illness Mr. D. was tended by Dr. J. M. Josiah formerly of Albert County of whose skill and close attention he speaks in the highest terms of praise, considering that under a kind Providence he owes his recovery to the untiring and skilful attention of Dr. Josiah.

On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Dickson went to their home at Hopewell Cape where they purpose spending the remainder of the summer, having rented their property at Eastport for a large sum. We unite with the many friends of the general captain and his estimable lady in welcoming them back to Albert County and trust Mr. D. may speedily be restored to perfect health and strength.

A SUCCESSFUL ALBERTONIAN.—We always regret to have any of the residents of this fair County migrate to other lands, but when they do leave us we are pleased to hear of their success wherever they may locate. The many friends of Mr. J. C. Calhoun, formerly of Harvey A. Co., will rejoice to hear of his great success in British Columbia. The following extract is clipped from the Weekly British Columbian published at New Westminster, B. C.:

Several of the largest transfers of farm property, which have taken place in the province, have just been completed. Mr. J. C. Calhoun has sold his farm on the Delta of 850 acres to Messrs. Page Bros. of Nova Scotia, for the sum of $63,300. The sale does not include the live stock and farming implements, which are valued at $18,000. Mr. Calhoun purchased this land five years ago for $18,350, which was considered a very high figure, and the neighboring farms all decided that the bargain was a bad one for Mr. Calhoun. With the help of his five sons Mr. Calhoun drained and cultivated the land, and brought it into such a state of perfection that it has now been sold at a figure which even the most sanguine never dreamed would be obtained. Over and above the stock, etc., Mr. Calhoun has 200 tons of last year's crop which he is keeping on hand.

Mr. C. purchased another farm for which he paid a large sum (on account of the paper being mutilated we cannot give the exact figures). This farm is considered one of the best as regards location, etc., to be found in that Province.

Elgin Notes.

Little Prudie, the three year old child of Melbourne and May Goggin, was very seriously injured on Tuesday morning in the following manner: In company with her father who was stanchioning some cattle in his barn she accidentally got knocked over when one of the animals stepped on her, placing its foot directly on her bowels. Dr. Robinson who was summoned at once thought, at first, that death would immediately ensue, but she still lies in a very critical condition, and even yet but little hopes are entertained of her recovery.

A large concourse from every quarter of the surrounding country assembled at the Hall at Forest Glen on Sunday the 7th inst. to pay their last tribute of respect to Ralph Colpitts who died on Friday from injuries received by a train at Petitcodiac on Tuesday July 2nd. Rev. Mr. Seeley of Petitcodiac conducted the funeral services. Mr. Colpitts was in the 74 year of his age and the very large number, besides his family connection, that attended his funeral bore evidence to the fact that he was universally respected. He was interred on the old burying ground on his own farm.

Those pestiferous insects known as potato bugs are again on the war path. Although they do not present as formidable an appearance as in former years yet their onslaughts have to be watched as sharply, and measures for their extermination as vigorously adopted as in bygone days.

The musical notes of the moving machine again remind us that the season for hay is fast approaching. Alex. Barcard has already cut and binned in fine condition quite a large field. The crop will not prove as abundant as it gave promise of being earlier in the season.

Raspberries of fine quality are already plentiful and the appearance of blueberries is daily expected, although July is still in its youth.

Orangemen from Elgin go to Petitcodiac to celebrate the Elgin's 12th.

A handsome sum was realized at replenishing the Library.

Dominion Day was generally observed as a public holiday. A game of base ball between the Mutuals and Electricians resulted in a decided victory for the former, the score being Mutuals 17, Electric 6. The Mutuals have secured another professional—Sole of the Cardinals, the heavy batter, as he is called. He did fine work in the game Dominion Day.

Supreme Court.

The Albert County Supreme Court opened at Hopewell Cape last Tuesday at 8 o'clock, Judge King presiding. 22 grand jurors and full panels of petty jurors were in attendance. The grand jury appointed C. J. Osman Esq. their foreman and after being duly sworn they were addressed by Judge King. His Honor congratulated them on not having any criminal business to occupy their attention. He then referred to the fact that the names of many of the jurors were familiar to him, he having formerly been acquainted with people bearing such names who belonged to the County. He expressed himself highly pleased with the large attendance of grand jurors, complimented them upon their intelligence, etc. He spoke in high terms of the evidence of thrift and enterprise seen everywhere as he drove through the County. He alluded to the vessels being built with in gunshot of the Court House, and also to the fine looking barque built elsewhere in the County and about ready to sail, and said Albert County, as regarded the shipbuilding industry, was ahead of St. John. He mentioned the great benefits St. John, Albert, and other places had derived from the recent advance in freights. After a very pleasant address, which he said should not be termed a charge, there being no one to charge, he dismissed the jury.

Ron. D. L. Hanington Q. C. and H. B. Emerson M. P. E., of Dorchester, J. H. Dickson Esq. of Riverton, and W. A. Trueman Esq. of Albert were the only lawyers in attendance.

The Docket consisted of one entry, E. F. Turner vs. James McNulty, a trespass case growing out of the drainage of Gormantown Lake, the dispute apparently being as to the location of the bed of the River. Court adjourned till 10 a. m. Wednesday, when case will be proceeded with and will probably occupy most of the week.
