TEDDY MAKES LAST LEAP FROM TREE TO TREE ON RESERVATION AT FALLS NIAGARA FALLS, June 10.—Teddy, the largest and oldest red fox squirrel on the state reservation, was killed yesterday when he miscalculated the distance between two trees. He tried to leap from one tree to the other and fell to the ground.

Teddy was the tamest of all the squirrels on the reservation and was very popular with children. He was one of twelve red fox squirrels brought from the south three years ago when the red fox squirrels were placed on the state property to replace the small red squirrels which were exterminated because they destroyed birds' eggs.

Davenport and Ulster, in an Ontario Cup series game, played a 1 to 1 draw last night. The fixture was a replay of the first game of a week ago.

Tex Rickard, promoter of the Willard-Dempsey bout, has requested President Anthony Drexel Biddle, of the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control, to appoint the referee and all other officials for the contest. The boxers have agreed to accept Mr. Biddle's appointment.
