is of interest that the demand for qualified teachers in Roman Catholic schools is very strong and the decrease in the number of Roman Catholic teachers without diplomas is very marked. The average salary of Protestant teachers compares favorably with that of the united States, and is higher than in many of the states. The American average of salary for all grades is $250, and for Protestant teachers in Quebec the average in $240.

Special mention should be made of the Protestant schools of Moutreal, which are subject to provincial law, except as modified by special legislation They are managed by siz cemmissioners, three appointed by the crown and three by the city council. The advantage of the provinces.

To advantage in the minority, that it may make all needful representations to the appearance in the passed for the endange. The Protestant schools of Quebec are better than strangers generally suppose, and that ware, a fair system in which to make the most of our opportunities. It is not the fault of the system; if in some to fault of the system; if in some to fault of the system; if in some to fault of the system; if the legislative grant for public schools is small and three by the city council. The advantage of the provinces.

This is not an easy quack cure-all. Neither should it be judged by certain had imitations already among the people nor by the half-bad efform of invalids to go it alone or half do; it. The salvation of health necessitates accrein repentance, constant self-denial and whole-hearted faith in the good works of physician and patient. Not even M. D.'s certificates by the ream will save one from the evil consequences of stimulants, fluid or solid.
