A despatch of April 26th from Auckland, New Zealand says :- H. M. S. Renown, with H. R. H. the Prince of Wales on board, arrived at Auckland or Saturday morning. The Prince's voyage from Portsmouth to Auckland took thirty-nine days, the vessel calling at six ports en route, and provided a fine test of the organization, efficiency and stesming powers of the great battleship. Auckland gave the Prince a wonderful welcome on Sunday morning. The Renown entering the magnificent harbon soon after nine o'clock, was met by clouds of small sailing craft and also scores of motor boats launches, and excursion steamers The sailing craft kept to the battleeruiser's port side and the steamers to the starboard side so that the Renown majestically passed up the avenue between two lines of volunteer escorts. Some difficulty was experience in berthing at the wharf, but the services of a powerful tug which pushed the Renown's bow in the required direction with her nose made it possible for the Renown to McDONALD. - At Covehead be berthed only twenty minutes behind the scheduled time ar ranged before she left Portsmouth for her arrival here,
